

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., SEPT. 25, 1907.

Mount Pleasant.

Continual rain and dull weather is the main grievance of the farmers. This has been one of the most remarkable seasons that we have ever had.

Potatoes promise only half a crop in this section. Rust and rot are the chief troubles. Grain crops are good with the exception of wheat.

Our church has engaged the services of the Rev. Mr. Copeland for the coming year. We now have service every Sunday.

Some of our citizens attended the Fredericton exhibition.

Our day school is under the guidance of Miss Peterson of Royalton.

Allison Clark is among us again. He looks as hale and hearty as ever.

Our postmaster, M. Rideout, has disposed of his property and intends to go west.

Charles Parent and wife have returned from an extended tour of Maine. Mr. Parent says New Brunswick is good enough for him.

The religious services at Boundary Line church conducted by the Rev. Mr. Beatty are very interesting and many are being added to the church.

The falling off in the potato crop and the diseased condition of what crop there is quite discouraging to the farmers and the chances for shipping are not the best as cars are not easily obtained at the present time.

The chances are that instead of our councillors being elected by acclamation as was at first supposed there may be a number of contestants and the names of a number are mentioned as probable candidates. Centreville is likely to have two if not three and it is said that Avondale will have one and Lakeville one. Stirring times are expected if these reports are true. In the Parish of Wicklow there will be two new men viz. Mr. Estey of Front Wicklow and G. W. White of Centreville. It is to be hoped that the best men will be chosen.

MONTHS OF AGONY.

A Severe Case of Rheumatism Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

"For many weary months I suffered untold agony. I could not walk, I could scarcely raise myself to a sitting posture. I was under medical care, but in vain. Finally I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and they have restored me to my former healthy condition."

This strong statement was made to a reporter recently by Mr. Charles S. Kody, formerly of Kingston, N. S. but now living at Port Maitland. Mr. Kody is a carpenter by trade, and is now able to work every day. He adds: "I cannot speak too highly of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, as they cured me after other medicine failed. While I was living at Kingston, N. S., I was seized with rheumatism in its most violent form. I was compelled to take my bed and for months was an invalid. I was so weak that it was difficult for me to raise myself to a sitting posture. It is impossible to tell how much I suffered day and night, week in and week out. The pains were like piercing swords. I had medical attendance, but it failed. Then I tried medicines advertised to cure rheumatism, but with the same result—money wasted. One day when hope had almost gone a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I told him my experience with other medicines, but he assured me that these pills would cure rheumatism, so I sent for a supply. After using a few boxes I was unable to leave my bed and from that on my restoration to health was rapid. I am now as well as ever I was, and have not had the slightest touch of rheumatism since. The change they have wrought in my case is simply miraculous, and I can strongly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to any one suffering from any form of rheumatism."

Rheumatism is rooted in the blood. Rubbing the aching limbs with liniments and outward remedies cannot possibly cure it. You must get the rheumatic acid out of the blood and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is the one sure medicine to do this, because they actually make new blood. That is why these pills cure anaemia, headaches and backaches, neuralgia indigestion and the secret ailments that make miserable the lives of so many women and growing girls. Sold by all medical dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Lost.

"Reckon you're going to catch it this time, Miss Burnham, and that's no joke."

Something in the clerk's voice made Louise Burnham look up quickly. Dick Sanford—little, good-natured, kind-hearted Dick, whom she had snubbed ever since she had entered the office, although he had been so unflinchingly patient in helping her over hard places—was standing beside her, his queer face furrowed with distress.

"What's the matter?" she asked, alarmed by his expression. "What have I done?"

"Blundered," Dick returned, shaking his head. "It's a pickle and no mistake, Miss Burnham. It was the boss's day to make his big speech, you know, and he fumbled it,—got regularly rattled; couldn't understand it at first,—then discovered half a dozen big blunders in your copy of his notes. I don't want to be in your shoes. I'm not sure I wouldn't put on my hat and walk out before he gets back. I came ahead to warn you."

Louise grew white and started from her seat. Then she laughed and sank back, carelessly twisting the diamond on her left hand.

"Don't you worry about me, Dick," she said. "I'm not going to run a typewriter all my life! If I get turned off now it won't make much difference—nothing but a gown or two, and I've got most all I want, anyhow."

As it happened she was not turned off then although she was sharply reprimanded and warned that such carelessness could not be overlooked a second time. Louise took the rebuke sullenly. Three weeks later she was married. Three years later, a widow with a child to support, she applied to her old employer.

Dick was no longer there, and a new clerk took her name and errand. In a few minutes he returned with a note. Mr. Holbrook regretted that Mrs. Stacey's work while in his office had not been of such a quality as to permit him to give her a recommendation.

White and heart-sick, Louise turned away. Before her stretched the long road where, weary and stumbling, an endless procession, the unskilled workers plodded. Oh, if she had but realized when she had her opportunity!

NOTICE.

The fifth regular annual meeting of members of the Carleton Co-operative Fire Insurance Association took place in the Town Council room on the 20th instant. The Board of Directors of the past year consisting of D. Munro, A. W. Hay, J. A. Lindsay, J. Fewer, A. G. Bailey, Chas. McKeen and J. A. Hayden were re-elected. No loss to the association having accrued during the past year no expense of any kind no call for funds has been necessary. The annual cost of insurance to members during the five years since first policies were issued assuming a rate of one per cent. has averaged twenty-five cents on each hundred dollars, other rates of course in like proportion. This seems to be the general cost of insurance on the mutual assessment plan as appears from their records of over eighty years.

A PELVIC DISEASE

Of Which Peruna Cured Me In a Very Short Time

WAS SAPPING MY LIFE.

MRS. SOPHIA CALDWELL.

MRS. SOPHIA CALDWELL, 1122 McGawock St., Nashville, Tenn., writes:

"After doctoring for a year and finding no relief from leucorrhoea resulting from prolapsus uteri, and which was sapping my life forces away, I finally tried Peruna, and when I found that it was helping me every day, it seemed almost too good to be true.

"But, it not only helped me, it cured me and in a very short time.

"I am now enjoying the best of health. I am strong and free from pain, and I certainly feel that all praise and honor are due to Peruna."

Thousands of women will read the testimonial of Mrs. Caldwell as above given.

Thousands of them will be induced to try the remedy that saved her.
