The Country Merchants Reap the Benefit

The people along the river miss the Aberdeen very much but the storekeepers along the route, though they missed it at first are now getting used to the absence of a steam-boat service and have to come to the conclusion that they are quite as well if not better off without it. When the boat was running the men who had occasion to go to Fredericton were in the habit of bringing back large quantities of provisions. It was enough to make a country storekeeper ill to see the Aberdeen discharge at the wharf every other day tons of provisions of which he had a store full ready to sell.

Now that there is no steamer on the route all this business goes to the stores at Meductic, Temple, Pokiok, Hawkshaw and other points along the river.

Fredericton Exhibition.

The prize list of the Fredericton Exhibition is just to hand. It is replete with information regarding the fair which is to be held at the capital from September 14th to 21st inclusive, which it is hoped "to make the best ever." Generous premiums are offered for horses, cattle, swine, poultry, pet stock, dairy, agriculture, horticultural and floricultural products, apiary products and supplies, natural history, fine arts and ladies' domestic and fancy work. It is stated that the prizes are the largest ever offered in New Brunswick and the special attractions the most expensive ever contracted for in the Fredericton section. The fair grounds have been increased by the purchase of adjoining lands, and everything will be in shape for a very successful fair in September. All information desired regarding the exhibition may be obtained from W. S. Hooper, Fredericton.

Letter of Condolence.

At the meeting of Woodstock L. O. L. No. 38 July 2nd. The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

MR. JAMES BREWER,
Dear Sir and Brother,—We the members of Woodstock L. O. L. No. 38 desire to express to you the heartfelt sorrow with which we learned of the untimely death of your beloved wife, and wish to convey to you our deepest sympathy in this the hour of your sore bereavement. We are well aware that the commonplaces of condolence cannot assuage the grief so deep, but we trust that this expression of our sympathy may be to you some slight source of comfort.

He who is too wise to err, too good to be unkind, has seen fit to transplant your loved companion into His own Paradise and hence bids you follow. May you be able to see in this the hand of God and put your trust in Him. And the same Providence which has removed your loved one hence is willing and able to heal the broken hearts with the oil of His everlasting love.

Signed in behalf of the Lodge,
GEO. I. BRITTON,
T. H. MCKINNEY.

Another Session Before An Election.

The Hon. C. W. Rodinson, premier of New Brunswick, said last week to a newspaper man in Montreal: "You can say that there is no immediate likelihood of a dissolution of the New Brunswick legislature. There is another session to run before the general elections are due and so far as I can say at present that session will be held."

Mr. Rodinson added that he had so recently assumed office that he thought he might well be allowed to take advantage of the remaining session.

Probate Court.

Last Wednesday, in the estate of the late John Graham of the town of Woodstock, letters of administration were granted to his widow Katharine Graham and his only daughter Annie E. The real estate was valued at $13,550 and the personalty at $27,000. A. B. Connell, K. C., proctor.

A Good Word For Small Farms.

One young farmer is sure that small farms pay best. Less hired help is needed, he says, and what work is done can be easily performed under the direction of the owner. The small farm can be kept clean, and what is undertaken can be carried through. It is better adapted to a specialty. Large farms, according to his observation, waste money in hiring labor, and even then the work is not done as it should be.—American Cultivator.

The number of deaths occurring among young children during the summer months is simply appalling. In the city of Montreal last week, 175 children under the age of five years died, and nearly all the deaths were due to stomach and bowel troubles. With ordinary care most of these little lives might have been saved. Watch the food given the little ones. Do not feed meats; see that the milk given is pure, and give an occasional dose of Baby's Own Tablets, a medicine which surpasses all others in preventing and curing stomach and bowel troubles.

Bull--True.

A very interesting social event took place in the United Baptist church last Wednesday afternoon when Miss Luella Augusta True, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward True of Chapel Street, was united in marriage to LeBaron Randolph Bull of Hawkshaw. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Kierstead. The church, which was filled to the doors with invited guests and other friends of the bride and groom, was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and potted plants and the bridal party stood beneath a floral bell while the ceremony was being performed.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was attended by her sister Miss Agnes True and little Erma Shaw, the groom's niece, acted as flower girl. Capt. J. J. Bull, cousin of the groom, was groomsmen. The bride looked charming in a dress of white silk with a veil caught up with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid wore blue silk voile with cream hat. The flower girl was prettily dressed in blue silk and looked like a fairy.

The groom's present to the bride was a set of furs and one hundred shares in the Labelle gold mine. To the bridesmaid he gave a white silk sunshade, to the flower girl an opal ring, and to the ushers, Corydon Bull, Judson VanWart and F. Parker Jacques, opal stick pins. After the ceremony the wedding party and invited guests repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a reception was held and luncheon was served. The happy couple took the evening train for a trip through Nova Scotia. After August fifteenth they will be at home in Hawkshaw.

The bride was the recipient of a great many very beautiful and costly presents which serve to indicate in a measure the esteem in which she is held. Among the out of town people who were here to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bull, Dr. and Mrs. Turner, Inspector and Mrs. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. D. Reed Bedell, Mr. and Mrs. F. Parker Jacques, Miss Georgie Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Shaw and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Dixon.

Constable Seely is Still on Duty.

That Constable George Seely, the Carleton boy who was concerned in the sad shooting affair at Dalhousie, still retains the confidence of his fellow citizens is evidenced by the fact that he is still on duty. The widow of the man who was shot caused a charge of murder to be preferred against Mr. Seely, but he was not placed under arrest. The sheriff simply required him to give bonds of $1,000 for his appearance at the preliminary examination and this he secured from two of the best citizens of the town. At the inquest of the mayor Mr. Seely has since continued on duty as town constable. His many friends in this city feel confident the trial will completely exonerate him from all intention to do bodily harm and will establish his contention that the revolver was accidentally discharged in the struggle that took place over the attempted arrest.—St. John Globe.

The United Baptist Church.

The United Baptist church building on Main Street is to be practically rebuilt. The present structure is 40 ft. by 60 ft. with a 12 ft. extension in the rear. It is to be enlarged by extending it 21 ft. on the north side, 12 ft. on the south and 18 ft. in the rear. The seating capacity is now 370 and when the rebuilding is completed the main auditorium will seat 580 and the overflow will seat another 200, making a total seating capacity of 780, over double the present capacity. The pulpit will be moved from the east end of the church to the south east corner.

The present steps on the front will be removed and the facade will be brought out flush with the tower. In the front will be three entrances two of which lead to the auditorium and one to the vestry and on each side near the rear will be an entrance to the vestry by which the minister and choir may enter to their places if they choose. The new building will have eleven class rooms, a kitchen and a toilet room. The ceiling of the auditorium will be lower than the present one. The furnace will be discarded and steam will be used for heating purposes. Thomas Hagerman who has the contract for the masonry has a crew of men now at work. Mr. Laugstroth of Hampton is to be the master builder. The building committee are Dr. Baker, chairman, H. E. Burt and Benjamin Clark. The work in hand is expected to cost not less than $7,000.

Liquor at the Lines.

In response to a telephone message from the lines on Sunday last, Scott Act Inspector Colpitts, accompanied by Constables Woolverton and McKinnon, drove out to investigate the trouble. There was a large number of people and many teams present, and whiskey was evidently being sold in large quantities. The constables finally located a fellow, whose home is in Houlton, named Pat Cassidy. He had a clothes bag well filled with "long-necks" in his possession, which he was peddling out to the crowd. He was arrested and the liquor taken from him, and he will be dealt with by the Houlton authorities.

Death of Miss Mary Lindsay.

Miss Mary Lindsay, second daughter of J. Handford Lindsay, Williamstown, died at her home July 18th, 1907 after a long and extremely painful illness from abscess.

The deceased young lady was in her 21st year. She attended Normal School in 1903, passing a highly creditable examination and has since successfully taught in Charleston, Pioneer, Deerville and in Kilburn, Victoria county. In December 1905 she was operated on for an acute attack of appendicitis, which proved successful; but in December last she was obliged to give up her school at Kilburn and underwent another operation in Massachusetts Homeopathic Hospital, Boston. After two months she returned home and has since been in failing health.

Miss Lindsay was an amiable young lady of sterling qualities and had many friends as was shown in the large concourse of people in attendance at the funeral Friday afternoon. Service was conducted by the Rev. George Ayers who spoke comforting words from the text, "But now they desire a better country that is a heavenly one. Heb. 11-16. Interment was made beside the body of the elder brother the late Robert Lindsay who died five years ago.

To the bereaved family consisting of the parents, two sisters Miss Margaret at home and Miss Annie a teacher, also the brother Howard, we extend our deepest sympathy in this affliction.
