Insure Economy.

No loss of time in experimenting if the workmen know their business. No waste of material if they know how to figure. No loss from unreasonable repairs. The way to do the best plumbing is to have men who know how to do the work.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pang of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, it uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

A. O. U. W. in Michigan Surrenders Charter.

After a long and stubborn battle against heavy odds, to place the order in Michigan on a stable footing, the Grand Lodge of Michigan, Ancient Order of United Workmen, on July 9th voted to surrender its charter. In spite of a number of increases in the insurance rates the death claims have accumulated faster than the receipts. It is stated that the Grand Lodge faces an indebtedness of $160,000, to meet which there are only the June collections and a balance of about $50,000 which the Grand Lodge has been endeavoring for some time to collect from the Supreme Lodge, the National Organ. In eight years the membership in Michigan has decreased from 13,000 to less than 3,000. This is another lesson that should teach all intelligent men to buy life insurance from the old line companies and have nothing to do with assessment societies. The history of life insurance since it began is strewn with the ruins of such societies.

Bad Burn Quickly Healed.

"I am so delighted with what Chamberlain's Salve has done for me that I feel bound to write and tell you so," says Mrs. Robert Mytton, 457 John St., Hamilton, Ontario. "My little daughter had a bad burn on her knee. I applied Chamberlain's Salve and it healed beautifully." This salve allays the pain of a burn almost instantly. It is for sale by all dealers.

The Drug Store.

During the seventeenth century the druggist came to America and closely followed English precedents, modifying them, however, by the practice of the Indians, with whom he came in contact. Quack apothecaries began to spring up in the new land, and in 1636 the colony of Virginia passed a law which among other things regulated the prices and fees of the druggist. At this time it was fashionable for the druggists to practice surgery in addition to pharmacy, and the Virginia colony contained a large number of people who were proficient in both professions. In Massachusetts the business was largely in the hands of Indians, schoolmasters, old women and teachers. The Salem witchcraft delusion retarded the spread of the druggist for some time in the Bay State, for the popular impression fastened on the apothecaries a suspicion that they sold the potions that were supposed to produce the spells. Among those who suffered persecution at this time mixers of medicine appear to have been prominent.

The drug shop had not yet become a distinct institution. It was usually a branch of the grocery or spice business. In 1647 one Giles Forman of Boston, had, however, firmly established himself as devoting special attention to pharmacy. In 1648 the first distinctive drug store in America was opened in Boston by William Davies.—Lippincott's.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the RESULT of your ailment, and not THE CAUSE. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for samples and free book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by All Dealers.

Head-Lines and Copy.

A St. Louis business man while recently in an Arkansas town found himself badly in need of a hair-cut. After various and complicated instructions from the clerk of the hotel as to the whereabouts of the barber shop, the man managed to find the place.

When he entered the shop, the only person to be seen was an elderly man leisurely reading a newspaper. To his look of inquiry the St. Louis man announced the purpose of his visit.

"Hair-cut?" asked the barber. "Cert'n'y, sir! Here, Johnny," he yelled to a boy on the step outside, "run over to Mr. Blank an' ask him, of he's done editing the paper, to send over my shears!"

Hungarian Pride

"You cannot move among the Hungarians for five minutes without the caressing sense that you are in a land of gentle people," says the author of "At the Gates of the East."

"Their courtesy, their cordiality and their generosity leave an endearing impression on the memory outlasting the reminiscences of many other lands.

"My friend," said I to a Hungarian official high up in the Austrian service, 'as we are exchanging letters, should like to be sure that mine are properly addressed. Please tell me are you count or baron?'

"My dear fellow," he answered, 'I am a Hungarian!'

Under the little pleasantry you saw half revealed the spirit that places Hungarians in the foreground of the proudest civilized people.

Some years ago terrible inundations in Hungary caused much misery. Money flowed in from all quarters, and among the rest a very large check from a millionaire, since dead, whose financial operations did not commend themselves to the fastidious honor of the fund committee.

"The check was returned. The poor preferred to suffer rather than touch bread presented by such hands, and there you have a side-light on the character of the Hungarian people.

Constipation.

For constipation there is nothing quite so nice as Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They always produce a pleasant movement of the bowels without any disagreeable effect. Price, 25 cents. Samples free. All dealers.

SHOW YOUR KINDNESS NOW.

Do not keep the alabaster boxes of your love and tenderness sealed up until your friends are dead. Fill their lives with sweetness. Speak approving, cheering words, while their hearts can hear them, and while their hearts can be thrilled and made happier by them; the kind things you mean to say when they are gone, say before they go. The flowers you mean to send for their coffins, send to brighten and sweeten their homes before they leave them. If my friends have alabaster boxes laid away full of fragrant perfumes of sympathy and affection, which they intend to break over my dead body, I would rather they would bring them out in my weary and troubled hours and open them that I may be refreshed and cheered by them while I need them. I would rather have a plain coffin with a eulogy, than a life without the sweetness of love and sympathy. Let us learn to anoint our friends beforehand for their burial. Post-mortem kindness does not cheer the burdened spirit. Flowers on the coffin cast no fragrance backward over the weary way.—Watchword.

Take the Postmaster's Word for It.

Mr. E. M. Hamilton, postmaster at Cherryvale, Ind., keeps also a stock of general merchandise and patent medicines. He says: "Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is standard here in its line. It never fails to give satisfaction and we could hardly afford to be without it." For sale by All Dealers.

The Joy of Life.

"Life is sweet, brother."

"Do you think so?"

"Think so?—There's night and day, brother, both sweet things; sun moon, and stars, brother, all sweet things; there's likewise a wind on the heath. Life is very sweet, brother; who would wish to die?"

"I would wish to die—"

"You talk like a gorgio [gentleman]—which is the same as talking like a fool—were you a Rommany chaf [gipsy lad] you would talk wiser. Wish to die, indeed!—A Rommany chaf would wish to live forever!"

"In sickness, Jasper?"

"There's the sun and stars, brother."

"In blindness, Jasper?"

"There's the wind on the heath, brother; if I could only feel that, I would gladly live forever."—From "Lavengro," by George Borrow (Born July 5, 1809).

Being very close fistled, Mason had never allowed himself the costly habit of smoking. He always felt himself a loser when anyone treated to cigars. But on one occasion, when the party he was with entered a stationery and cigar store, he made up his mind to have his share of the treat.

"Won't you have a smoke this time?" asked the leader.

"No thank you," replied Mason; "but if you don't mind I believe I'll take a pencil." —Harper's Weekly.
