FRANK GOODARD, an Englishman, who recently became insane and has been in gaol for the past week, was taken to the Provincial Hospital on Monday by the Deputy Sheriff Foster. He became extremely violent on Monday and Tuesday morning he had to be shackled and carried to the train.

CHARLES H. ROGERS died at the residence of his granddaughter, Mrs. Harry Herrington, in Woodstock, March 16th, in the 81st year of his age. He is survived by two sons and six daughters, besides a large number of grand children and great grand children. He was a kind and loving father and had many friends who will regret to hear of his death.—Com.

IN the death of Isaiah Sharp, which took place last week at his home in Pembroke, a familiar form has passed away. He was possessed of a kindly nature, and being a great reader and gifted with a good memory he was entertaining in conversation. Mr. Sharp visited the World's Fair at Chicago some years ago and had many interesting stories to tell of his visit on that occasion.

A PARTY of young people spent a very enjoyable evening at Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hillmans, Canterbury, March 20. The evening was spent in playing games. An oyster-stew being served at eleven to which they all did justice. The party broke up at half past twelve, a tired, but very merry company. Those present were Misses Alda Draper, Evie Anderson, Alma Glew, Bertha Esty, Elva Dow, Maud Brymer, and Messrs Hugh Adams, Charlie Price, Burns Ritchie, Fennie Hillman, Allen Hillman, Oren Esty.

THE annual meeting of the St. Croix golf club will be held at the curling rink on Monday, April 6th. Several matters relating to the affairs of the club are to be discussed. A full attendance of the members is requested. Several matches are to be played this season by the club. The 24th of May will be the date of the first match to be played at Woodstock. A return match will be played here later in the season. Matches will be played with St. John and St. Andrews. An active and enjoyable season is expected.—St. Croix Courier.

THE Y. M. C. A. entertainment will be one that will certainly entertain. The athletic features are strikingly novel and interesting. Besides these there are solos by Frank Tabor and Mrs. F. A. Good, and readings by Wm. Walsh. Mrs. Good is one of Fredericton's most popular singers, she is well known here, where she is a general favorite among music lovers. Mr. Walsh is certainly an entertainer of the first rank, one who has pleased Woodstock audiences on former occasions, and who can always be counted upon to please his hearers. Frank Tabor is one of the best among the younger soloists of Fredericton. All these with the athletic feature will provide an evening of unusual enjoyment. Don't miss it! Seats only 25 and 35 cents; children 15 cents.

The Scotch Concert.

The Spence Strachan Concert Co., gave an entertainment in the Opera House last Friday night. Mr. Spence the leading member of the Company departed from the usual methods of entertainers by introducing each of the musical numbers with a history of its composition and an explanation of its dialect for the benefit of the uninitiated. He also sang several new songs by Harry Lawder, the King of Scottish vocalists. As a story teller he is easily the best who has visited Woodstock in recent years.

While it was evident Miss Strachan had a thorough musical training and excellent natural ability, on account of a severe cold from which she was suffering, she was not heard to best advantage here. It was extremely unfortunate for the Company, their Cellist met with an accident which prevented her playing here. With such an additional attraction, it would be safe to say, this is one of the best Scotch Companies touring this Country.
