Death of John N. Grant.

At his home at Middle Southampton, of heart failure, on March 12th, aged 73 years, Deacon John N. Grant.

Our esteemed brother was one who identified himself with the holiness movement in its early days in York and Carleton counties. He was one of the charter members of the Reformed Baptist church organized at that place, and, although being in the lumber business largely and a very busy man, yet his place was always filled in the house of God whenever possible and he allowed no small thing to keep him away.

He was also much engaged in Sabbath school work, not only filling the office of superintendent in a creditable manner in his own church, but also in parish and county work. His zeal continued in all these departments of christian labour as long as his health permitted and he felt very badly when infirmity and sickness caused his labour to cease. He has been, is yet and will ever continue to be missed. His place has not yet been filled and perhaps never will be filled.

He was a man possessing a very generous nature; the stranger was never turned from his door. Ministers of all creeds always found a home at Brother Grant's and his well filled barn and dining table supplied the wants of many a hungry and tired man and beast.

His sickness was long and painful but he kept his courage and hoped to recover for the sake of his family and the church he loved which he often said needed his help so much. He was kindly cared for all through his sickness by his wife who stood by him to the last, and his daughter, Miss Lillie, who is a professional nurse and was well capable of caring for him with skilled as well as loving hands. They were often assisted by his other daughter, Mrs. Lucinda Brown, his son, William of Manchester, N. H., and his son, Wilmot, who lived near by, together with the son-in-law, Frank Brown and grandchildren, neighbours and friends, without number.

He leaves the relatives which I have mentioned together with three brothers, Henry, a merchant at Grand View, Whitfield of Lower Southampton, and Nehemiah of Nacawick and one sister residing in Maine.

He was patient and trustful in his sickness and died in the full hope of a glorious resurrection.

The funeral was attended by the writer who is Pastor of the Church, assisted by Rev. G. B. McDonald and Rev. H. C. Archer, former Pastors in presence of a large congregation of neighbors and friends.—Kings Highway.

WHY HE SUCCEEDED.

No. 1. He made no special stir with his first discourses, commented on the good things the congregation had done in the past, and expressed a hope that others things might be accomplished in the future.

No. 2. He was content to go quietly on his way and let the people decide for themselves what was in him, preferring to begin in humility and grow in power rather than to begin with a flourish and fizz out in a year or two.

No. 3. He had little to say about domestic matters, but his family was almost ideal in its relations, so that when he did speak he could thunder.

No. 4. His wife allowed him to be the minister, and was content to be his helper in the work.

No. 5. Winning friends was, with him, a secondary matter; he worked for the Lord, remembering that "when a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him."

No. 6. For such as opposed him he had nothing but kind words; when opposition made his removal advisable he retired with dignity and grace, casting no reflections on any one and expressing a wish that all might labor on together in unity and love, and this final farewell word gave him the very quintessence of triumph in the minds of all good people and in his own heart.

Another Triumph In Canada.
President Edward Bousquet Lauds In Glowing Words.

Mr. Edward Bousquet, 248 a Panet street, Montreal, Can., president of Barber's International Union, Local 455, writes:

"For several years I have suffered from catarrh. I tried many remedies with little or no results.

"I was advised by a friend to try Peruna, and after using a few bottles, I am much relieved.

"I believe Peruna to be the greatest known catarrh remedy of the age. I cheerfully recommend Peruna for catarrh."

The truthfulness of Mr. Bousquet's statements cannot be questioned. He has given a clear and frank recital of his experience with chronic catarrh, and how Peruna helped him when all other remedies failed.
