UNITED BAPTIST CHURCH.

Dedicated on Sunday Last--Large Congregations at All The Services--Collections Amounted To $3000.

The United Baptist Church was opened for the first time since being reconstructed, on Sunday last. A very large congregation was present at the morning service, completely filling the building, including the overflow. The clergymen who took part in the services were; Rev. Dr. McLeod and J. H. McDonald, of Fredericton, A. I. Corbett, of Nova Scotia, C. T. Phillips of Jacksonville and J. C. Bleakney and the pastor the Rev. Dr. Kierstead.

The service opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. Bleakney, morning lesson read by the Rev. J. H. McDonald, and prayer by the Rev. A. J. Corbett. The Rev. Dr. McLeod preached, taking his text from Ephesians 5:32 "This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the Church." Dr. McLeod is one of the older ministers of the Baptist denominations and still retains his old time strength and vigor in the pulpit. His sermon was appropriate to the occasion and was listened to with the closest attention. Special music was rendered by the large choir of which Dr. I. W. N. Baker is the leader and Mrs. (Dr.) Pugsley the organist. The male quartette composed of Messrs. Burden, Watson, Hull, and Baker, rendered a selection very acceptably.

There was a large congregation in attendance at the afternoon service. After an anthem by the choir and singing the hymn "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name," the Rev. J. H. McDonald led in prayer. Interesting addresses were made by Rev. A. I. Corbett and C. T. Phillips. The full choir was in attendance at this service and rendered several anthems. The Rev. R. G. Fulton of the Methodist church was on the platform and made a short address.

The church was again filled to its utmost capacity at the evening service, which was opened with an anthem by the choir. After prayer by the Rev. Dr. McLeod, and the reading of the lesson by Rev. A. I. Corbett, the collection was taken. The Rev. J. H. McDonald, at one time pastor of the Albert Street Church, was the preacher. Mr. McDonald is always a welcome visitor in Woodstock, and there were many from other denominations who went purposely to hear him.

The collections during the day amounted to over $3000.

At the evening service a selection was nicely rendered by the male quartette with obligato solo by Mrs. Huriam Smith.

Mrs. Hannah Cross Wiggins.

Mrs. Hannah Cross Wiggins, relict of the Stephen S. Wiggins, died at her home in Meductic, Carleton Co., N. B., May 10th 1907, after a brief illness from apoplexy, aged seventy-two and one half years.

The deceased was married to the late Stephen Wiggins, a prominent Orangeman, in 1870, and lived for years at Lakeville, Carleton Co., where her husband was engaged in milling. After the death of Mr. Wiggins December 5th, 1891 she removed to Meductic with her son S. Camp Wiggins, who owned and operated mills there, and there she lived with her children the remaining twelve years of her life.

Mrs. Wiggins was beloved by all for her kindly motherly nature. She was a faithful member of the Episcopal church, and was always seeking to make those she came in contact with happier and better.

She left to mourn her sad loss, a son, S. Camp Wiggins, and three daughters, Mrs. Hazeu Scott, Mrs. John Marston and an adopted daughter, Mrs. Geo. Simms, who were all present at time of her death.

Rev. J. E. Flewelling conducted the funeral services at the home, after which the remains were driven to Centreville and interred in the family lot of the Episcopal cemetery.—Jom.

Base Ball.

Monday was a good day for base ball and the fans were out in force at Island Park. The game in the morning was a poor exhibition, probably owing to the fact that the teams have not had sufficient practice. The game was umpired by Arthur Bailey and Denny Glew to the satisfaction of both clubs. Following is the score:

Crows 2 0 4 5 5 2 9 2—29
Independants 3 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—2

In the afternoon the game between the Crows and the Wellingtons was a good article of base ball up to the 7th inning, when the Wellington went to pieces losing the game by the following score:

Wellingtons 2 1 1 0 0 1 2 0—7
Crows 2 3 1 1 0 0 8 1—16

Florenceville Fire.

Florenceville, N. B., May 22—Fire broke out in the Exchange Hotel, East Florenceville, Friday evening about 7.30, but before much damage was done, men with ladders and pails of water succeeded in putting it out.

While the men were working on the roof the ladders gave way and two men—Percy R. Sample and Bedford W. Moore, fell to the ground. Dr. Ross was summoned at once and while both were badly hurt, both are expected to recover.

Had there been a wind blowing at the time nothing would have saved a large part of the village from destruction. The cause is supposed to have been a defective flue.

The damage to the building amounting to $500 is covered by insurance. The hotel is owned by W. W. Boyer, Jr., Boundary Line, and is at present leased by Joseph B. Tompkins.

Florenceville Consolidated School.

At noon May 21 a conference was held at the education office Fredericton between the Premier, the Provincial Secretary and Dr. Inch of the Board of Education and Dr. Ross and William Tompkins of the Board of School Trustees of Florenceville. In the accounts of the Florenceville Consolidated School there is one for $1,600 in connection with the interior equipment of the building of which the trustees claim the Board of Education should pay one half. The Board of Education of the late government demurred in the payment of the account and the Florenceville trustees are now urging that the board as at present constituted should pay one half of the account. The matter will be given consideration.

Willie—Gracious, no! One face is enough to wash these cold mornings. The average chauffeur takes life easily.—Walter Pulitzer.
