

Intelligent Economy

Is the getting of value—real value. Not simply what looks like value on the surface. Many men judge clothes by their first appearance—by the outside—but men who know how to get the best value inquire as to the hidden parts—the interlinings and inside workmanship. This is where the Campbell Clothing comes in. It is Intelligent Economy for you to buy such clothes.

Charged With Theft from C. P. R.

On Thursday morning Harry Smith of Bath was brought before the Police Magistrate to answer a charge of stealing three casks of kerosene oil from the C. P. R. wreck at Bath on Monday, 20th. The charge was preferred by Division Superintendent Newcombe and the arrest was made by Deputy Sheriff Foster who brought seven witnesses beside the accused to town. Mr. Taylor of St. John appeared for the C. P. R. and J. C. Hartley for defense. It was explained satisfactory that Smith took the barrels merely as a joke on the watchman and he was released with a suggestion not to be so funny in the future.

Potatoes, etc. in Montreal.

Correspondence from one thoroughly conversant with the Montreal market says: There is no change in the local potato situation. A steady and moderate demand prevails. Two more car loads of stock were received by a local dealer to-day. Local supplies are quite adequate to the demand, but the quality of a large fraction of it is very inferior, and the dealers are in a quandary as to the best way to dispose of them. Prices are firm without change. Reds, in car lots, 70 to 75c; whites, in car lots 80 to 85c per bag of 90 lbs; whites, in jobbing lots, 85 to 90c per bag of 80 pounds. There is no change in the local hay situation. Receipts are limited, a fair demand prevails and prices are steady. No 1, $15 50 to 16; No 2, $14 to 14 50; mixed, $13 to 13.50; pure clover, $12 to 12.50 per ton in car lots.

Butter paper for sale at this office,

The Market.

There seems little prospect of higher prices for potatoes. Reports from Montreal market say that prices hold firm but there seems little demand for outside stock. A carload sent there last week was disposed of with difficulty. Over in Aroostook the price has gone above $2.00, but several trial shipments made last week did not seem to satisfy the fastidious city dealers. Other attempts at getting in the American market will be made this week.

There is a slight increase in the price of hay and the tone of all markets seems firm. As high as $10.75, pressed, was offered on Saturday but on Monday the ruling prices were as given below. Hay to bring more than $10.00 must be exceptionally bright.

Oats are firmer in tone in the outside markets but the price has not advanced any as yet.

In all lines farmers are backward in marketing yet there is something doing at every shipping point. It would seem to be good policy under present conditions to market slowly in order to keep the trace chains taut, to use a simple metaphor.

Prices prevailing on Monday:
Hay, pressed..... $8 50 to $10.00
Oats..... .36 to .37
Potatoes..... 1.00 to 1.25
Buckwheat meal..... 1.60 to 1.75
Dressed pork..... .06 to .07
Dressed beef..... .04 to .05
Butter..... .22
Eggs..... .22
Wood, from $3 00 for green cordwood to $4 50 for hardwood slabs.

Mrs. William Shaw.

Word has been received in Calais of the death at her home in Dobsis of Mrs. William Shaw, the sad event taking place on Monday last. Two months ago Mr. Shaw, who was well known as the proprietor of the sporting camp at Dobsis, started up the lake intending to visit the town of Springfield. Nothing has been heard of him since that time, and it is supposed that he broke through the thin ice and was drowned. Grief at the untimely fate of her husband is responsible for Mrs. Shaw's death. She leaves two daughters, for whom deep sympathy is expressed.—Courier.

[An account of Mr. Shaw's death was given in this paper two weeks ago. He was born at Somerville, and Amasa Shaw of Upper Brighton and Nelson Shaw of Charleston are brothers.]

THE POULTRY SHOW.

Big Event at Hartland Was a Success.

The Carleton & Victoria Poultry, Pigeon and Pet Stock Association held their first annual show in Hagerman & Baird's Hall on Thursday and Friday of last week. The affair had been well advertised but even in view of that both the number of exhibits and the attendance far exceeded what was expected. The ground floor of the hall proved ideal for the purpose and the next annual show will be held in the same place.

Seth Jones, a well known poultry expert of Sussex, officiated in the capacity of Judge. He was also the judge at shows in P. E. I. and Halifax.

The Farmers' meeting on Thursday evening was well attended and the president, J. B. Daggett spoke at some length, while interesting addresses were delivered by Mr. Jones and G. E. Baxter of Andover, poultry men of large experience, and also by J. K. Flemming, M. P. P. and B. F. Smith, M. P. P.

The total attendance was over 300.

L. O. L. at Waterville.

On Friday evening a very enjoyable evening was spent at Waterville Orange Hall when a basket social was held by the Lodge. About 50 people were present and the sum of $31.25 was netted. The recently elected officers of the Lodge are:—Harding Kearney, W. M.; G. F. Jewett, D. M.; Chas. Gray, Chap.; Frank Harding, F. S.; Frank Plummer, sec.; Kenneth Hawkins D. of C.; H. M. DeWitt, Treas.

The 67th Band.

MR EDITOR,
Picking up THE DISPATCH of recent date I read the rather startling announcement that the 67th Regt Band being in debt to the extent of some $350.00 and not receiving the support from the town in which they thought they thought they were entitled had decided to sell their property and quietly disband. This seems to be at least a very regrettable state of affairs, and although it must be admitted that the band during the past year, have had troubles of their own, the situation is not altogether hopeless. This band of ours has been a source of pride the last few years to the people of Woodstock and Carleton Co. generally and surely the public spirited people of this town are not going to see their only band of whom so many nice things have been said during the past few years, place their fine instruments under the auctioneer's hammer to secure a few hundred paltry dollars? Having had occasion to go to Sussex one year as a humble member of the 67th Regt., our band on arrival in St. John placed their stands one side the station on the grass plot there and were soon surrounded by hundreds of St. John citizens. Dozens of people were soon asking "What band is this?" On being informed they invariably replied "I never heard a better band from a small town." At Camp Sussex during the past few years our band has always held the foremost place among the Regiment bands, the D. O. C. it is well known being especially pleased with it, and the people of Sussex always considered it a special favor when when the 67th Band entered their band stand.

We cannot help thinking that our people should step in at this time and extend a helping hand. Fredericton has two or three bands, all towns have one, why cant we keep one? The government has furnished a room in the armoury, lighted and heated, rent free, the Regimental officers devote a day's pay, will our citizens do the rest?

Yours respectfully,

McCain Hotel Burned.

About two o'clock on Monday morning the hotel at Florenceville owned by Scott McCain was totally destroyed by fire, which broke out in the woodshed connecting the house and barn. The inmates of the hotel which included several guests, were aroused in sufficient time to dress and assist in saving most of the furniture; but the barn was a mass of flames when the fire was discovered.

Five horses perished in the flames, and the other contents of the barn, hay, oats, pungs, harnesses, etc. were lost.

The business was conducted by Fred Greer who formerly lived at St Martins, but who has been in the hotel business for some time. His loss, the contents of the barn, amounts to over $2000 without insurance. The loss on buildings and furniture is estimated at more than $2000, but there was some insurance. Mr Greer was in Woodstock at the time.

Miss Helen McLeod.

Many friends will mourn the death of Miss Helen McLeod which took place at noon on Saturday after an illness of one year and a half. Miss McLeod had made her home with Col D McLeod Vince for some years. Her mother, one sister Mrs Wm. McWaid of Williamstown and two brothers one living in this county and the other in Montana, are left to mourn a loving daughter and sister.

A short service was held at 9.15 o'clock Monday morning at the residence of Colonel Vince and the body was taken immediately to Williamstown where services were held at two o'clock and the burial made in the cemetery there.
