NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

Union Corner.

On Monday morning, April 20th, Mrs. John Marshall died very suddenly of heart failure, at the age of 65 years. She leaves a husband, three sons, five daughters, several grandchildren, a sister and brother and a number of friends to mourn their loss. Her sudden death was a severe blow to the family, especially the younger children who were at home, whose grief was unsurpassable. She was buried the following Wednesday afternoon in the Union Corner cemetery, Rev. C. Currie officiating. The funeral was attended by a large number of sympathizing friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Barton spent the Easter vacation with friends in Jacksonville and Woodstock.

Mrs. W. I. Gildard continues about the same. She has nervous trouble.

Mrs. Myrtle Carpenter is able to be around again.

On Wednesday evening, 22nd inst. a fire was seen in a south-east direction. The following day it was learned that the residence of Fred Saunders in Monument Settlement was burned with most of its contents, including 150 bushels of oats and a hog that were in a building near by.

Benson Potter, sr., was taken suddenly ill quite recently. His physician pronounced it appendicitis and ordered cessation from labor or an operation would be inevitable.

Fred London, over at the Boundary Line, is building a fine barn. They say he is coming after one of our New Brunswick girls in the near future.

Tom McNerlin is rebuilding a barn. Stevens' mill has shut down for the season.

Belleville.

We are glad to see Mrs. Thomas McBride able to be out again. Our teacher, Miss Osyth McKee, spent her Easter vacation at her home in Richmond Corner.

Mrs. Joseph Faulkner has gone to Houlton to spend a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Wolhaupter.

Rockford Cunningham of Canterbury has been visiting his uncle, Allen Wilson.

Guy McLellan, of Richmond Corner, spent Friday evening with his friend, Ben McLellan.

The choir met at Mrs. E. J. Briggs Saturday evening. A very pleasant evening was spent.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Jacob McLellan, who has been sick for some time, is not improving very fast.

Mrs. John Montgomery of Bedell Settlement has been visiting Mrs. James Dalling.

The Misses Katie and Mable Dalling spent Easter at home with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frazer Dalling.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodford McLellan and daughter, Jessie, spent Sunday at Allan McLellan's, Oakville.

Mr. and Mrs. James McBride and little son, Ralph, passed through this place Wednesday on their way to town.

Willie Hay and his sister Annie spent Friday afternoon at Frazer Dalling's.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. McBride was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Briggs Easter Monday.

Centreville.

Rev. Jos. Cahill who has been here visiting his daughters Mrs. F. D. Tweedie and Mrs. L. L. Clark received a message by phone to attend a funeral in Hodgdon, his field of labour thus preventing him from giving the promised address here last Sunday evening.

The Sabbath School concerts held here on the afternoon and evening of the 19th. inst. were very successful. The little ones acquitted themselves admirably, and proved the great possibilities stored up in the youthful minds. Small wonder that it was said "suffer the little ones to come unto me for such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

The Odd fellows held their anniversary Service in the Baptist church last Sunday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Dunham gave a very interesting discourse touching on the history of the order its upward progress and present standing in the world of Fraternal Societies. Mr. Dunham is chaplain of Centre Lodge No. 102 and the regular meetings are held on Monday night of each week. The organization is not yet six months old and there are already nearly ninety members.

The roads are in very bad condition, not due to Commissioners as some would say, but to the action of frost.

A large number of our young people having occupations in other places were home for the Easter holidays.

HARTLAND NEWS.

and Mrs. Tracey, of Waterville, who went to California about the same time are doing well. Mr. Tracey is reported as being in better health than he has enjoyed for forty years. When he left Waterville he was and had been quite ill for a long time.

Charles Tracey, the only living pioneer of the region around Lakeville, was a visitor to Hartland on Saturday. He is hale and hearty in spite of his weight of years.

W. Shaw and S. G. Shaw of Upper Woodstock came to market at Hartland on Saturday.

R. Peach and Louis W. Owens were registered at the Commercial on Friday.

John E. Page, principle of the Model school at Fredericton, formerly of the Hartland school, and his sister, Miss M. B. Page, were guests of their sister, Mrs. Horace G. Perry at Hampton during Easter-tide.

Mrs. Joseph Rideout returned last week from Perth where she had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harry Dickinson. She is now visiting her sons Miles and Raymond Rideout.

Kenneth B. Tracey who teaches school at Windsor was here on Saturday.

Mrs. Joseph Daigle and Mrs. Colby Tracey of Houlton were registered at the Commercial on Thursday.

James R. Ellis of Mainstream, who lost a large sum of money in the village a week ago Saturday was a caller at the DISPATCH branch office the other day. He had received no trace or tidings of the pocket-book, but it is believed the $50 note may be traced if some person should have found it and attempted to pass it.

A. E. Ingraham and T. W. Morron of Montreal were at the Commercial last week.

Pickel & Davidson, the Woodstock plumbers were doing work here last week.

Before M. L. Hayward, J. P., on Monday, the case of Court Alphonse C. O. F., No. 923 vs. Thos. Clark was tried. The plaintiff sought to recover the sum of $11.75 being dues the court had paid for him during the past twelve months. Several members swore that Clark had requested the Court to pay the money to carry him along in good standing, which he denied. The jury brought in a verdict in favor of the defendant. Albert Orser, Esq., was defendant counsel.

The ice in the middle section of the St. John river, between Fredericton and Grand Falls, took a general run yesterday and the river is now free. No damage was done to any of the six river bridges nor to the new railway work which was at one time considered to be in some danger. The water in the river is not nearly so high as is usual at this time of year. The chances are that the freshet will be unusually light.

Monday all the lumbermen were busy getting crews started to the scene of driving operation. Labor is somewhat easier to obtain than ordinarily and wages average two dollars per day, somewhat less than was offered last year. Oldtimers claim that even if no rain comes conditions up river are such that a few days warm sunshine will make driving good.

Sunday afternoon Eldon Clark, Geo. B. True, and Misses Lena Hayward and Florence Snow drove up from Woodstock.

Monday morning F. E. Sayre & Co's driving crew were sent up the Becusguimac and if the season is an average one the drive will reach the mill here in about two weeks. Immediately afterward the mill will start operation.

Concerning the Dispatch Branch Office.

At least a score of persons have come to the DISPATCH branch office during the past week to transact business relating to the late "Chat." The idea prevails among many that this office succeeds Mr. McLaughlan's business. But it does not do so in any sense. The DISPATCH has no connection with the defunct "Chat," the business of which is looked after by the Press, according to an announcement recently published in that paper.

The mission of the branch office of the DISPATCH is to supply the demand for a local paper in a field where experience has proved an independent newspaper cannot profitably exist. If this office fails in its mission, if it fails to fill the requirements of a local paper, there can be but one reason, and that is the same reason why a paper cannot be printed here. There is, however, the certain indications that the DISPATCH, through the efforts of its local manager, will continue to hold the good patronage already received from Hartland. Business is picking up; a printing plant is being installed to meet all requirements of the local trade, and new subscribers are being added to the list every day.

Advertisers are beginning to understand that a paper that goes into nearly 2000 homes each week must yield greater returns than one reading only a few hundred, such, for instance, as the late Advertiser.

If there are any who doubt that the Hartland columns of the DISPATCH do not serve the purposes of a local paper it will please the local manager if such persons will call and make what suggestions they may. Past

Ask any fair-minded doctor and he will tell you that golden seal, cubeb and oil of copaiba (contained in Pe-ru-na) are valuable remedies in the treatment of catarrhal diseases. And every honest doctor will concede that collinsonia canadensis, corydalis formosa and cedron seed (contained in Pe-ru-na) are tonic remedies of high value. With this opinion all the leading medical text books agree.
