A PLEASANT evening was spent at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Hamilton, River John, on Friday, 14th inst., when members of his congregation assembled for a surprise party. As it was the evening for choir practice there was good music to add to pleasant, mirthful intercourse. The visitors had come well provided with dainty baskets and a delightful tea was enjoyed by all. During the evening Mr. Hamilton was presented with a well-filled purse, indicative of the high esteem in which he is held by members of his own and other churches. Mr. Hamilton made appropriate reply to the presentation and spoke of the kindness that had been shown him since he came to River John. The pleasant meeting was brought to a close by singing "God be with you till we meet again."—Pictou Advocate.

The Rev. Mr. Hamilton formerly preached on the Meductic, York Co. Circuit.

Sceptical patient (to faith doctor)—"How do you propose to cure this pain in my chest, doctor?"

Faith Doctor—"I shall pass my hands over your chest a few times, then tell you the pain is gone, and it will be gone."

Patient—"Ah, yes! Will you dine with me, doctor? You can perform the cure afterwards."

Doctor—"With pleasure!"

Patient—"Well, take this loaf of bread, and rub it on your waistcoat a few times and say you have had your dinner, and you will have had it. If the experiment is a success we will go on with the chest cure."
