Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a "hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

Dr. Shoop's Restorative

THE BACHELOR'S SOLILOQUY.

(Edgar Guest.)

To wed, or not to wed; that is the question; Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer The bills and house rent of a wedded future, Or to say "ait" when she proposes, And by declining cut her. To wed; to smoke No more; and have a wife at home to mend The holes in socks and shirts And underwear and so forth. 'Tis a consummation Devoutly to be wished. To wed for life; To wed; perchance to fight; ay, there's the rub; For in that married life what fight may come, When we have honeymooning ceased.

Must give us pause; there's the respect That makes the joy of single life, For who would bear her mother's scornful tongue, Canned goods for tea, the dying furnace fire; The pangs of sleepless nights when baby cries; The pain of barking shins upon a chair and Closing waists that button down the back, When he himself might all these troubles shirk With a bare refusal? Who would bundles bear, And grunt and sweat under a shopping load?

Who would samples match; buy rats for hair, Cart cheese and crackers home to serve at night For lunch to feed your friends; play pedro After tea; sing rag time songs, amusing Friendly neighbors. Buy garden tools To lend unto the same. Stay home at nights In smoking coat and slippers and slink to bed At 10 o'clock to save the light bills? Thus duty does not make cowards of us all, And thus the native hue of matrimony Is sickled over with the pale cast of chores; And thus the gloss of marriage fades away, And loses its attraction.

Pain can be quickly stopped. A 25 cent box of Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets will kill any pain, everywhere, in 20 minutes! Besides they are thoroughly safe. Painful periods with women, neuralgia, etc., quickly cease after one tablet. Sold by all dealers.

The Dublins and the Gordons.

From some "Personal Reminiscences of Irish Humor," by A. Stodart Walker, in the March "Chamber's Journal," a quotation may be made. The story affects the mutual relations of Irishmen and Scotsmen. It was told Mr. Stodart Walker by a captain in the Dublin Fusiliers, who overheard it during the war in South Africa. A war correspondent was speaking to a Tommy of his regiment. "The Dublins have been doing great things," said the visitor to Mr. Atkins. "Well, ye see, sor, its this way: for a time in the army it was all the Gordons, and now it's all the Dublins; and if ye have a reputation for getting up early ye may slape till dinner-time."

TO THE POINT.

Mr. Robert J. Burdett asks the sensible question, "What good has the saloon done humanity?" He answers it as follows: "Can you name one good thing the saloon has done for humanity—one good thing—but one instance in which it has brought forth fruits unto righteousness; one influence, sweet and healthful and pure, gracious and beautiful, which will linger lovingly in the memory of men, when you have buried the rum power, to make them say, God bless the saloon for the good it did? Search through the history of this hateful thing, and read one page over which some mother can bow her grateful head and thank God for all the saloon did for her boy. There is no such record. All its history is written in tears and blood, with smears of shame and stains of crime and dark blots of disgrace.

The Dominic's Fall.

A Carthage minister jokingly told a friend an interview would cost him ten cents. The latter pretended to take the matter seriously and presented him with ten pennies. The minister then arose to protest and while rising his chair skidded and he tumbled. And now the friend is telling everyone he meets, how upset the minister was at having to refuse a contribution.—[Kansas City Star.

The following conversation is said to have taken place in a Boston elevator:

Old lady—Don't you ever feel sick going up and down in this elevator all day?

Elevator boy—Yes'm.

Old lady—Is it the motion of going down?

Elevator boy—No'm.

Old lady—The motion of going up?

Elevator boy—No'm.

Old lady—The stopping?

Elevator boy—No'm.

Old lady—What is it, then?

Elevator boy—The questions.—The Watchword.

A Doctor's Statement

Baie St. Paul, C.C., Que.
March 27th, 1907.

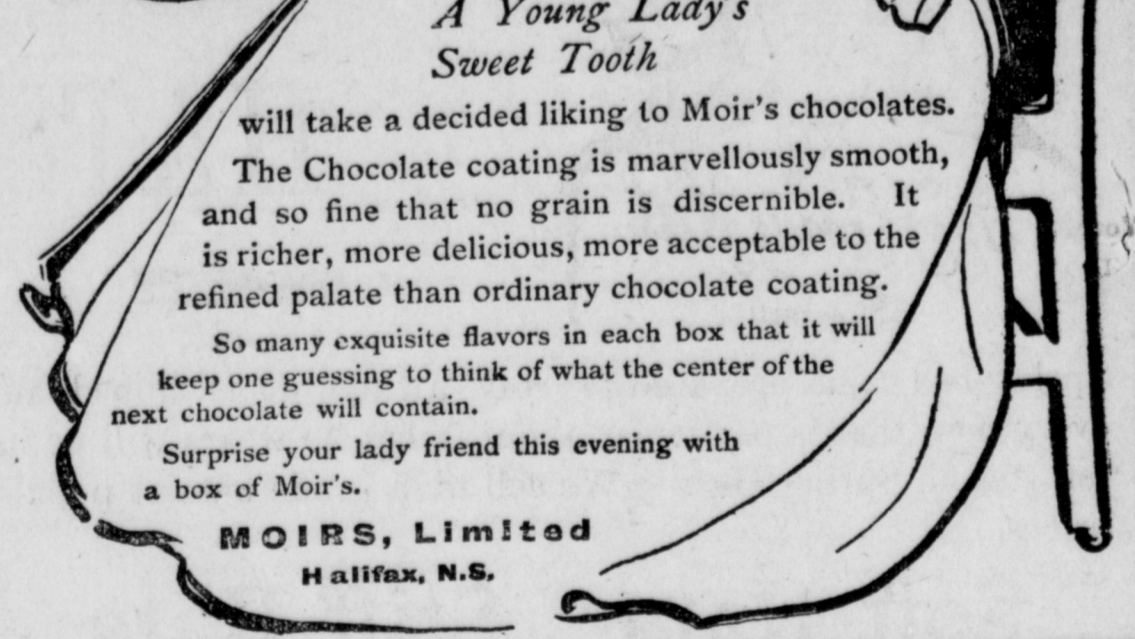

"Dr. T. A. Slocum, Limited,
Toronto, Ont.

Gentlemen:— My many thanks for Psychine and Oxomulson. I have used them with very great satisfaction both in my own case and in that of my friends. It affords me much pleasure to recommend a remedy which is really good in cases for which it is intended. I am, yours very truly,"

DR. ERNEST A. ALLARD.

Doctors recognize that Psychine is one of the very best remedies for all throat, lung and stomach troubles and all run down conditions, from whatever cause. It is the prescription of one of the world's greatest specialists in diseases of the throat, lungs, and stomach, and all wasting diseases. Ask your druggist for it, at 50c and 1.00, or T. A. Slocum, Limited, Toronto.

Moir's Chocolates

A Young Lady's Sweet Tooth

will take a decided liking to Moir's chocolates.

The Chocolate coating is marvellously smooth, and so fine that no grain is discernible. It is richer, more delicious, more acceptable to the refined palate than ordinary chocolate coating.

So many exquisite flavors in each box that it will keep one guessing to think of what the center of the next chocolate will contain.

Surprise your lady friend this evening with a box of Moir's.

Shake in a Bottle.

Now is the time when the doctor gets busy, and the patent medicine manufacturers reap the harvest, unless great care is taken to dress warmly and keep the feet dry. This is the advice of an old eminent authority, who says that Rheumatism and Kidney trouble weather is here, and also tells what to do in case of an attack.

Get from any good prescription pharmacy one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon, three ounces Compound Syrup Sarasaparilla. Mix by shaking in a bottle and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime.

Just try this simple home-made mixture at the first sign of Rheumatism, or if your back aches or you feel that the kidneys are not acting just right. This is said to be a splendid kidney regulator, and almost certain remedy for all forms of Rheumatism, which is caused by uric acid in the blood, which the kidneys fail to filter out. Any one can easily prepare this at home and at small cost.

Druggists in this town and vicinity, when shown the prescription, stated that they can either supply these ingredients, or, if our readers prefer, they will compound the mixture for them.

Truthful Tommy.

Auntie.—"Now, Tommy, take my bonnet upstairs for me, there's a good boy."
Tommy.—"Boo-hoo! I don't want to!"
Auntie.—"Indeed! And why not, pray?"
Tommy.— "'Cause mother told me you'd got a bee in it."—The Sketch.

"Policeman, arrest that man! He just walked up to me and whispered that I was the most beautiful woman he ever saw."
"Very well, ma'am. What shall I charge him with—insanity?"—Chicago Record Herald.
