THE well known grocery firm of Holyoke & Brown will be dissolved by mutual consent in a few weeks. Mr. Holyoke retiring to conduct a cash business on his own account in the new W. M. Connell building. Mr. Brown will continue at the old stand and associate with him, it is said, his brother Alex Brown, who will remove from Northampton to Woodstock.

INHABITANTS of McAdam were startled Wednesday evening by the sound of an explosion at the east end of town. The cause was the exploding of some part of the acetylene gas machine in the basement of the City Camp Hotel. After the explosion the cellar was a complete wreck and the dining room also suffered considerably. All the windows were blown out.

AFTER just two years in business, Harry Stevens, of the prosperous firm of Stevens & Hayden, has sold his share of the grocery business to O. A. Townsend, who is thoroughly well up in that branch of trade and who doubtless will receive a generous share of the public patronage. Before engaging in any other undertaking, Mr. Stevens will make a visit to friends in Glassville and vicinity.

MISS CLARA STIMPSON of Houlton, widely known as Maine's lumberwoman, died Monday morning in Boston, where she had for some time been in a sanitarium. Her age was about 50 years. The remains have been brought to Houlton. Miss Stimpson was for years actively and successfully engaged in the lumber business, and carried on mills of her own. She also managed the Houlton business of the New England Dressed Beef Company.

MRS. WILKINSON, wife of Edward Wilkinson of Fredericton, a well known and respected citizen, passed away Saturday morning from pneumonia in the 77th year of her age. She had been sick but a short time, and her death comes as a great blow to the family and friends. Besides a husband the deceased leaves two married daughters residing in the states, and three sons, the youngest of whom, Thomas, the well known insurance agent, resided at home and G. C. at Centreville. Mrs. Wilkinson was a lady greatly beloved by all who knew her. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon with service at the parish church conducted by the rector, Rev. Canon Cowie.

LEUT. COL. HOWELL will visit Woodstock to-morrow and will conduct a very interesting and special meeting in the Salvation Army Citadel in the evening. It will be remembered that the Colonel was announced twice during the months of January and February, but was unable to get here on account of a snow blockade somewhere on the C. P. R. that hindered him from fulfilling his announcement. We are safe to say this time that the Colonel will not disappoint the people of Woodstock this trip but has even promised himself that before he again does it he will foot it if necessary. The Colonel is a great man in the ranks of the Army, he being the Head of the Immigration Department, a very important position. He is also the leader of the Territorial Brass Band at Toronto, one of the finest Bands in Canada. The Colonel is a clever Platform speaker, a beautiful singer and a wonderful musician. Everybody invited.—Com.
