Intelligent Economy

Is the getting of value—real value. Not simply what looks like value on the surface. Many men judge clothes by their first appearance—by the outside—but men who know how to get the best value inquire as to the hidden parts—the interlinings and inside workmanship. This is where the Campbell Clothing comes in. It is Intelligent Economy for you to buy such clothes.

The New Archdeacon.

Rev. Dr. Raymond, the new archdeacon for the district of St. John, was born at Woodstock, Carleton County, and matriculated into the University from the Carleton Grammar School in 1872. He was the first honor graduate of the university receiving the degree of B. A. in 1878, winning the archromatic microscope for his work in natural science and also carrying off the mathematical scholarship. Since that time he has received the degree of M. A. and L. L. D. from his alma mater.

Rev. Dr. Raymond in addition to being a zealous preacher and worker in his church, is a man of many interests. In early life he commanded the Woodstock Field Battery and at the present time is chaplain of the Third Regt. Canadian Artillery. He is also an enthusiastic curler, being a member of the Thistle Club.

Rev. Dr. Raymond came to St John in 1884, as pastor of St. Mary's church, which was then but a mission. Previously he had spent a short time in service at Stanley, York County. During the time he has been in charge of the parish here he has seen the church communicants more than doubled, and the congregation become self-sustaining. He is much beloved by his parishioners, and has hundreds of warm friends and admirers outside of the denominational pale, who will hear of his appointment with as much pleasure and pride as his own flock.

That Rev. Dr. Raymond did not seek the honor, it is superfluous to state, for he is the most modest and unassuming of men, and has refused in the past many tempting offers from outside the city, both in the United States and Canada.

In all movements for the moral or intellectual welfare of the community, Dr. Raymond has been prominently identified.

It is perhaps as a historian that he is most widely known outside the province. His work in this line has been very exhaustive and valuable.

The editing of the "Winslow Papers," was perhaps his most elaborate work, with the possible exception of his history of the St. John river, but he has written many papers on New Brunswick historical topics, and is also well known as a lecturer on these themes.

In recognition of his work along this line Dr. Raymond was created a fellow of the Royal Society of Canada.

Dr. Raymond is a past president of the Historical Society and has contributed many papers to its collections.

He is also Protestant Chaplain for the Alms House.

By the appointment of Dr. Raymond, St. John has the first recognition it has had in this respect since the death of Archdeacon Brigstocke, and Dr. Raymond will be warmly congratulated by his many friends on receiving the honor so richly deserved.

Referring to the appointment of Rev. Dr. Raymond, the Gleaner says the decision to increase the number of archdeacons in the province from two to three was made at a special meeting of the Cathedral chapter held in Fredericton, Wednesday evening. It continued: "Rev. Dr. Raymond is easily one of the most distinguished members of the clergy of his diocese, being well known as a scholar and is very popular at St. John."

Dr. Raymond's many friends in Woodstock will be glad to hear of his appointment. The DISPATCH to which Dr. Raymond contributed many interesting articles on the early history of the St John River, tenders heartiest congratulations.

Hilencous Crime.

One of the most revolting crimes that has taken place in Carleton County was brought to light last week.

The story in detail is that on January 22nd, Richard Gray telephoned to Dr. Field at Centreville to go to his house and see his daughter Stella. The doctor went and found that the girl was enceinte, but did not say anything about it. The next night a child was born without medical assistance, at the same time the father of the girl confessed that he was the father of the child. That the child was alive both Mrs. Gray and Stella testify; Gray himself said, "I am the father of the child, but I'll never let her rear it." Mrs. Gray had wrapped the child in a blanket and laid it on the bed. Gray took it up in his arms and carried it out doors, returning after ten minutes time after disposing of it in some manner. His wife then told Gray to leave the premises and never let her see him again.

Gray declared he would shoot himself and took up a rifle to do the deed. His wife begged him not to do so, and then he turned and left the house. This was early on the morning of January 24 and he has not been seen since in that vicinity.

In the course of the day Gray sent a telephone message across the border asking his wife if all was well. She replied, "all is well, say no more." In the afternoon Mrs. Gray called on Dr. Field and told him the whole story. She asked him to go to the house which he did, and found Stella in bed.

The matter was reported to the Solicitor General and on Monday morning Sheriff Foster and Justice Smith went to Gray's house and got the particulars, the girl giving the facts as here told.

Saturday morning at three o'clock, Deputy Sheriff Foster arrived in town bringing to the County jail Richard Gray. The deputy had been on the track of the man since Sunday, and Friday evening got on to a clue that led him to Houlton again. There he heard that a man calling himself Bill Giberson had hired with W. W. Titcomb's crew of lumbermen, whose camp is on the Carleton county side of the line. Together with policeman Whitney, of Houlton, he drove to the camp, making no disturbance. Deputy Foster, examining each man as he went, stopped at the fourth berth, where he recognized Gray, and said, "Dick, I want you." Gray said, "It's all up with me," and went peacefully with the officer who secured a rig and brought him to the jail at Woodstock, where he now is.

Before Police Magistrate Dibblee Saturday morning, the prisoner was remanded until the 13th, and in the meantime witnesses will be got and held on warrants. The remains of the infant will, it is believed, be produced as there is reason to suspect Gray has himself given a clue to its whereabouts, although Sheriff Foster cautioned Gray against making any statement.

Miss Isla McPhail.

Miss Isla McPhail, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Colin McPhail, died at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Neil McKinnon, Connell Street, on Wednesday, aged 15 years.

Deceased was one of the brightest young girls in town and a general favorite with her schoolmates and chums. Some months ago she was taken ill with typhoid fever and when apparently recovering, tubercular troubles appeared which caused her death.

The funeral took place at 3 o'clock on Friday afternoon, Rev. Dr. Kierstead conducted the services at the house and grave, speaking feelingly of the loving character of the dead child. Interment was made in the Methodist cemetery. The pall bearers were Clare Sherwood, J. F. Davidson, O. A. Townsend and C. I. Churchill.

The sympathy of the community goes out to the grandparents and parents of the deceased in their bereavement.

Does Not Belong to Woodstock.

Michael Doyle appeared in the police court this morning to get a permit to go to the hospital. As one could not be given him there he was sent to Dr. James Christie. He received a permit from the doctor and is now in the hospital. The man was in Woodstock working and was sent to this city to enter the hospital, as he says they did not want him in Woodstock.—St. John Globe.

In regard to the above paragraph, the Carleton County Hospital authorities informed us that Michael Doyle came to Woodstock from St. John some ago time in a box car almost frozen from exposure. He was taken to the hospital where he was cared for until well enough to be discharged from that institution.

A Clubbing Offer.

Ephraim Hallett.

On Friday Ephraim Hallett was taken to the hospital at Woodstock for an operation for hernia and died at three o'clock the next morning. Deceased formerly lived near Hartland but a few years ago sold the homestead and went to live near his daughter's at Gordonsville. His wife died suddenly eight years ago. There are surviving one son Ernest, and seven daughters, Mrs. Wm. Bell, Mrs. James Scarrah, Mrs. Harry Stickney, Mrs. John Clare, all of Gordonsville; Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Charles Prince and Mrs. John Getchell, of Brunswick, Me. Ephraim Hallett was the son of Joseph Hallett, and Moses, Thomas, and Charles (in the west) are brothers. Mrs. Robert Blackie is a sister.

The funeral services were held at the Primitive church near Hartland on Monday: the service being conducted by Rev. G. A. Giberson. As Mr. Hallett was one very highly esteemed there were many present to pay respect on the day of his funeral.

The man's death was a severe shock to the family as, until the day before his death, he was in his usual health, although he had suffered for many years with the malady that had suddenly turned fatal.

Mrs. Sarah Kerr.

Mrs. Sarah Kerr passed away at an early hour Thursday morning Jan. 30th, at the residence of her daughter Mrs. Henry Speer. Deceased has been in failing health for some time past, but hopes had been entertained for her recovery up till a short time before her death. She was in the 74th year of her age.

Her faith and trust in the finished work of a crucified Redeemer, a now risen and exalted Lord was strong and steadfast, hence the end was peace. She was of a mild disposition and considerate towards the poor.

She leaves a family of nine: four sons and five daughters and three sisters, besides a large circle of friends to mourn the loss of a loving mother, a kind sister and a sympathetic friend.

The funeral was held Saturday morning at ten o'clock, the service being conducted by the Rev. Mr. Flewelling. Interment was made at the Church of England cemetery a few miles below Woodstock.

Her Faith was founded on that rock,
Whence love to all does flow,
And oft she wished to join the flock,
Where blessed spirits go.—Com.

Resolutions.

Always to help those who have fallen in life's field, and never scorn them. We do not always see the conflict.

Make good luck with your hands instead of crying with your mouth for it.

To do everything thoroughly, for every neglected or poorly done piece of work stamps itself indelibly on your character.

Never to be discouraged because good things get on slowly here, and never to fail daily to do that good which lies close to us.

Educate yourself in other directions than the line of your work, so that you will be a broader, more liberal, more intelligent worker.

Never to be restless and discontented. Others may have other circumstances, but here are yours. It is possible for you to live nobly in the midst of them.

To be cheerful. Cheerfulness is the best promoter of health. Repining and murmurings of the heart give imperceptible strokes to those delicate fibres of which the vital parts are composed, and wear out the machine.

To forget your neighbors' faults; forget the slander you have heard; forget the temptations; forget the fault-finding, and give a little thought to the cause which provoked it; start each day with a clean sheet, and write upon it only that which is lovely and lovable.

BABY'S OWN TABLETS, A SMILE IN EVERY DOSE.

The mother who, in her gratitude for what Baby's Own Tablets have done for her child, said that "There's a smile in every dose" coined a very happy and very true phrase. The tablets cure all the minor ailments of babies and young children, and make bright, smiling, happy little ones. Mrs. John Young Auburn, Ont., says:—"I have used Baby's Own Tablets for more than a year and I think they are the best medicine that can be given a baby. They are splendid at teething time, and for stomach and bowel troubles. You don't need a doctor if you keep Baby's Own Tablets in the house." That's about the highest praise a mother can give and it's true, every word of it. You can get the Tablets from any medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
