

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

Jacksonville.

The sum of $116.00 was realized by the Woman's Missionary Auxiliary of the Methodist Church here. As the year was shortened to nine months by reason of the change in the missionary year, the increase of over $10.50 in the givings of the women and children speak volumes for systematic giving. No socials have been held or concerts, but all money has been raised voluntarily. There are two Mission Bands in connection with this Auxiliary, one here and one at Upper Woodstock.

Master Jack Wiley, youngest son of Chas. Wiley was kicked by a horse on Friday last and quite seriously hurt. He has been home a short time, after attending school in St. John.

Centreville.

Mrs. Gideon Shaw died last Tuesday morning and was laid to rest beside her husband in the Baptist churchyard.

The funeral of Mr. John Gray of Long's Settlement took place last Friday and was largely attended. Interment was made in the Baptist Cemetery at Centreville.

The inhabitants of the village were shocked over the intelligence that George M. Belyea, who had gone to Boston for Medical treatment was dead. By the mail of the same day a letter had been received by his wife from Mr. Belyea stating that he would be home within a few days much improved in health. His case was pronounced by the Boston physician to be Diabetes of a very serious character, but even his physician did not expect that he would pass away so soon. The body arrived here on Saturday and the funeral took place on Sunday afternoon. Rev. Jos. Cahill of Hodgdon preached a very impressive sermon on the words "For what is your life?" The Masonic Order performed the burial rits. Mr. Belyea was a member of Carleton Lodge No. 35 and also a member of Court Centreville No. 1153 Canadian Order of Foresters. He was an active worker in any religious matter connected with the Baptist church and will be much missed in the church services.

A TONIC FOR THE STOMACH

Wonderful Success of the Modern Method of Treating Even Obstinate Cases of Indigestion.

The old fashioned methods of treating stomach diseases are being discarded. The trouble with the old fashioned methods was that when the trouble returned in an aggravated form.

The modern method of treating indigestion, catarrh of the stomach or chronic gastritis, is to tone up the stomach and glands to do their normal work. Every step toward recovery is a step gained, not to be lost again. The recovery of the appetite, the disappearance of pain, the absence of gas—all are steps on the road to health that those who have tried the tonic treatment remember distinctly.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic every constituent of which is helpful in building up the digestive organs and therefore are the very best remedy for chronic cases of stomach trouble. The success of the treatment is shown by hundreds of cures like the following:

Mrs. Wm. E. Dunn, Prince Dale, N. S., says:—"For upwards of seven years I was an almost continuous sufferer from stomach trouble, which was aggravated by obstinate constipation. Food was not only distasteful, but every mouthful I ate was painful. The trouble so affected my heart that at times I thought I could not live. I was constantly doctoring, but did not get the least relief. Indeed I was growing worse, and in the summer of 1907 had got so bad that I went to the City of Boston, where I spent some time under the care of a specialist. I returned home, however, no better than when I went away. The pains I endured were almost intolerable, and would sometimes cause me to drop. I kept getting weaker and weaker and had practically given up hope of even being well again when my mother urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. How thankful I now am that I took her advice. My case was a severe one and did not yield readily, but once an improvement was noticed the cure progressed steadily and satisfactorily, and after the use of ten boxes of the Pills I was again a well woman. Every symptom of the trouble disappeared, and it is years since I enjoyed as good health as I am doing now. All who knew me look upon my cure as almost a miracle, and I strongly urge all suffering from stomach trouble to give this medicine dealers or you can get them by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Archibald Tracy.

At Avondale on Thursday night the death occurred of Archibald Tracy, son of the late Israel Tracy. He was 26 years of age and had been ill a long time of consumption.

The funeral services on Sunday were conducted by Rev. E. O. Steeves, assisted by Rev. Henry Hartt, and were largely attended as the deceased was held high in the estimation of those who knew him.

There are left to mourn his mother and three sisters: Mrs. Theophilus Baker, Mrs. Dell Lawrence and Mrs. Douglas Kennedy.

Piano Recital at Hartland.

The piano recital given in Hagerman & Burd's Hall on Friday evening by Miss Maude V. Henderson and others from Woodstock was the most delightful musical entertainment given in Hartland for a long time.

Miss Henderson certainly has the "soul of music." Without the printed music before her she interpreted the work of the composers with rare subtlety and grace. To her no part of the composition was superfluous for each note rang with meaning.

Miss Brewer has a voice of great promise. Still in her "teens" she shows a marvelous range. Her voice possesses sweetness and power at the same time.

Both of these young musicians show careful training, which on the ground-work of their rare genius, will one day lead them far up the heights.

Miss Oliver's reading won great applause and was exceptionally well done.

Mrs. Gibson, a more mature singer than Miss Brewer, has a charming voice and sang exceedingly well.

There was a good house and since the concert comments by those who comprised the audience are indeed favorable to all the performers. Through Miss Henderson's enterprise the village was given a real treat.

The party drove from Woodstock and returned after the recital by the light of the moon.

If present plans materialize Hartland will again hear an event in which local musical talent will bear a hand. In regard to this however, nothing definite has been decided upon.

QUEEN OF ACTRESSES PRAISES PE-RU-NA.

MISS JULIA MARLOWE.

"I Am Glad To Write My Endorsement Of The Great Remedy Pe-ru-na. I Do So Most Heartily." Julia Marlowe.

ANY remedy that benefits digestion strengthens the nerves. The nerve centers require nutrition. If the digestion is impaired, the nerve centers become anemic, and indigestion is the result.

Peruna is not a nerve nor a stimulant. It benefits the nerves by benefiting digestion.

Peruna frees the stomach of catarrhal congestions and normal digestion is the result.

In other words, Peruna goes to the bottom of the whole difficulty, when the disagreeable symptoms disappear. Mrs. J. C. Jamison, 61 Marchant street, Watsonville, Cal., writes:

"I was troubled with my stomach for six years. I tried many kinds of medicine, also was treated by three doctors. They said that I had nervous dyspepsia. I was put on a liquid diet for three months.

"I improved under the treatment, but as soon as I stopped taking the medicine, I got bad again.

"I took the medicine for two years, then I got sick again and gave up all hopes of getting cured.

"I saw a testimonial of a man whose case was similar to mine being cured by Peruna, so I thought I would give it a trial.

"I procured a bottle at once and commenced taking it. I have taken several bottles and am entirely cured.

"I have gained in strength and feel like a different person. I believe Peruna is all that is claimed for it."

Nervines, such as coal tar preparations, are doing a great deal of harm. Sleep medicines and headache powders are all alike,—heart depressants, and should not be used. The nerves would be all right, if the digestion were good. Peruna corrects the digestion.
