PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablet—coaxes blood pressure away from pain centers.
Its effect is charming, pleasingly delightful. Gently, though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.
If you have a headache, it's blood pressure.
If it's painful periods with women, same cause.
If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unnatural blood pressure.
Bruise your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestive, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense.
We sell at 25 cents, and cheerfully recommend

The Saloon Doomed.

No man who studies with intelligence the movement in the direction of prohibition can be in doubt as to the ultimate doom of the saloon. Gradually, and in many sections rapidly, the various States are outlawing the saloon in the American Republic, and in Canada also the dominant opinion is quite as determinedly against it. The voting out of more than a thousand saloons in the State of Illinois on Tuesday, putting 828 townships out of 1,200 under prohibition, is even less emphatic than the sweep the movement is making in the southern States. The saloon is doomed.

In Canada, despite the eddying of the current in times of luxurious prosperity, the stream of public opinion and of legislative action is steadily onward in the direction of the abolition of the barroom. There are technically no saloons in Ontario, but the bar part of the average hotel is of the same character and serves the same purposes as a saloon. And the barroom in Ontario is doomed.

The men who are slowest to appreciate the significance of the change in public opinion on the utility of the barroom are the men whose duty and interest it is to know the seasons when to take occasion by the hand. Public opinion is decidedly in advance of the politicians who stand for the three-fifths clause. A mass of anti-barroom opinion, all over the Province is being developed and shaken together, and awaits only the coming of strong, courageous, convinced leadership. The economic, social, and moral burden of the barroom will be felt to be insufferable, and men who to-day have no interest in prohibition will join hands for its overthrow. That day may be nearer than some suppose. The government that is afraid to trust the electors where a moral issue is at stake misjudges the quality and temper of the people of Ontario.—Toronto

The Fixtures.
(Harper's Weekly.)

A New York commercial traveller says that before old Georgia "went dry" he was one day in a saloon in that State when a man entered, nodded to the owner of the place, who was also the bartender seated himself, and meditated.

Presently he addressed the owner of the saloon.
"Reckon yo' wanter sell out, Bill?" For some ten minutes Bill continued his occupation of filling pint flasks from a jug.
Then he looked up.

"Mout," he admitted.
"How much—cash?" the other asked.
Bill filled another dozen flasks.
"How much you give for the whole she-bang—buildin' stock, good will, an' all?" he inquired, cautiously.

"What about the fixtures?" asked the other.
"Oh, they go along with the rest of the outfit," Bill assured him; "fo'teen colonels, ten judges, nine majors, an' a right smart sprinklin' of hoss doctors."

Don'ts for Everybody.

- Don't eat when fatigued or overheated.
- Don't bathe the body for at least an hour after eating.
- Don't eat an excess of sugar, sweets and starchy foods.
- Don't eat foods that disagree with you.
- Don't be gloomy at meal time.
- Don't eat too much of highly seasoned food.
- Don't eat between meals habitually, and learn to eat fruit before breakfast.

A Precedent.

(Philadelphia Press.)
"Dublely is married now," said Towns, "and he's got a reputation to live up to."
"I heard he was married to that young widow," replied Browne, "but what's the reputation to speak of?"
"His wife's first husband."

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

What Affected The Water Supply.

It was market day. A young woman who works in a downtown office building had hurried to the busy mart where a coliseum was once planned and had purchased Sunday supplies. A big water tank stood in one corner of the office where she is employed.
She had seen a man put ice in it for drinking water. "That would be the place for her pro-vender."
"What the?"
The demure young woman's employer had sought to lave his thirst, but he set the cup down quickly. He shook with anger at the iceman. The demure one quaked with fear.
Angry eyes met timid eyes. Then came the confession.

"I'm awful sorry, Mr.—," she quavered,
"but I thought there was some kind of a thing a-mi-jig in there that would keep it from—" She burst into tears. He lifted the lid, and there met his gaze a bunch of celery, young onions, radishes, a pound of butter, lard, veal cutlets and some lettuce.

He did not stop to see the rest, as he lighted a big, strong black cigar.

That languid, lifeless feeling that comes with spring and early summer, can be quickly changed to a feeling of buoyancy and energy by the judicious use of Dr. Shoop's Restorative.

The Restorative is a genuine tonic to tired, run-down nerves, and but a few doses is needed to satisfy the user that Dr. Shoop's Restorative is actually reaching that tired spot. The indoor life of winter nearly always leads to sluggish bowels, and to sluggish circulation in general.
The customary lack of exercise and outdoor air ties up the liver, stagnates the kidneys and of-times weakens the Heart's action. Use Dr. Shoop's Restoratives a few weeks and all will be changed.

A few days test will tell you that you are using the right remedy. You will easily and surely note the change from day to day. Sold by all dealers.

"Sunshine" Furnace

Where Shaking is Respectable

A Draft off furnace dome, with no other assistance, is powerless to overcome the dust nuisance in shaking time. Only surplus dust rises of itself above the fire. Great bulk descends into ash-pit, and unless legiti-mate outlet is therein provided, dust will escape through ash-door slits and into operator's face.

In "Sunshine" Furnace the legitimate dust outlet is provided. It's a great big dust-pipe running straight from ash-pit to dome, thence to chimney. When big pipe damper is opened, all dust in ash-pit ascends to dome; then, when direct drafts are opened, all dust passes up chimney.

Always the clean and quick dust route in "Sunshine" Furnace—via grate, to pan, to dust-pipe, to dome, to chimney, to open air.
