These men have started in business on their own account, an examination of their work in the church will convince anyone intending to put in electric light fixtures, that they are first class workmen.

As a mark of appreciation of the valuable services which he has rendered their society, the Y. M. S. of St. John the Baptist church last night presented Very Rev. W. F. Chapman with a gold headed cane. The gift was accompanied by an appropriate address, which was read by the President John Sullivan. Father Chapman made a suitable reply, thanking the boys most heartily for their kindness.—St. John Sun.

Don't forget to attend the special meetings during Easter beginning Saturday night and continuing until Monday at the Salvation Army Citadel conducted by Brigadier Turner assisted by Adjutant Carter both of St. John Headquarters, wonderful times are expected. The Brigadier is a very clear platform speaker and have travelled extensively while Adjutant Carter is one of the Army's greatest singers and musicians. Don't fail to attend.

THERE is no need of keeping it secret any longer so you might as well know first as last. A great "Hallelujah Wedding" is coming off on Easter Monday April the 20th in the Salvation Army Auditorium. Invitations are now out and Tickets are now for sale at the Army Quarters where the officers will only be pleased to sell you one for the small sum of only 25 cents for all. It has been so long ago since we had a Hallelujah Wedding that we almost forget how it is conducted but as the Bridegroom is coming himself to tie the knot we may rest assured that it will be tied "good and solid." Don't miss this great event.

GRAND FALLS is anticipating a boom the coming summer—not, however the long looked for power-development. The town is to be headquarters for a big crew of men engaged on the G. T. P. construction and there will be a great deal of building going on. Those who have houses to rent are letting them at prices hitherto unheard of. Perth and Andover, likewise, have good prospects for a busy summer. The News says that a new church will be built on the lot at Perth which the wife of Senator Platt donated to the Baptist congregation last summer, and J. Allen Perley will build a residence at Andover. Other buildings are in course of completion.
