JUNE WEDDINGS.

Burpee-Harden.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Burpee, of Henderson, Me., was the scene of a very pretty event, Wednesday evening, June 3, when their daughter, Bessie Louise, was united in marriage to Don. L. Harden, M. D., of Brownville, Me. The marriage was solemnized in the spacious drawing room, which was prettily decorated with carnations and roses. The groom was supported by his brother, Guy L. Harden, of Boston, while the bride was attended by Miss Carrie Boyer, of Woodstock, N. B. Immediately after the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served, after which the happy couple left for a trip to Montreal, Toronto and other Upper Canada cities. Among the out of town guests were, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Burpee, of Moncton, N. B., Misses Pearle McKibbin, Carrie, and Ada Boyer, of Woodstock, N. B. Mrs. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Rutter, of Brownville, Me., Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Holmes, of Milo, Me., Mrs. M. Warden, of Phillips, Me., and Guy L. Harden, of Boston, Mass.

Richardson-Donovan.

A quiet but very pretty wedding took place in St. Thomas Church, Canterbury, N. B., on Wednesday morning at six o'clock, when Elizabeth M., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Donovan, Canterbury, was united in marriage to Dennett L. Richardson, M. D., of Providence, R. I. The church was prettily decorated in green and white. Nuptial Mass was celebrated by Rev. M. L. Murphy, of Debec.

Kidder-Hanson.

Miss Clare Hanson was married last Wednesday in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Houlton, (Me.), to Fred Kidder, by Rev. J. C. Koon, in the presence of relatives. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Hanson, of Richmond (N. B.), while the groom is the son of James H. Kidder, registrar of deeds.

Grant-Vaughan.

The wedding of Wilmot Grant and Mrs. Carrie Vaughan, both of Canterbury, York Co., took place there on Wednesday, June 3, at 4 o'clock. About fifty guests were present and the affair was a very enjoyable one. The ceremony was performed in the orchard, amid a profusion of apple blossoms, by the Rev. G. B. Macdonald. A tempting repast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Grant will continue to reside at Canterbury. Their many friends wish them all success and happiness in their matrimonial venture.

Meritt-Jameson.

An interesting event occurred at the home of excouncilor Jameson, Knoxford, on the 3rd. inst. The occasion was the marriage of his eldest daughter, Stella, to Stanley Ray Merritt, a prosperous young farmer of Presque Isle, Me. The ceremony took place on the lawn, under a canopy of apple blossoms bearing a wedding bell. The bride looked charming in a beautiful gown of white silk with bridal veil caught up with flowers, and carrying a shower bouquet of white carnations. The bride was supported by her sister Miss Lulu Jameson and Mr. R. Jameson of Mars Hill performed the same duty for the groom. Over three hundred guests witnessed the ceremony which was impressively performed by the Rev. Mr. Bonnell of Tracey Mills. After the ceremony the guests partook of a sumptuous banquet and all joined in wishing the happy couple a bright and prosperous future. The number of valuable presents which the bride received shows the high esteem in which she was held everywhere among her circle of acquaintances.

Chas. H. Yale's "Devil's Auction" Company.

One of the most prominent features of Chas. H. Yale's "Everlasting Devil's Auction" and, by the way, a feature that is not now presented by any other spectacular organization, is the Transformation Scene.

In former years a spectacular performance was not considered complete without its final scene of transformation, and fortunes, as in the case of the original "Black Crook," "The White Fawn," and latter in David Henderson's show-pieces, were spent in presenting these magnificent specimens of the scenic painters' art.

Of late years the promoters of spectacle outside of Mr. Yale, have discarded these effective finales to their performance, possibly to save what they consider an unnecessary expense. In any event, the scene has been cut out in the majority of fairy productions, with the exception of the "Devil's Auction." Manager Yale, however, has each year offered his patrons a beautiful series of stage pictures and in this, the twenty-sixth edition, promises a radical change from anything hitherto attempted in this line.

The new transformation is entitled "Amor" (Love) and is claimed to be one of if not the handsomest mise-en-scenes ever presented.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. John McAfee.

The community was shocked on Monday afternoon to hear that Mrs. John McAfee had died after an operation for an inward trouble, and although her children knew the case was a serious one, they were unprepared for the sudden turn of affairs.

Mrs. McAfee was highly esteemed in the community by a large circle of friends for her many womanly qualities. She was a friend in need, charitable in all her walks of life and a kind and dutiful mother. She was in her 51st year, and is survived by four daughters, Minnie, trained nurse who was with her at the end, Mrs. J. Mauns Aitkin, of Bathurst, Viva and Jennie; and two sons, Ira, of the Sheasgreen Drug Co. and Jack.

The funeral will take place from her late residence on Thursday afternoon, the Rev. George D. Ireland officiating. The interment will be made in the Methodist Cemetery.

Thomas Gray.

Thomas, only son of John S. and Mrs. Gray, died at his home on Sunday morning last at 11.00 o'clock, after an illness of over a year of consumption. He was in his 20th year, and while his health permitted was an industrious young man. He was in the employ of Alex Dunbar & Sons as a machinist. His funeral took place on Tuesday, the Rev. H. G. Alder officiating.

Robert Caldwell.

Robert Caldwell, retired contractor, died on Thursday, June 4th, at St. Johnsbury, Vermont, after an illness of several months' duration. He was a native of this town and early in life engaged in the hotel business but later went into contracting at which he was highly successful. A number of years ago, he retired from business, his last undertaking being a big contract on the Boston Subway. Since then he has spent his time in looking after his investments which comprise large mining properties in Mexico and the west, in addition to big mortgage and real estate holdings in various parts of the country. Here in town his holdings are estimated at $40,000, and the total estate may run well up to a quarter of a million. Deceased who was about 74, had never married. He leaves two sisters, Mrs. E. W. Williams, of Woodstock, and Mrs. Robert Barker, of Great Falls, Montana. The remains are expected here today.

The funeral will be held on Thursday from St. Luke's church. The members of the Masonic Lodge will attend.

James McLean.

The death took place at an early hour on Thursday morning, June 4th, of James McLean, aged 77 years, one of the leading farmers of Richmond. About seven months ago he was stricken with paralysis, with repeated attacks since then, and but little hope was entertained for his recovery.

Deceased was born in Queens county, but came here 47 years ago and has resided here since. He was twice married, his first wife dying 28 years ago and his second wife, who was Miss Helena Gilkey, has been dead ten years. There are two children, John F. of Richmond, farmer, and Miss Amy McLean, trained nurse, who has been with her father through his illness.

William Hurst.

After an illness of about ten days duration William Hurst, aged 84, died at the home of his son, Charles W. Hurst, Hartland, at 10 o'clock on Sunday evening. The remains were taken to St. John for burial.

Mr. Hurst was an Englishman, coming to this country at an early age. For a time he worked at the printing trade and later was engaged in ship-building at St. John. For twenty-five years he has been a resident of Carleton County. Besides Charles he has two other sons, R. J. Hurst of Amherst and William Hurst of Fairville. Mrs. Avard Finley who was with him when he died, is the only daughter.

In Memoriam.

Mrs. Clarissa, wife of George Frederick Pomeroy, died at her home in Houlton, May 23, 1908, as the result of a stroke of paralysis.

For nearly four weeks she lay in a state of unconsciousness from which she partially rallied for a few moments only, and then without pain or struggle she entered into rest.

Mrs. Pomeroy was born at Jacksonville, N. B., on the 12th day of March, 1839, and was, therefore, at the time of her death 69 years of age.

Three children Ada S., wife of W. S. Lewin, Esq., of Chicago, and Ora C., of Houlton, revere the memory of a sainted mother. She leaves beside these a husband, a brother, Mr. Thomas W. Robertson, Waterville, N. B., and five sisters Mrs. Chas. Gardner, Charleston, N. B., Mrs. M. J. Gardner, Houlton, Me., Mrs. Miles Crouse, Charleston, N. B., Mrs. Newman Shaw, Woodstock, N. B., and Miss Lizzie Robertson, Waterville, N. B.—Arroostook Times.

Presbytery Meeting.

The Presbytery of St. John met in St. John's church, McKenzie Corner, N. B., on Tuesday evening for the ordination and induction of Mr. R. A. McDonald M. A., recent graduate of Pine Hill Presbyterian College, Halifax. The ministers present were Revs. J. H. A. Henderson moderator protem, J. James McCaskill and Gordon Pringle, and with these were Messrs J. Henry Hay, Samuel Hemphill and Robert Watson. Mr. McDonald, was after signifying his assent to the usual questions, solemnly set apart by prayer and the laying on the hands of the Presbyterians to the ministry of the gospel, and inducted into the pastoral charge of the congregation. Mr. McCaskill in forceful and fitting terms addressed the newly inducted minister, while Mr. Pringle delivered the charge to the people. The church was filled with a large and enthusiastic audience who came with a warm welcome to their new minister. Mr. McDonald is a graduate of Dalhousie University in Arts and of Pine Hill in theology. He has taken high standing in his studies both in arts and theology, while he has worked very successfully in different mission fields of the synod.

A hearty and unanimous call from the congregation of St. Matthew's church, St. John, addressed to Rev. Mr. McCaskill was presented at this meeting of Presbytery, but as the congregation of Fort Kent has not been regularly cited to appear in their interests the call was allowed to stand over until future meeting of Presbytery.

Richard Gray in Mars Hill.

Richard Gray who was—or was not convicted of the heinous crime which, according to evidence he was guilty of committing, accompanied by his wife are being harbored in Mars Hill. Immediately after finding of the twelve beings call men, public sentiment among the better class in Knoxford leaned toward either tar and feathers or a rope, and things got so hot that Gray and his wife have taken refuge here in Mars Hill. The merchants in Knoxford, Centreville and Florenceville refused to sell them an ounce of food for love or cash, and three physicians refused to attend a call telephoned in by Mrs. Gray, so bitter is the feeling over there. The girl, who is now on her way to British Columbia to live with her aunt told but one story all through the trial, and that was to the effect that her father, this Richard Gray forced his attentions on her, and that he was the only one on earth who had. According to neighbors of the Gray's this girl has always born a clean reputation. How a bunch of twelve men could let this Gray off is more than law abiding citizens can understand. It is rumored that three cousins to Gray served on the jury, and this being the case a new trial can be called. Anyway we do not want such noted characters on this side of the border, and if people would refuse them admittance to their homes they would soon have to look elsewhere for shelter.—Mars Hill (Me) View.
