Death of Alexander Henderson.

General regret will be felt at the death of Alexander Henderson, which took place at his home on Monday morning at 10 a. m., after a brief illness of pleuro-pneumonia, in the 75th year of his age.

Mr. Henderson came to Woodstock previous to the fire of 1860 and entered into partnership with the late Robert Davis. After a short time he went to Upper Woodstock where he engaged in the manufacture of furniture. About twenty years ago he came to Woodstock and opened a retail furniture store which he successfully conducted until two years ago, when he sold out to the present proprietor A. C. Day. In 1893 he sold his factory at Upper Woodstock to Chestnut & Hipwell, who were burned out two years later. Mr. Henderson then erected a factory on Main Street, which he eventually converted into dwelling houses.

Deceased always took an active interest in all things pertaining to the welfare of the town and county, and for a number of years served in both the town and county council. In religion he was a Presbyterian, and until a few years ago was a trustee and elder of St. Paul's Church. In politics he was a life long Liberal. He was also a member of St. Marks Lodge F. & A. M.

Mr. Henderson is survived by his widow, who was Miss Porter, a native of Scotland, and Mrs. John D. Baird, of Elm Creek, Man., Mrs. S. S. Miller, of Hartland, and Miss Emma and a grand daughter Maud, at home.

Funeral will take place Friday afternoon at 2.00 p. m. from the late residence, Orange Street. The masons will have charge of the services.

A Solid Vote.

A vote of the whole Dominion of Canada to ascertain the best value to be in the newspaper line would without question result in a solid vote for the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal. At twice, yes five times its present price it would still be considered good value, in fact it is just such a paper that most homes would have at any price. It costs but one dollar a year, and one can't go wrong in giving it a trial. It already reaches the majority of homes in this country, and those who receive it would not be without it.

Mrs. Margaret Gilmour.

On Tuesday, October 20th, the death of Mrs. Margaaet Gilmour occurred at the home of her brother, William S. Henderson, of Windsor. She was 68 years of age, and had been in good health up to within a week of her death, when she was stricken with pneumonia. The immediate cause of death was heart failure. She leaves a sister, Mrs. Alfred Tedford, two brothers, William and Robert Henderson, all of Windsor, and one daughter, Mrs. Wilhelmina Calder, of New York City. The funeral was held on Thursday, and was attended by a large number. Mrs. Calder arrived just in time for the last sad rites. Mrs. Gilmour was a native of Kings, but came to this county when a girl.

Another Candidate.

To the Editor of The Dispatch:—

I notice that Lawyer Simms has announced his intention to offer his services in his county's and country's interest. Similar rumours are floating through the county to the same effect. Political connections, in which public sentiments prevail, have lost their effect through money influence. It looks like a waste of time and practically becomes a farce. I propose that we return to the old time procedure in getting candidates to serve and sacrifice themselves in the public interest by making the announcement as Mr. Simms has done. As the names of the former, as well as ex-Sheriff Hayward, W. P. Jones, J. C. Hartley, Teacher Squires, Dr. Peppers, John McIntosh and probably others may yet come to the surface before the writ is issued, I wish to announce that I expect to add my name to the number, as one who is willing to sacrifice my time and give my services in the public interest for independent and honest legislation. I believe the time has come when party should be eliminated from local legislation and independent action taken for the good of all concerned. I therefore propose if supported and elected, whether nominated by a convention, no matter whether by both parties or either one, I will accept, or if not in this way, offered under the old system which would be history repeating itself. In this connection, as I am not wanting to increase my wealth to give me a living, I propose and promise if elected to give the indemnity of a member to be used for charitable purposes, including a large part to the public hospital in Woodstock. If the public are as interested in that institution as they should be, they should not hesitate to give me the election by acclamation.

Yours for success,

GEORGE W. WHITE.

Centreville, October, 1908.

Moors-King.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Nancy King, Tapley Mills, on Wednesday, October 28th, when her second daughter, Ida Mae, was united in marriage to Harry A. Moors of Woodstock, by the Rev. Dr. Phillips of Jacksonville, in the presence of about thirty immediate friends and relatives.

The bride was given away by her brother, Ernest, and was becomingly dressed in a cream princess gown. She was attended by her sister Alice, who was prettily dressed in pale blue. The groom was supported by Leverett Stone of Grafton.

The room in which the ceremony took place was decorated with potted plants and evergreens and autumn leaves. After the ceremony a dainty supper was served.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents including a watch and chain from the groom. The groom's present to the bridesmaid was a gold brooch and to the best man a gold scarf pin.

The happy couple left on the up express on Thursday for Quebec, and after spending a few days there will return to their home in Woodstock.

To the Electors of the County of Carleton.

GENTLEMAN,—A vacancy in the representation of this county in the House of Assembly occurred in the year 1905, and at that election to fill the vacancy I was a candidate, but for reasons fully known to you I had not the privilege of contesting the seat. And now a vacancy has again been made when a bye-election will eventually be held to fill the seat vacated by Mr. B. F. Smith, when that I will again be a candidate.

I trust to be able to meet many of you before the election and explain to you the policy I shall advocate. To you I am no stranger, and you all may fully rely upon me to work for honest, pure and economical government. We have too much partyism in our politics. Instead of such we need to more faithfully blend our energies for the good of our noble province and see to it that our public affairs are more cared for.

Any and all measures that shall tend to usefulness and the betterment of our county, I shall support if elected.

Believe me, gentlemen, if you do choose me for your representative that I will earnestly and faithfully work for the general welfare of this county and province.

Yours sincerely,

JAMES R. H. SIMMS,

Bath, N. B., October 19th, 1908.

Town Council.

The regular monthly meeting of the town council was held on Monday evening.

An application was received from Charles W. Wright asking for a beer license. The matter was referred to the license committee.

The condition of the sewer on Broadway and the Houlton Road was discussed by the council, and the opinion of the members seemed to be that contractor who put those sewers in should be required to fill them in so that the safety of the travelling public would be safeguarded. In the present case the Broadway and Houlton road sewer is in a dangerous condition and already the town is threatened with a law suit.

In the matter of a license for the Bijou theatre Coan, Thorne said the proprietor was willing to pay what he could afford but that his business was not a very profitable one and if the license was too high he would have to close the show. The council finally agreed on a license of $75 per year.

L. C. Prime Co., through Mr. Hartley, asked the council to arrange the matter of a license. Mr. Hartley said the company were now occupying the wrapper factory doing a produce business and intended to remain here, having taken an option for the purchase of the building.

On motion of Coun. Sutton, seconded by Coun. Dugan, a fee of $50 was charged for the balance of the year.

E. K. Connell brought in a bill to the council from the Militia Department for $75.50, for calling out the militia during the circus trouble.

Obituary.

Mrs. George J. F. Nevers, eldest daughter of Jacob E. Brooks, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. McLeod Vince, Woodstock, on Friday last. She was born at Kingclear, York Co., July 1826. She lived near Hartland until after the death of her husband, who died some seventeen years ago, when she lived with her daughter in Woodstock for a number of years. She leaves three sisters, Mrs. West, of Centreville, Mrs. Belyes, of Rockland, and Mrs. Britton, of Minneapolis, and two brothers, Joseph and Ludlow. Four sons survive, Frederick, Oduber, Orville and H. Frank, and one daughter, Mrs. Vince.

A short service was held at the house Sunday morning. The choir of the United Baptist church sang several hymns. The remains were then taken to Upper Brighton and services conducted by Dr. C. T. Phillips, Revs. J. Perry, Jenkins and Daggett.

Mrs. Nevers was a most estimable woman and had a host of friends.

Letter Of Condolence To Mrs. Andrew Ray.

Whereas by the wisdom of an all-wise and overruling Providence it has been ordained that our late highly respected Brother, Andrew Ray, has by the summons of death, been removed from our midst, we hereby acknowledge the great loss we have sustained by the removal of one who has been a faithful member of our Lodge. A Brother who was ever willing and ready to assist in anything that had for its object the high and ennobling principles of the Orange Association. A Brother that could always be depended on in time of need, a man of uprightness, honor and integrity and unwavering fidelity to his Orange obligation.

Therefore resolved that we, the Officers and Members of Richmond L. O. L. No. 109, desire to express and to convey to his bereaved wife, family and relatives, our sincere and heart-felt sympathy with them in the loss of a loving husband and kind father. We pray that you may be sustained while passing through the deep waters of bereavement by the Everlasting Arm that wears not and that you may be soothed and comforted in the dark hour of tribulation by the Divine love that is stronger than Death, and we trust that you will find that this dark cloud which has cast its shadow over your heart and home, will eventually be lifted and reveal to you in God's wisdom and Providence a silver lining, and that God may lead you gently over the rough places in life's pathway, and when the shadows of evening begin to gather around you that your life's sun may set peacefully on the shores of time to rise on that eternal morning which knoweth no evening.

Signed in behalf of Richmond L. O. L. No. 109.

The new granolithic sidewalk recently laid from Dant's corner to the entrance of the Hayden-Gibson theatre is a creditable piece of work, and will no doubt wear without any repairs for a great many years. It would be economy for the town to put down this make of sidewalk in future as the present asphalt sidewalks become worn out. It will mean a much larger outlay at the time of construction, but more satisfactory in the end.
