NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

Union Corner.

This has been a great season for weddings. People are getting married north, south, east and west, the last couple being Fred London of East Hodgdon to Miss Alice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McNerlin, of Maxwell, York Co. They were married at 3 o'clock, p. m., October 28th, at the bride's parents, and went the same evening to their home in East Hodgdon where they were serenaded by the young people who in return were treated to cigars, candy and peanuts. The night was so calm the rattling of bells and tin pans and the report of guns were heard for miles around.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Sypher from Newcastle Creek, are visiting at J. R. Barton's. Mrs. W. I. Gildard continues very poorly. She took a very ill turn last Thursday being threatened with pneumonia, but the cold was broken up. This with the nervous trouble causes her to be in a critical condition.

The York and Carleton Telephone Co. are stringing the wire through the settlement and twelve or more 'phones have been ordered, so in the near future we expect to have the line in working condition.

Kilburn.

Rev. R. Heine, who represents the British and Foreign Bible Society, preached an interesting and instructive sermon in the Methodist church last evening. Mr. Heine is to preach in the United Baptist church to-night.

Over forty dollars was realized at the social on Friday evening. The proceeds are to be devoted to building a temperance hall.

Jack Frost has given us occasional calls this fall but he came in earnest on Friday night when several inches of snow fell. Since that time we have been having winter weather.

A. S. Scott of the corporation drive was here this week looking after his boom.

Fred Boyer of the firm of J. W. Boyer & Co. was in the village on Friday.

Miss Annie Jones, of Bath, attended the basket social here on Friday and was the guest of Mrs. D. M. Inman.

Mrs. B. Kilburn was in Andover on Tuesday, the guest of Mrs. M. S. Sutton.

Mrs. William Mallory and Miss May Mallory were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Moorehouse on Sunday last.

Rev. G. C. Pringle drove to Beausville on Friday last.

The members of the W. M. S. of the Methodist church are invited to join the Upper Keut Society on Wednesday.

Centreville.

The present political contest is ended with all its bickerings and worry, and men and time will set to work to heal all the bruises and abrasions of the campaign. The victorious party will leave nothing to do but watch and wait for the great prosperity that has been promised them, while the defeated ones will have to toil early and late and think and plan as never before to keep the wolf from the door.

George Thomas, who lived in Knoxford, went to a hospital in Bangor a few weeks ago for surgical treatment and died in that institution from pneumonia contracted while in the hospital. Mr. Thomas was about sixty years old and leaves a wife and large family. He was buried in the family lot in the Baptist cemetery. Rev. Mr. Johnston of Tracy Mills assisted by Rev. Mr. Ferguson of Centreville, conducted the services.

Mrs. Robinson Hartley, of Tracy Mills, and Herbert Pryor, of Bridgewater Centre, were united in marriage on the evening of the 17th inst. Rev. Mr. Johnston performed the ceremony.

Centreville people have found it so difficult to get wood for fuel that they are now putting in a supply of coal. If the experiment proves to be successful the fuel question for Centreville will be solved. At present there is no regular wood supply and at times it is very difficult to get it at any price and there are times when unscrupulous vendors victimize the buyers.

Cora Perkins, daughter of S. A. Perkins, died last Friday evening after being confined to her room for a period of eight months. She gave the strongest evidence of christian resignation and a bright unflinching hope in the future. In her closing hours she gathered her loved ones around her bedside and gave them the minutest instructions in regard to burial, disposal of valued keepsakes, and then in earnest tones told them to prepare to meet her in that world where there is no parting.

Wm. J. Emery with a crew is putting new covering on the steel bridge at Centreville. It had got to be dangerous.

PE-RU-NA PROMPTLY RELIEVES

A Case of Dreadful Suffering Which Had Continued For Months.

An Account of a Remarkable Recovery Given By Mr. Alfred Wood, Teacher of a Private School at Launceston, Tasmania.

MR. AND MRS. ALFRED WOOD.

Mr. Alfred Wood, who has a private school at 22 Frederick street, Launceston, Tasmania (Australia), has been a teacher for 37 years under the Educational Department of Tasmania. He writes, concerning his wife's case, as follows:

"My wife was suffering for months from gastro-enteritis, and was given up by her medical attendant.

"By good fortune I was induced to try Peruna in her case, and I can truthfully state that from the first dose her dreadful suffering ceased; and after taking five bottles she is permanently cured."

HOW does Peruna make such extraordinary cures as above recited?

By simply arousing the forces of Nature to throw off the diseased action.

Peruna contains no magic and does not operate in any mysterious way, but it does help Nature to combat disease, and thus many times comes to the rescue of the patient in some important crisis.

There is always a time in the course of any disease when a little help goes a great way.

Just as the scales are beginning to descend, when one ounce more would determine the fate of the patient, a little lift will turn the scales in favor of the patient.

Peruna is a handy medicine to have in the household.

It helps many diseases by imparting a natural vigor to the whole system.

As a tonic or catarrh remedy, its reputation is well established all over the world.

As a remedy for stomach and bowel disease, the fame of Peruna is undoubtedly destined to become greater than that of any other medicine in the world.

A great many cases like that above referred to have found Peruna of untold value when no other help seemed of any avail.

Pe-ru-na For Indigestion.

Mr. Donald Robb, Jr., 16 Wrights Ave., Halifax, Nova Scotia, member Independent Order of Foreresters, writes: "While on a visit to Boston, I must have eaten something that did not agree with my stomach, as a terrible case of indigestion followed.

"Peruna was recommended to me and after using three bottles I was entirely cured.

"I therefore recommend Peruna to any one suffering with stomach trouble."

Mr. Chas. Brown, Rogersville, Tenn., writes: "A friend advised me to take Peruna for indigestion and it cured me in a short time."
