THE jags around town the past week have been "numerous and costly" showing the great esteem in which John Barleycorn is held by a certain class in our community. Surely the election vintage has not yet been put in circulation.

THE circuit court opened in the court house, Upper Woodstock, on Tuesday, Justice Haunington presiding. There are two criminal cases before the court: The King vs. John Ferguson and Harry Green for breaking and entering; and Kane vs. Williams, a case of assault.

MRS. WM. LOVE, of Glassville, thanks her customers for the past seasons generous trade and announces that owing to the increase of business she has engaged Miss Giberson, a first class milliner, of Bath, to take charge for the coming season. Those who take advantage of Miss Gibersons taste and skill will be pleased with the result as their is a large stock of latest styles in hats and trimmings to select from.

ON SUNDAY, Oct. 11th, at Hillsdale, Hammond, Charlotte A., relict of the late Deacon Humphrey Smith, passed away in the seventy-third year of her age. Mrs. Smith was the eldest daughter of the late Isaac H. Faulkner, of Hammond, and is survived by two brothers, James, of Poodiac, and Isaac N., of Ham and Vale; also two sisters, Mrs. John Arnold of Woodstock, N. B., and Mrs. F. H. Hale of Enderby, B. C. The deceased spent several years in early life as a teacher in different parts of the country, where she made many lifelong friends.—Kings County Record.

THE Bijou is continuing to play to crowded houses, in fact the crowds are increasing every day, which is no wonder as the show deserves a full house at every performance, as it is perfection in all its entirety, no detail has been overlooked, and the policy of the show is lived up to, to the very minute. The show starts promptly at the advertised time, and continues through out the performance without any wait, and everything presented is of the highest class, and put on in very best style, and includes nothing but the very latest and best pictures, while the singing of Miss Fritz and Mr. Goff continues to be the talk of the town.

THE REV. C. W. TOWNSEND lectured in the United Baptist church on Tuesday evening, taking for his subject "Marrying and Giving in Marriage." Mr. Townsend has delivered this lecture many times in Canada and in the old country. The speaker dealt with his subject in a comprehensive manner, speaking of the origin of marriage, those interesting incidents which lead to the marriage altar, such as falling in love, popping the question, etc., the ceremony of marriage and the matrimonial estate. The lecture was brightened by many humorous stories and sallies of wit, and closed with a peroration which the lecturer adduced several instances of the blessedness of married life.

VERY many Woodstock and other provincial people will be interested in learning of the marriage of Miss Agnes McCormac, eldest daughter of John McCormac, of this town, to J. Gerald Quinlan, formerly a resident of St. John, but for the past fifteen years living in the west. The ceremony took place in Seattle at the church of "Our Lady of Good Help," on the 5th inst., being performed by Father John E. O'Brien. Mr. Quinlan is a prominent and very wealthy mining gentleman residing at Skagway, Alaska. The bride, who had spent the past year at her home in Woodstock, left in the latter part of September for the coast, and met her fiancé at Seattle, the day previous to their marriage.

Patterson-Hatfield.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Hatfield, Temple, York county was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday 14th inst. when their only daughter Miss Minnie Blanche Hatfield became the bride of Wal Hay Patterson Jr. of Temple.

The ceremony was performed at 3 p. m. by Rev. A. A. Rutledge, of Temperance Vale, assisted by Rev. C. N. Barton, of Milltown, Me. on the piazza which was decorated with evergreen and bunting.

The bride was charmingly gownedin a white embroidered costume and wore a white tulle presentation veil fastened with orange blossoms to match her gown, and carried a bouquet of white carnations and maiden-hair fern.

At the conclusion of the ceremony a sumptuous repast was served, the dining-room being nicely decorated for the occasion in pink and white. The bride, who is one of the most highly esteemed ladies of Temple, received a number of beautiful presents.

Nomination Day.

One of the largest crowds ever seen in Woodstock on nomination day came to town on Monday. The crowd was good natured and orderly. There was very little evidence of drunkenness and no fighting. The armory where the candidates spoke was filled to overflowing. In the evening meetings were held in Graham's Opera House and the Hayden-Gibson Theatre. A special train left at 11 30 p. m., taking those who came from the up county districts.
