

The Famous Pedestrian

Gentlemen:—
"I was a martyr to catarrh of the head, throat and stomach. I was so bad the doctors feared consumption. I tried many physicians and medicines. A friend suggested Psychine. I tried it and it was the only thing ever did me any good. I am now perfectly well. It is the greatest remedy the world has ever known. I do not need it for my health now but I use it as a strengthener for my walking matches. I owe much of my physical endurance to Psychine."

JAMES REYNOLDS,
Port Hope, Ont.

Psychine is the greatest cure for catarrh of the head, throat or stomach in the world. It is a wonderful tonic and strengthener of run down system, acting directly on all the vital organs, giving youthful vigor and strength to the system. At all druggists 50c. and $1. or Dr. T. A. A Popular Appointment.

A special meeting of the Senate of the U. N. B. was held Tuesday morning, July 14th, when an appointment was made to the chair of economics and philosophy of the faculty. This is the position that Dr. M. S. McDonald Ph. D., recently resigned in the face of much pressure to have him continue, and his successor is Rev. Dr. Wilfred C. Kierstead, Ph. D., at present in charge of the United Baptist church at Woodstock, N. B. The Senate consider that in Dr. Kierstead they have secured the services of an ideal man for the position. Some years ago an effort was made to secure his services, but it was unsuccessful, and the great loss to the university that will result in the departure of Dr. MacDonald is now felt to be well prepared for. Dr. Kierstead was graduated from the U. N. B. with the degree of B. A. in 1898, and two years later received the degree of M. A. He later attended the divinity school of the University of Chicago, and from that institution he received the degree of Ph. D. For some time past he has been pastor of the United Baptist church at Woodstock. This will not be his first experience as a teacher, he having taught in the public schools of the provinces several years. Dr. Kierstead's salary has been fixed at $1,300, with $100 extra for acting as librarian.—Gleaner.

Equity Court.

In re estate of the late James E. Phillips, of the Parish of Kent, Carleton Co.—The petition of Caroline Phillips claiming dower was read. Mr. Hartley, who appeared for others, opposed the petition. Court considers. The petition alleges that the petitioner was married to the late Jas. E. Phillips and left him in 1859 on account of cruelty and with his consent. Nine years afterwards the petitioner found out that James E. Phillips had married Martha Dyre and that she, presuming that he had obtained a divorce, although not being notified of any such procedure, married one L. Barnes. After living with him for nine years she found out that her former husband had not procured a divorce and she separated from Barnes. She now claims that she is entitled to dower out of the estate of her first husband.

Shaw-Clarke.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Shaw of Middle Simonds, Car. Co., N. B. was the scene of a very pretty wedding at 4 p. m. Wed., June 24th, when Mr. Bird Wiley Shaw, seventh son of Mr. Marvin Shaw, was united in marriage to Miss Iona May Clarke, second daughter of Mrs. Marvin Shaw, in the presence of about eighty guests. The Rev. Murphy Mallory performed the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. Chas. Orser of Mars Hill, Me. The bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, which was played by Miss Lillian York of Grafton, N. B.

The bride entered the room on the arm of her father and looked charming in a gown of white Pongee silk made en train and trimmed with valenciennes lace and insertion. She wore the traditional veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white flowers and fern. Miss Tilley Shaw, cousin of the groom, was bridesmaid and wore a dress of white net over white silk and trimmed with lace and insertion, and carried a bouquet of white flowers and pink roses. Mr. Sedgefield Shaw of Ludlow, Me., cousin of the groom, acted as best man. Miss Della Clarke, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a dress of white muslin trimmed with lace, insertion and blue ribbon. Miss Beulah Ebbett was flower girl and wore a dress of white muslin trimmed with insertion and blue ribbon, and carried a basket of white flowers and roses. Little Miss Verna Shaw, cousin of the groom, carried the wedding ring on a silver tray, and was attired in white Persian lawn trimmed with lace and insertion. The groom and best man each wore the conventional black.

The groom's present to the bride was a gold bracelet set with diamonds. To the bridesmaid he gave a brooch and to the best man a scarf pin. The bride was the recipient of the following valuable and useful gifts.

Mr and Mrs Marvin Shaw, set of dishes; Mrs P D Shaw and Sedgefield Shaw, $2; Mr and Mrs A A Hatfield, table cloth; Mr and Mrs Miles Birmingham, $1; Mr and Mrs A W Clarke and family, bedroom suite; Miss Lulu Shaw, $1; Mr. and Mrs Henry Birmingham, pair of embroidered towels; Mr and Mrs A C Boyer, table cloth; Alice Carr and Guy Clarke, silver pickle dish; Leslie Phillips, $1; Layton Grant, $1; Rev and Mrs Murphy Mallory, large table doyley; Charlie Clarke, carving set; Oscar Shaw, $2; Mrs Charles Raymond and Miss Pearl Raymond, gold berry spoon; Chas Raymond, $1; Mr and Mrs Judson York and family, berry spoon; Patrick Taylor, $5; Ethel Hallet, sugar shell; Mr and Mrs W C Moores, two table spoons; Mr and Mrs Aaron Shaw and family, gold lined nut bowl; Miss Francis Clarke, $1; Misses Ethel and Mable Ebbett, pie knife; Fred Shaw, $1; Mr and Mrs C B Colwell, large table doyley; Mrs Samuel Shaw, fancy vase; Howard Birmingham, $1; Mr and Mrs M D Clarke, four-piece glass table set; Mr and Mrs Silas Shaw, one-half dozen tea spoons and table spoon; Dave Clarke, butter knife; Viola Ingraham, table doyley; Guy, Jennie and May Holmes, berry set; Hanford Shaw, $1; Mr and Mrs Lorne Curtis, silver pickle dish; Miss Blanche Nevers, butter knife and sugar shell; Harley Ebbett, fruit dish; Mr and Mrs Frank Shaw, berry set; Harold and Ruby Raymond, butter knife; Charlie Shaw, manicure set; Mr and Mrs Willard Holmes, silver sugar dish; Mr and Mrs Wm Ebbett, $1; Miss Maude McClusky, fruit dish; Mr and Mrs Miles Clarke, berry set; Misses Florence and Hazel Underhill, three doilies; Mr and Mrs Chas Flannagan, $2; Miss Glens Birmingham, butter knife; Burton Clarke, one-half dozen knives and forks; Mr and Mrs Carl Shaw, butter knife and sugar shell; Miss Beulah Ebbett, pin cushion; Miss Minnie Birmingham, table doyley; Mr and Mrs Chas Ebbett, $1; Misses Bessie and Verna Shaw, nut crackers and picks; Mr and Mrs Edmund Ebbett, sofa pillow; Miss Maude Clarke, water set; Mr. and Mrs. Odbur Shaw, berry spoon

After the ceremony, a sumptuous tea was served in the dining room, which was tastefully decorated in pink and green with cardinal bells. Mr. and Mrs. Shaw spent a couple of weeks with their parents and then took their departure for West Somerville, Boston Mass., where they will reside.

The bride's going away dress was light green silk trimmed with white silk and applique. She wore a hat match trimmed with a plume and flowers. Mr. Shaw has been living in Boston for the past three years, during which time he has been employed as a steam fitter. The friends of the young couple wish them a happy wedded life.

The Teaching Staff.

At a meeting of the School Board Wednesday evening, all members present, the matter of appointing teachers for the coming school year was considered. Out of a great number of applicants, about fifty in all, the following appointments were made:

COLLEGE SCHOOL.
Julia Neales, Woodstock, IX and VI
Gaynell Long, Centreville, VII and VIII
Pearl Raymond, Mid. Simonds V and VI
Iris A. Fish, B. A. Newcastle, V and VI
Annie E. Dibblee, Woodstock, III and IV
Louise McCormac, Woodstock, III and IV
Pearl Boyd, Gagetown, I and II
Maude McAdam, Woodstock, I and II

BROADWAY SCHOOL
Minnie Carman, Woodstock.
M. Ethel Dunn, Millville.
Margaret Smith, Woodstock.
Helena Mulhron, " Mary McManus, "

Principal Richards and Mr. R. E. Estabrooks continue at the College, and Principal Draper at Broadway, their contracts not having been terminated. The new teachers, the Misses Long, Raymond, Fish, Boyd and Smith all come with excellent recommendations. One very unusual feature was the almost entire absence of candidates for the Grammar School position, not a single male teacher having applied, and only one or two females outside of Miss Neales.

Owing to the fact that the building used as quarters for the Sloyd School will be needed for Principal Draper's School, and the lack of applicants for the position as Sloyd teacher, the Board voted to discontinue the Sloyd department for a year. The trustees have several rooms in view as suitable for temporary use while the new Broadway building is under construction and they hope to have satisfactory arrangements made within a few days.

Rooms in the Opera and in the new annex to the Lynch building are among those being considered.

Wesley DeLong has been given the contract for clearing away the debris at Broadway, and for the new building several architects are submitting plans for acceptance. It seems to be generally felt that a modern building will be put up, equipped with all the latest appliances, including a steam-heating apparatus.

Landlord.—"Oh, it may be coming from that direction, but its the south wind. It's just coming back you know." [Judge.]

The Long, Cold, Dark Evenings,

Are coming upon us when the wise father and mother will look about for some means to keep the young people at home. Nothing will do this more effectually than a musical instrument, a Violin, an Organ, or a Piano. I heartily recommend to your notice the renowned Gourlay Piano. Won't you come and have a talk with me about the matter.
