Geo. E. PHILLIPS left his automobile standing on the lawn at the side entrance to his residence on Saturday last, and went into the house for a few minutes. In his absence the machine started to take a short cut down to Albert street. A board fence was the first obstacle met, a section of which was knocked down. The machine then bumped into the rear of Dr. Camber's residence. Mr. Phillips here stepped in and took charge of the runaway, which he found damaged to some extent.

THE meetings on Sunday last at the Army was well patronized and very interesting. It had been announced as week previous that Envoy Cerow of Halifax Headquarters was to be present and a visit from that gentleman is always looked forward to with deepest interest. The Envoy who is indeed a very interesting platform speaker is in good form for the days' battle and labored hard for the extension of God's kingdom. Capt. Cora Jones who at present is home at her home in Upper Woodstock for a well earned rest was present also at the night's service and sang a solo which was beautifully rendered. Her many friends were glad to see the Capt. looking well.

SEMI-ANNUAL
Cleaning Up Sale
AT THE NEW STORE OF
JAS. S. McMANUS.

We have no "back room" to store left over goods. In order to make room for new fall goods we are going to make a big reduction on the following lines, viz.:

- Muslins in White and Coloured. Gingham, in all colours, in Checks and Stripes. Dimities, Persians, Lawns, and all other Sheen White Summer Goods.
- Ready-to-wear Tailor-Made Garments, Skirts, White Linen and White with Blue and Green Stripes, White Duck Suits with Black Trimmings, six left, were $3.00, now $1.80, the skirt is worth $2.00 alone; White Underwear very cheap.
- Great Bargains in Ladies' White Shirt Waists from 39c upwards.
- Some good things in Remnants. A good chance to get a cheap Dress Waist Pattern, Aprons, and Pieces for Children's Clothing.
- As we had a cleaning up sale last February and it proved very satisfactory to our many patrons and also to the New Store, greater efforts will be made to make this Sale a greater success than ever.
