Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.
It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.
For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.

Modern Ships and Shipping.

No hurricane or cyclone that ever blew has power in itself alone to sink the modern ships of the great line, so large are they, and so conscientiously equipped and maintained, without regard to cost, and with a provision not alone for visible defects, but for flaws that are merely suspected. The dangers arise from ice and fog, the careless and incompetent navigation of other ships, and those dreaded derelicts, the abandoned wrecks which do not sink, but, half-submerged, drift blindly with the ocean currents, a constant menace to all moving things that cross their path.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury,

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.
Sold by Druggists. Price 75c per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Mental Training for Strength.

"The reign of the long, dull, strain-and-stress course of so-called physical culture, a course to be persevered in daily, week after week, year after year, ad nauseam, a course developing tough, fibrous muscles, is coming to an end."

So writes, in a current magazine, Eustace Miles, who has several times won the world's championship at racquets and tennis. It has done harm to the muscles as well as to the mind, he says.

It will do us good to reflect in this connection that hardened muscles have accomplished little in the world, either in actual performance or in improved health.

The little David slew the great Goliath; Samson exercised his strength to his own undoing; and the labor of the world is being, and ever has been, done, not by the big-boned and heavy-muscled, but by the small and wiry.

It is thru mind, not muscle, that results are brought about.

We need not accept miracles, nor the wonderful workings of Christian Science, to realize the absolute dominion that the mind exercises over the body.

Whence comes the power that enables a frail, delicate woman, who has been an invalid for years, unable even to wait upon herself, to rush upstairs and carry out sleeping children from a burning home?

Certainly no new fibre has been added to her muscles, no new vitality to her blood; but still she does what, under ordinary circumstances, would have been impossible for her.

In her excitement she forgets her physical condition and gives mind full play.

It is historic that Emperor Don Pedro of Brazil, lying in a dying condition in Europe, received a cablegram from his daughter, acting as his regent, stating that she had signed a decree abolishing slavery in his country, fulfilling his lifelong plan; and he immediately got out of bed, well.

Men have died because they thought they were terribly wounded, when no wound at all existed.

Newspaper readers will recall the man who died under a simple operation on his throat for the removal of his false teeth which he thought he had swallowed, but which were afterwards found under his bed.

Since mind thus dominates the body to such grave extent as serious illness and death, how much more completely must it dominate it in the thousand-and-one little things of everyday! Habit, prejudice, fear—things of the mind—palsy the strongest body in many a good endeavor.

Truth, love, hope—also of the mind—lead to the weakest body powers akin to the divine. If we rightly train the mind it will take care of the body. It is the only way the body can be properly taken care of, and our lives lifted above mere animal existence.

JESSIE'S WREATH.

Harry A. Ashmead.

In a slum in the south of London,
Where the very poorest dwell,
Lay a dying girl named Jessie,
(She'd been once the factory belle,
Loved by all those who knew her
For her kind and gentle ways.
They knew that Death would claim her
For his own in a few more days.

So her factory "chums" assembled
(Hard working girls and poor,
And they planned how best to show their love
When their comrade was no more.
So each from her scanty earnings
Gave as much as she could spare
To buy a wreath for Jessie
To lay on her coffin bare.

And they went to the shop of the florist
And chose a wreath of price,
It cost all their hard earned savings
But they all agreed 'twas nice;
But then the thought came o'er them
That the one they loved so well
Would never see their purchase
And a cloud on their spirits fell.

Then a girl had an inspiration,
That found favor with them all,
Why not show the wreath to Jessie
Before she leaves this world?
So the wreath was ordered quickly
And taken to her room
By a sorrowing deputation,
For they knew they'd lose her soon.

And they told her why they'd brought it,
As she lay there pale and weak,
And the eyes of Jessie brightened,
And a flush came on her cheek.
"How beautiful," she said with pride,
"I'm so glad you let me see it,
Our parting now will not be sad,
Your loving gift has made me glad.

For I soon this world must quit."
The wreath was hung full in her sight.
Against the sombre wall,
And the last hours of the dying girl,
Ere the angel made his call,
Were hours of peace and joyful trust
In her Redeemer's love.
As she prayed she would meet her comrades
dear
In the blissful realms above.

A Single Hour.

It takes two centuries to transform the savage into a citizen. Let the saloon do its work and it takes but a single hour to transform the citizen into the savage. So long as in this land the saloon is "legalized" every hand that keeps the license there is stained by the blood of all those who are victims of its iniquity. We speak of wifehood and motherhood—motherhood, next to Jesus the sweetest word of all the language, but never sing the praises of motherhood until you are ready to go out and grapple with that monster of iniquity that is draping all the windows of her heart in mourning.—Bishop Luther B. Wilson.

One Cent Brings It

WOULD-YOU-LIKE-TO-READ-THE-STORY OF-THE FURNACE?
Just write on a post-card, "Send Booklet A," and mail to nearest branch. The rest we'll gladly attend to.

—Just how correct principles say it should be constructed?
—Just why no other plan of construction will do?
—Just wherein lies its ability to be easy on fuel, quick in action, simple in operation?

The story is briefly told in a little booklet called "Furnace Facts." It's not an advertisement. No furnace name is mentioned, and you can read the whole story in 5 minutes.

To the party contemplating purchasing a furnace it points out the snags and pitfalls, and shows exactly what to demand of an architect, contractor or dealer, in furnace construction and installation.
