The Moral Reform Association. Isn't it time the members of the Moral Reform Association were getting to work if they intend to take any part in the coming election. We notice in the daily press that they are organizing for work in other counties, and why not in Carleton? In the last local election the Association claimed to have received the hearty co-operation of a large percentage of the ratepayers in nearly all the parishes in the county, and to have done a good work along the lines of keeping down political corruption. When they organized last spring they assured us it was only a beginning, they were feeling their way, but next election they would be in fine working yards almost every day; but this may be condition.

The members of this association have no right to take sides with either party, but the fair minded citizens expect to hear the moulders of public opinion denounce wrong wherever seen.

Surely there must be some reason why the gentlemen who compose the leaders of this association have made no reference to clean politics in this contest. Perhaps they have discovered what they denounced last spring as an evil is in reality a benefit; or, are there other reasons.

The DISPATCH has no space to sell either political party, but a limited space is at the disposal of the Moral Reform Association, free of charge, if they see fit at this late hour to make use of it to help further their cause in the matter of election reform.

Fruit Crop Report.

Weather conditions have been fairly favourable for plums, peaches and grapes, but not for pears and winter apples.

Apples.-Early and fall fruit nearly all harvested. Winter fruit ripening prematurely and dropping, reducing the crop already below medium.

Pears .-- Pears are ripening rapidly and are of good quality. Exports to Great Britain larger than usual.

Most of the former employes of the C. P. R. works at McAdam, who are now on strike, have moved out of the company's houses, in accordance with an order from the head office. The men went out peaceably. Officials of the company state that the works at McAdam are being operated without difficulty and that very soon conditions will have reached the normal. On the other hand the employes, and former employes state that while there are a number of men at the shops at McAdam, most of them are raw recruitsthat engines and cars do not receive proper attention. Crippled engines are sent to the largely due to the fact that the engines are decrepit when sent here. Nine additional engines have been sent to Superintendent Newcombe's division to assist in the rush of freight.

There has never been a good supply of water for drinking purposes at McAdam and the company is now laying a pipe line to the lake about a mile away. The pipe will be laid on the ground, instead of in a trench, and the whole will be covered eight feet high with coal cinders. A track will be laid and the cinders carried out on dump-cars.

Rediker-Steeves.

A very pretty wedding took place on Wedafternoon last, at 3 o'clock at the residence of Wm. D. Steeves, Grafton. The event was the marriage of his eldest daughter, Maude Louette, to Edward Lee Rediker, of of Fort Fairfield, Me. The ceremony was performed on the lawn by the Rev. Dr. C. T. Phillips, and the bride was given away by her father.

The bride's costame was of cream lolienne with chiffon trimmings over cream silk, and she carried a bouquet of bridal roses. Miss Marguerite Nixon, niece of the bride, was ring bearer, and was daintily dressed in pink silk.

After the ceremony refreshments were served. The Miss Pearl R. McKinney, Elva

Re-organization of Carleton District Lodge I. O. G. T.

NO. 19

On Wednesday Carleton District Lodge I. O. G. T., was reorganized at Hartland by Mrs. L. R. Hetherington, grand treasurer. The officers were John Farley, D. C. T .; E. S. Secord, P. D. C.; Mrs. M. L. Hayward, Dis. V. T.; C. L Smith, D. Coun.; D. A. Munro, D. Electral; Laura Glass, D. Sec.; Jennie Padgett, D. A. S.; Mrs. G. C. Watson, D. S. J. T.; Rev. J. B. Daggett, D. Chap.; Walter Estabrooks, D. R.: Mrs. Scots Sipprell, D. Mar,; Laura Prosser, D. G., Manzer Prosser, D. S.; Caleb Hopwell, D. Treas.

This lodge has been dormant for many years and it was altogether by the inspiration of Mrs. Hetherington, who was visiting her parents here in her native county that its reorganization was brought about. Hartland lodge was not holding meetings when she came three weeks ago, but it has been resuscitated. There are eight lodges in this district, seven of which were represented. These were: Woodstock 2, Bristol, Wicklow, Wilmot and Hartland.

It was decided that the district lodge should, as formerly, meet once in each three months. The lodge accepted an invitation from Windsor lodge to meet with them on the second Saturday in November.

Upwards of twenty years ago nearly thirty active lodges existed in this county and the quarterly meeting of the district lodge was an event of much importance to the several hundred members. Temperance among the members was taught, and a great deal was done in aiding the enforcement of the Scott. Act. Aside from this the members learned. much of the manner in which public meetings should be held; and many public speakers of the day look back to the old Good Templars lodge as the cradle of their oratorical , career.

The Markets.

There is hustling among produce buyers to even greater extent than ever. Especially in potatoes the demand is great, and New Peaches .- All harvested but a few late and Cora Mooers and Vivian Sharpe, young- Brunswick stock is given first place in Monvarieties. Prices have been below the aver- er members of the Main St. United Baptist treal and west, while the spuds raised in that section are flat. This accounts for the great number accepted from dealers down here. At the present time Montreal dealers are buying for future sales as well as for present demand. Farmers will probably do very well by holding a small cellar-ful until later in the spring. But they should remember the danger of frost and rot, and the care; and that Montreal, Toronto, or any other buyers will begin to look elsewhere before paying extravagant prices. It is a good plan to keep selling a few and also holding on to some for awhile.

This Winter's Lumber Cut.

Already the crews are going into the woods-some a month ago-and are engaging in fixing up the camps for winter, and arranging for active operations. A Bangor paper gives an estimate of the cut on the St. John river and its western tributaries:

The St. John Lumber Co. will cut 45,-000,000 feet on the upper St. John and the upper Allegash for the mill at Van Buren. Cunliffes will cut on the St. John and Allegash for the Stetson, Cutler Co., for their mill at St. John. They will get out sbout 15,000,000. Albert M. Currier, of Seven Islands, is to operate -in the vicinity of Seven Islands on the main river, and will get out five or six millions. Charles E. Jones, of St. Francis, will cut 4,000,000 on Little Black river for the mill at Van Buren. Neal McLean will also take out three million from the same stream and for the same firm, The St. John Lumber Co. Nizarre Pelliter, of St. Francis, will operate on the main river, cutting two million for the St. John market. Andre Cushing, of St. John, will cut the usual amount on the upper portion of the river, taking out from ten to twelve million. This represents the cut on the west side of the St. John only.

A corporal of a famous Irish regiment, while on a march in India, went to the quartermaster to borrow a camel to carry a spare tent. The quartermaster refused. "I have only the cart, and this spare camel I am keeping for a case of emergency," "Well" said the corporal, "cant you put
