Miss Phelan's Concert.

The date of the brilliant musicale to be given at the Hayden-Gibson Opera House on the evening of August 31st is getting nearer and great interest is being manifested by the people of the town.

John Hollis Lindsay of the Chicago Conservatory, son of ex-Mayor John A. Lindsay of this town, has not been heard here for five years. He has developed greatly in his art, and on his late concert tour, which closed in Halifax a month ago, his success eclipsed all previous tours. He is to give a new program that promises to be a rare treat—one number being the beautiful Chopin Polonaise.

Miss Elsie G. Phelan, of Boston, is to give as nearly as possible the numbers in which she made such a decided hit at Keith's Theatre, recently.

Miss Phelan, as a composer, is well known, her first composition having been published by the Oliver Ditson Co. when she was but fifteen years of age. After that, she brought out two songs, the words of which were written by John Albert Macy (Helen Keller's editor) and instrumental compositions published by Ditson, White, Smith Co. and C. W. Thompson of Boston, Clayton Summy Co. of Chicago, and the John Church Co. of Chicago, and the John Church Co. of New York, London and Leipzig. Miss Phelan is now putting the finishing touches on a comic opera, the book of which was written by Gordon Kelso Creighton of Boston. Mr. Creighton is originally from Montreal and is one of the most promising of the younger writers of the present day.

Miss Phelan toured the middle states for ten weeks last year as a member of the Boston Concert Company. She has always met with great success. Several of her songs have been written for glee clubs and are being used by the most prominent clubs in the different colleges of the country.

Miss Phelan and Mr. Ralph Smalley, cellist, of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, gave jointly a musicale at the Hotel Beaconfield, Brookline, Mass. The Boston papers at that time gave Miss Phelan a most flattering criticism. She was given credit for excellent technique, vivacity, charm and temperament, also for perfect ease and grace, as well as for being a rare accompanist. Only recently she has taken up the new form of "amusing folks." Of this work, Charles H. Mathews (for twelve years with Abbey, Schooffie and Grau of New York) said:

"Miss Phelan's graceful and clean performance, her extremely ludicrous impersonations and the exquisite songs sung in 'only her way' were most satisfactory and commanded my immediate attention. Her act is refined and unique."

Miss Margaret Ross' musical achievements of late have been watched with great interest by her friends here in her home town. She is gifted with a beautiful voice, sympathetic, vibrant, and of generous range. Her musical resources have been carefully and thoroughly developed under the guidance of experienced and distinguished teachers and now she certainly shows the true artistic ability in the handling of her voice—her phrasing and enunciation being all that could be desired. Her success on her recent six months concert tour has been assured and her future developments are sure to be of interest.

The entire program is bound to be a rare treat to the people of the town.

County Rifle Match.

Arrangements have been completed for the holding of the Carleton County Rifle Match on the range at Woodstock on Thursday and Friday, Sept. 10th and 11th. A two days shoot will be a new departure for riflemen at a County match and the executive in charge of the meet are making every effort to make the event a grand success. Already some substantial money contributions have been pledged to swell the prize list in addition to handsome trophies presented by B. Frank Smith, M. P. P. and S. W. Smith of the Mt. Pleasant rifle club. It is hoped that every local rifle club in the County will be strongly represented and invitations will be extended to marksmen in other counties to attend and compete for the money prizes.

Briefly, the details as arranged by the executive are as follow:

Shooting to commence at 9 a. m. sharp, Sept. 10th.

Extra series, 200 yds, all targets for half hour. The extra series will be continued throughout the competition on one set of targets as well as in connection with regular matches. Tickets 25 cts each, including ammunition, five shots without sighter. Special prize list for each range.

9.30 beginning of Association match for Irvine cup and big prize list; ranges 200, 500 and 600. The 200 and 500 yds will be shot the first day; the 600 on the following morning. Admission to this match $1.00 from all competitors whose local club enters a team for the team match. From all other competitors $1.25.

At 500 yds there will be a half hour extra series on all targets before continuing the regular match, time permitting.

Following the Association match at 500 yds there will be the beginning of the Smith match for the new trophy presented by B. Frank Smith, M. P. P.; ranges 500 and 800 yds; 10 shots at each range. Admission to this match 50 cts.

The team match for teams of five from any rifle club paying the affiliation fee of $5.00, 10 shots at 500 yds will be shot in connection with the Smith match. The cup in this match has been won for three consecutive years by the Mt. Pleasant team but on account of the conditions under which it was to be won out not being entirely clear they have generously offered it for competition again.

9 a. m. Friday extra series 600 yds for half hour all targets. 9.30 final stage Association match 600 yds, followed by last stage Smith match 800 yds. with extra series shooting.

Each competitor will be expected to furnish his own ammunition for all matches but the extra series.

S. W. Smith of Mt. Pleasant offers a pair of field glasses for the highest grand aggregate.

Competitors meeting for general business and the election of officers the first evening at 8 o'clock at the office of Balmain Bros.

It is the hope of the executive that all marksmen will read the above carefully and talk it up in their club and assist in every way to make this the best shoot ever held in the County. Clip this out for future reference.

Bate vs. Coy.

Several judgments have been given by Justice J. H. Lamont on cases which came up at the last sitting of the Supreme court. Amongst those received today is that of Bate vs. Coy. This case was watched with keen interest during its hearing and there was much local speculation as to which side would win. Judgment has been found for the plaintiff Bate.

The plaintiff sued for a declaration that he was entitled to a half interest in 225 acres in 34-36 1/2 subject to an agreement of sale made by the defendant Coy to one De Veber, and for an account by the defendant Coy of all monies received by him on account of the said property.

The land in question was bought by Coy from one Prommerenke at $30 per acre in April 1906. Bate then took a half interest and became Coy's partner on the same terms as those on which Coy purchased. The land was left in Coy's name. In August Coy sold to De Veber at $125 per acre and he settled with Bate at a sum which represented less than $75 per acre. Bate contended that he had been deceived by Coy, who stated to him that De Veber was only paying $75 per acre for it. Coy said in his defence that he gave Bate all the information he had himself. The judge accepts Bate's version of the cases.—Saskatoon Phoenix.

Two of the gentlemen in the above case, Messrs Coy and De Veber are well known in Woodstock. Mr. Coy is a son of the Rev. Mr. Coy and Mr. De Veber a few years ago was engaged in farming at Lower Woodstock.

The Potato Outlook.

Aroostook potatoes, early varieties for the New England markets are now being shipped over the C. P. R. by train loads. The Aroostook shippers opened their market last week by offering $1.50 per barrel. The prospect is given in the Fort Fairfield Review as follows: Early potatoes are excellent in quality, from good to very good in yield; late potatoes show that the quality will be good to very good, and an average to a good yield. The New York Packer says the outlook for prices is splendid and the city dealers are looking to Aroostook for their main supply. All this has a bearing on the Carleton and Victoria county crops, as growing conditions are the same in Aroostook county as here. It is also good to hear that the American market is good, as very frequently the prices in the States go sufficiently high to make up the difference in duty and give our farmers a fair profit.

Very few potatoes are yet dug for market in this county, but it is expected that during the week the dealers will announce a price. To sell potatoes at 90 cents a barrel in the field is better than to put them in the cellar, keep until winter, sort and lose a certain part of them; then haul to market in freezing weather and sell them for $1.25, or less, per barrel.
