MR. DIBBLEE, police magistrate, at the police court Saturday morning gave judgment in the two cases against W. E. McIntyre, of St. John, for sending liquor into this county contrary to the provisions of the Scott Act, the trial of which was concluded Friday. The magistrate held that a case decided by the Supreme Court ex parte Baird, under which it is held that a manager of a company is liable for the act of his clerks or employes applies, and consequently made convictions in both cases. They will be appealed.

THE Annual Convention of the N. B. and P. E. I. W. C. T. U. will meet in the United Baptist church here on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, the 6th, 7th and 8th October. Slipp representing local union. There will be music and refreshments. Wednesday evening Dr. McLeod of Fredericton will deliver a lecture. Thursday evening the subject will be "What we have been able to do for native land." Collection taken at evening meetings. Executive meets Monday night at home of Mrs. Hipwell. First session of Convention Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

AN old resident of this town passed away Saturday morning in the person of Gideon Fields, who was born here and lived here all his life. He died at the advanced age of 78 years. He was a well known and respected member of the community, thoroughly square and honest in his dealings. He was engaged in contracting and carpenter work most of his life. For several years he was a member of the town council and in his political adherence was a staunch conservative. He was a Presbyterian in religion. His wife died many years ago. Two sons survive, both living in Woodstock, Albert G. Fields, of the Small & Fisher Co., and Lieut. A. W. Fields. There are two daughters, Mrs. Fred Loms, of Cincinnati, and Mrs. S. T. H. Berry, of St. John. The funeral took place from Mr. A. G. Field's residence Sunday.

THE MISSES GALLAGHER are continuing their beautiful display of fall and winter millinery. The following are some of the newest and most up-to-date trimmings. Some of the popular shapes are the Mushroom, Charlotte Coday, Directoire, straight brim and rolled to the left side. Also the Turban Feather Trimmings are shown in such a variety of designs that they are particularly interesting. At the present time wings and clusters of wings, in both staple and fancy effects, are used extensively. The Pocahontas wings are one of the new features and are most in evidence. Owls heads with large wings or long quills are also considered very stylish. In contrast to hats of Laupé, or Elephant, smoke and fog shades of grey, we are showing others of extremely bright colours, such as Dahlia, Wistaria, Electric Blue, Corice, Peacock Blue, Mustard, Golden Brown, and divers empire tints of Green. We have all these colours in velvet, satin, taffeta, ottoman silk and nets. Ribbon trimming is noted, although satin promises to have an even greater vogue than heretofore. Ornaments that are mostly used are Cabochone, buckles, and fancy bandeaus.
