

HARTLAND and VICINITY.

Hartland office in charge of Fred. H. Stevens, at Commercial Hotel Bldg., where orders for Advertising, Printing and Items for publication may be left.

WOODSTOCK, N. B. OCT. 14, 1908.

Woodside Belyea, son of Henry Belyea, of Lower Windsor, died at the Provincial Hospital on Thursday. He was about 26 years of age and had been an invalid practically all his life. The funeral was held on Saturday.

Miss Annie Davis has returned from her visit to Millinocket and other places. She had been absent about six weeks.

Fred Perry, of Sussex, was in the village last week trying to interest people in the acetylene lighting system. It is understood he met with success. Estey & Curtis, J. T. G. Carr, and Mrs. T. G. Simms have plants installed that give good satisfaction.

Those who went from Hartland to attend the W. C. T. U. Convention were Mrs. L. E. McFarland, Mrs. H. Baird, Mrs. Henry Bradley and Mrs. S. Hayden Shaw. Mrs. Mrs. Gray, wife of Dr. Gray, of Fairville, and Pres. of the Provincial Union, was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. McFarland, here on Friday. Mrs. J. W. Olmstead, of Fredericton, was also the guest of Mrs. Bradley upon her return.

Mr. and Mrs. James Frazer, of Halifax, were recent guests at the Exchange.

Robert Goodwin and Truman Day have returned from Fort Fairfield, where they have been for some time.

B. G. Rideout and Mrs. Rideout, and Frank Day and Miss Inez Bradley were among the number from here who took in the Centreville Exhibition.

John McCollom leaves this week for Cobalt, Ontario.

Mrs. J. W. Stevens, of Fairville, who was a delegate at the W. C. T. U. Convention at Woodstock last week, visited Mrs. H. M. Stevens at Somerville on Friday.

Today the wedding takes place of Miss Blanche Nevers, the popular chief operator of the local central office of the N. B. Telephone Co., to Deane Shaw, only son of Aaron Shaw, of Middle Simonds. The nuptial knot is tied by Rev. S. A. Baker at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. A. Nevers at eleven o'clock. Only the family will be present, and after luncheon the young couple will go to the groom's home where a reception will be held. For this a large number of invitations have been issued. After two week's sojourn at Middle Simonds the young people will return to Hartland, and Mrs. Shaw will continue operator at the telephone office. All in the village wish the happy pair a pleasant married life.

Last Tuesday evening the Women's Mission Society of the Methodist Church held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. J. T. G. Carr. Supper was served to those present and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Fisher, of Massachusetts, who have been visiting Mrs. J. A. Nevers, have returned to their home.

Walter Noddin has engaged to go on the road with B. Sosnoski, the spectacle peddler.

Mrs. A. L. Baird has been visiting in Woodstock.

John Shaw returned on Friday from a hunting trip to the big woods, but returned with no big game.

Last week a large number of Hartland people went over to Victoria to call upon Mrs. Carey Dickinson, formerly Miss Myrtle McFarland.

Miss Beirsto, of Lakeville, has been visiting her uncle, H. B. Beirsto, at Fort Fairfield.

Mrs. Handford Tracey, of Lakeville, and Mrs. Robert Bell, of Deererville, have returned from a visit to Fort Fairfield.

Dr. H. C. Sanders, the returned missionary, has been holding revival services at Lower Brighton. The Fort Fairfield Review says that Fred Wright, the "boy preacher," is there to assist him.

The coming winter is certain to be a very mild one. Just as sure as ripe strawberries are found in October, so sure will the winter be mild. This is as good as anybody's prophecy. Various stories have reached us of wild berries producing a second crop.

The starch factories of Aroostook are having their poorest year. It is doubtful if many of them start up at all. The quality of potatoes has been such that there are none but are good for shipment.

Ray Miller was visiting in Andover recently.

Some people are evil enough to think that the Hartland correspondent does not always send all he is asked to send the Editor. This is true. We plead guilty. We will not under any circumstances send this week's news for last week's paper as we have been asked to do on certain occasions; nor will we send in any thing to spite even our own enemies, not to speak of spitting another person's. This, also, we have been asked to do. But occasionally we have been asked to send items which would be of real interest to all readers, and somewhere among the various processes of writing and mailing, typesetting and proving, and other things that are as "Greek" to the average reader, an item is lost, and then a host of "friends" take the matter up as a moral of sweet gossip to make their miserable souls happy. We are always glad to get items of news, but once in a while they go astray. Subscribers will please remember that most of the copy must be in hand Saturday evening, but matters of importance may be sent on Monday's mail, although the bulk of it goes by messenger on the Monday morning train.

The business men and people in general here and elsewhere are much annoyed that the new timetable that went into effect on Monday does not afford accommodations for who desire to go to Woodstock and return in one day. The first train to arrive in Woodstock is the Plaster Rock train, about one o'clock—an hour after the last train for the North leaves. This is an imposition which should not be tolerated.

Mrs. H. M. Stevens, of Somerville, spent Saturday to Monday with her son, H. Percy Stevens, at Houlton.

Bradford Buchanan, of Ingersoll, has been visiting his cousins, the McMullins.

Mrs. George M. Shaw has returned from a visit with her brother, L. R. Seely, of Fort Fairfield. She was accompanied to Hartland by her husband, who travels in the New England states, with headquarters in Boston. His friends were glad to see him again.

Mrs. Sydney Hagerman has gone on a visit to friends in Lewiston.

Miss Jennie Nevers, who has spent the past year or so in Spokane, Wash., has returned to the village and intends to remain here all winter.

Miss Bessie Phillips spent Saturday and Sunday with friends at Pembroke.

Cromwell Traitou has gone to Aroostook county to take charge of a camp for one of the big operators there.

The Conservatives have committee rooms in the "Ross" building, and the Liberals are located in Burt's Hall. Both parties seem to be well organized and especially among the young voters there is a good deal of enthusiasm.

Miss Blanche Kelly spent Sunday in Woodstock.

Walter Sprague was the guest of Albion R. and Mrs. Foster at Middle Simonds, Sunday. Mr. Sprague and Mr. Foster drove to Bath on Saturday evening and attended the political meeting.

Mrs. T. J. Carter, of Andover, was the guest of her father, George R. Burt, last week.

Mrs. G. C. Watson and Mrs. A. W. Rideout drove to Jacksonville to visit Mrs. C. T. Phillips last week.

Alfred Thornton is building a neat residence at the south end of town.

Mrs. Brown, of Ashland, Me., formerly Miss Alma McLaughlin, of Hartland, and her little daughter, have been visiting her parents here.

Rev. Charles Orser, of Mars Hill, was here the other day on his way to Yarmouth county. He is a delegate to the annual conference of the Primitive Baptist church, now in session there.

The new C. P. R. dining room, about which much has been written and said was opened to the travelling public on Monday, when the timetable change took effect. Everything is snug, new, neat and clean; the waiters and caterers being the same efficient staff that made Newburgh Jct. famous for good dinners. Mr. Owens has not yet come to this station, but it is expected that if the state of traffic permits, the junction of the new line with the old will be completed the coming Sunday. After that Newburgh will not figure as a station, and Mr. Owens will be free to come here. At the time of writing the family have not secured a suitable rent.

Wentworth Thistle returned from Saskatchewan on Monday, not much the worse for wear.

Miss Dorothy Perkins was visiting friends here the first of the week.

Harry Gillin went to Montreal with a carload of hogs on Saturday.

Rev. T. S. Vanwart, who has been confined to the house for a month was able to be out on Monday.

Arthur B. Curtis of the N. B. Tel Co., was here over Sunday.

Frank McCollom, of the Bank of Montreal who has been relieving at the Grand Falls branch, is now at home here awaiting further orders.

C. H. Jamieson of East Florenceville, local superintendent of the N. B. Telephone Co., was here on Monday.

W. D. Keith was somewhat under the weather last week.

Big potato stories are coming from Aroostook. It is said that recently seventy-seven cars were shipped in one train, which is more than was shipped altogether the first year that Aroostook county shipped potatoes. One man in Fort Fairfield raised 399 barrels from one and three quarters of an acre. Will not some of our Carleton county farmers tell a story!

H. A. Morgan, of Millinocket, was the guest of his cousin, E. C. Morgan, two days last week.

Miss Blackadar, the returned missionary to India, spoke to a large audience in the upper Baptist Church on Saturday. She was the guest of Mrs. D. E. Morgan on Saturday and of Mrs. McFarland over Sunday.

Mrs. Ziba Orser and child spent Sunday in Woodstock the guest of her brother, Charles H. Perkins.

Rev. J. H. Copeland of Rockland was in the village on Saturday, the guest of D. E. Morgan and wife.

A good general cook is wanted at once at the Commercial Hotel. See advertisement elsewhere in this paper.

Frank Hagerman of Hartland was one of the speakers at the Liberal meeting at Bath on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ray Brewer returned from Richmond where she had been since the funeral of her father, Andrew Ray, last Wednesday.

The Markets.

There is hardly the same activity in the produce market as there was last week, chiefly on account of potato digging being about done. There are many potatoes stored on barnfloors, the owners awaiting a higher price.

There are very few oats being marketed, although the price is good. Very little threshing has been done yet.

Hay does not move as the price offers the farmer no inducement.

It is a little too early for quotations for poultry, except that for local consumption. For this the price is variable.

Prices throughout the county average:

Hay loose,.....	$6.00 to $7.00
Oats,.....	.36 to .40
Potatoes,.....	.95 to 1.05
Buckwheat Meal,.....	1.60 to 1.75
Eggs,.....	.22 to .24
Butter,.....	.23 to .25
Beans,.....	2.25 to 2.50
Dressed pork,.....	.06½ to .07

Death of Alexander Caldwell.

On Wednesday Oct. 7th, after a lingering illness of kidney trouble, Alexander Caldwell, one of the oldest residents of Wakefield Centre, passed away in the 74th year of his age.

The deceased was well known throughout the county as he at one time had been a popular school teacher. He was a great reader and in politics was a staunch Liberal.

The funeral was held on Friday the 9th inst. from the residence of his nephew Chas. E. Caldwell.

Interment was made in the Catholic Cemetery at Williamstown where a requiem Mass. was celebrated by the Rev. Father Bradley.

WANTED AT ONCE.

A Good General Cook for meats and prtry at the Commercial Hotel, Hartland. Apply at once. Oct. 14th, 1908.

Trade Is Booming at the HARTLAND Departmental Store.

It's the Low Prices Does It.

Credit is all right when you can't get along without it, but when not needed it pays to trade with us. Buying on the Pay-Down System means dollars in a man's pocket every year.

When credit is given there are always more or less bad debts and the men who pay have to make this up. We take Produce in exchange for goods at cash prices.

Eggs 21c; Butter 23c; Oats 40c.
