THE residence of Mr. Frank Rankin, in Grafton, was totally destroyed by fire Friday afternoon last. It is supposed the fire caught from a defective flue. Mr. Rankin and his daughters were in Woodstock when the fire broke out and were not aware of the fact that their home was burning until the fire had got beyond control. The fire engine from Woodstock was taken over and every effort made to save the house. The neighbors worked hard and saved most of the furniture, clothing, etc. Mr. Rankin carried insurance on the building in the Caledonia Insurance Co., and $500.00 on the furniture in the Carleton Co-Operative Insurance Co. It is hardly likely Mr. Rankin will rebuild this season.

THE largest crowd in the history of the Graham Opera House greeted the management of the new Bijou theatre on their opening last Saturday. Every seat was filled and standing room was at a premium. The show certainly deserved the large patronage accorded them, as it was perfect in every detail. The pictures and the singing cannot be compared with anything that has yet been shown here. Everything was of the highest class exhibited in the most perfect manner. The pictures were all very interesting, especially "The Outlaw," a picture of Western life, and "Mixed Babies," a strong comedy. Each and every one made a big hit with the large audience as they were absolutely clear and distinct, and there was no difficulty in seeing every move of the figures on the screen. Everything was run off as clock work. There were no waits and hardly any intermission between the performances. The singing of Miss Frity and Mr. Goff was far above any singer of illustrated songs ever heard here. Taken as a whole it is the best show for the money that has ever been in Woodstock and the people should be proud to have the Bijou theatre located here and keep them here. From the number of praises we have heard we predict that the Bijou will be one of the most popular places in Woodstock.
