THE excursion of the B. R. T. to Woodstock, Sunday, failed to materialize. The Brotherhood had made arrangements with the C. P. R. officials for a special train but at the last minute it was cancelled. The reason given for this act was the enforcement of the Sunday laws by the officials of Woodstock. It is the general opinion of railroad men that the train was cancelled because of the hostility of the management to affiliated labor organizations, the C. P. R. now having a big strike on its hands. However the B. of R. T. went to Woodstock, Sunday, making the journey by teams.—Houlton Pioneer.
