CARD OF THANKS.—John H. Mitchell and family wish to thank their many friends through the columns of THE DISPATCH for the many acts of kindness shown to them in their recent sad bereavement.

The Dominion Inspector of cold storage plants, who was here recently inspecting the plant of the Woodstock Cold Storage Co., says it is one of the most up-to-date plants of its size in the Dominion.

CONTRACTOR McVey is pushing his work along on the new Broadway school building so as to get the roof in position before the severe winter weather sets in. Fewer Bros. are at work putting in the heating plant.

The young people of the United Baptist Church held a very successful Thanksgiving supper in the basement of the United Baptist Church on Monday evening. The receipts amounted to $115.00, for church purposes.

A successful operation for appendicitis was performed last week at the Richards private hospital, Fredericton, upon Miss Mallory, of Jacksonville, Carleton Co., who was taken there for the operation by her physician, Dr. Kierstead, of Woodstock.

Mrs. M. E. ALGIRE, the New Brunswick manager of the Spirella Company, of Canada, was at the Carlisle hotel last week, and will return next month to demonstrate the Spirella Corset, guaranteed non-rustable and non-breakable, and made in all the latest styles. Mrs. Algire will meet ladies at the Carlisle hotel or at their homes.

THERE will be sold at public auction on Thursday, Nov. 19, at the residence of the late Andrew Ray, of Richmond, all the farm machinery, double wagon, buckboard, single carriage, pump, double sled, double and single harness, and a few household effects. A splendid chance to secure a good farming outfit.

INVITATIONS are out for a grand ball to be given in the Hayden-Gibson Theatre on Wednesday evening, November 18th, by Carleton Lodge I. O. O. F. The members of the reception committee are: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ellsworth and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Loane. Donovan's Orchestra, of Houlton, will furnish the music.

A YOUNG lady from Woodstock, employed in Gannon Bros.' candy factory, met with a serious loss last Saturday afternoon. She had received her pay envelope for two weeks, containing $16.00, which she placed in a small pocket in her sacking, and started for Calais on some errand. Somewhere between the factory and the Calais end of the bridge the envelope with its contents was lost.—St. Stephen paper.

Mrs. Wm. LOVE, of Glassville, thanks her customers for the past seasons generous trade and announces that owing to the increase of business she has engaged Miss Giberson, a first class milliner, of Bath, to take charge for the coming season. Those who take advantage of Miss Giberson's taste and skill will be pleased with the result as there is a large stock of latest styles in hats and trimmings to select from.

MISS BESSIE M. SCOTT, a Deaconess from the Methodist Deaconess Home Toronto, will address a meeting in the Methodist church next Tuesday evening. As Miss Scott will present a feature of work not much known in New Brunswick no doubt her address will be of great interest. A general invitation is extended to the public. A collection will be taken in behalf of the Deaconess' work.

THE funeral of the late Alexander Henderson took place from the family residence on Friday afternoon. The Rev. Kenneth McKay, of Houlton, officiated, assisted by the Rev. R. G. Fulton. Many beautiful floral emblems were sent by relatives and friends of deceased. The pall-bearers were: Donald Munro, J. T. Allan Doble, Wm. Wright, W. W. Hay, John McLaughlan and William Fisher. The remains were laid away in the burial ground at Upper Woodstock, the Masonic burial service being read by John McLaughlan.

The Lord's Day Alliance held a meeting in the Reformed Baptist Church on Sunday evening at the close of the regular service. The principal speakers were: Revs. R. G. Fulton, A. H. Kearney and S. A. Baker. The question chiefly touched on was the running of trains on Sunday. When the Rev. Mr. Baker was speaking a freight passed by as a practical illustration. A committee was appointed to wait on Supt. Newcombe to see if some arrangements cannot be made to lessen the traffic on Sunday. At the close of the meeting a collection was taken to meet the demands of the local branch.

The reredos for St. Luke's Church erected in memory of Archdeacon Neales, has arrived and is now in place in the church. It was made by Jones and Willis, of London, and has already been described in THE DISPATCH. It is a beautiful piece of work, and the parishioners who gave it should feel satisfied with the selection. On Sunday morning this article will be dedicated by the Ven. Archdeacon Newham, of St. Stephen, who beside succeeding Archdeacon Neales in his office, was his warm personal friend. The services will be of a specially commemorative nature on Sunday and the Archdeacon will preach both morning and evening.

DR. PRESCOTT was called to Caribou last week in consultation on a case.

ON Monday night the general store owned by J. N. Tompkins, of Peel, was burned to the ground and little of the contents were saved. The loss is upwards of $5000.00, partially covered by insurance. Mr. Tompkins owns the building, which he erected a year ago. He had been in business about two years.

LAST week news came of the death of Prince Whitehouse, who went to Moosejaw on September 5th. Death was the result of typhoid fever. The remains arrived at Hartland on Friday and were taken to his former home at Knowlesville for burial. Mr. Whitehouse was 62 years of age and a widower. He has a son, George, and two daughters, Mrs. Oscar Noble, and Miss Myrtle Whitehouse, all of whom are in the West.

MISS ELIZABETH HAZEN died at the residence of Mrs. W. Chipman Hazen, at Upper Woodstock on Monday morning, aged 84 years. She had been an invalid for many years past. Many of the older people of the community will remember her for her kind gentle manner, and her goodness to any in distress or sorrow. She was a sister of the late Chipman Hazen and an aunt of Hon. W. C. H. Grimmer. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon at St. Luke's church. Among those who attended it as mourners was Mr. F. Howard Grimmer of St. Andrews.

Supper To Mr. Berrie.

Tuesday evening after Lodge the members of Ivanhoe Lodge, Knights of Pythias, gave a supper at the Royal Cafe in honor of one of their number, Mr. J. Charlton Berrie, who only recently joined the order of Benedicts. The chair was occupied by the Chancellor Commander, Geo. W. Gibson, who presided with ease and dignity.

After disposing of the eatables a round of toasts followed, which were responded to as follows:—

The King, Musical honors.
Our Guest, Mr. Berrie,
The Grand Lodge, Dr. Sprague and R. E. Holyoke.
Ivanhoe Lodge, Coun. Balmain and F. L. Mooers.
The Ladies, C. I. Churchill and Capt. Bull.
Visiting brethren, W. J. Wetmore of St. John.

Hang Week's Wash in a Few Minutes on a

Hill Clothes Dryer

Clean Compact

Capacious Convenient

Why continue to fuss with unsightly, ungainly clothes lines and poles when you can get this neat, compact, convenient Hill Dryer.

Instead of being spread all over the yard and supported by numerous poles, every inch of every line on the Hill Dryer is within easy reach—so you can hang the whole wash without moving a step, without having to drag the heavy basket up and down the yard through snow or damp grass.

Set up a Hill Dryer in a convenient spot near the house and see how many steps, how much time, work and bother it saves. Once use it and no one could ever coax you back to the old-fashioned clothesline method.

Hill Dryers are made in several sizes and styles for lawn, balcony and roof. Hold 100 to 150 feet of line—revolve so line comes to you—taken apart, folded up and put away, keeping your lawn entirely clear of obstructions.

Let us put one up in your yard ready for next wash-day. Or call and see it.
