J. Allan Perley.

The death of A. J. Perley took place at his home in Andover on Wednesday, the 25th inst in the 60th year of his age. Mr. Perley has been in poor health ever since the disastrous fire that destroyed his hotel. Lately he has been to Montreal for treatment but medical skill failed to cure him. He had built a new home during the summer and only occupied it a few weeks when the end came. Mr. Perley has for years been a familiar figure in the village of Andover, as proprietor of Perley's Hotel, which for years was the headquarters of the sportsmen who visited this part of the country. He was brought in contact with many prominent men in all parts of Canada and the United States. He leaves a mother and wife and son, Harold of the engineering staff of the C. P. R., a daughter, Mrs. Nelson Hanson, of Montreal; two sisters, Mrs. MacLachlan and Mrs. J. T. Garden of Fredericton, and a brother, Wallace Perley of Minnesota, to mourn their loss. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved family and especially for his aged mother, who in her old age thought so much of her son with whom she had lived during her widowhood. He was buried with Masonic honors in the Episcopal burying ground on Friday. Several members of the Woodstock lodge and other friends went up to the funeral.

John Tattersall.

The many friends of John Tattersall in this town will regret to hear of his death which occurred early on Monday morning in Calais, Me. at the home of his brother-in-law H. E. Purington, in the 49th year of his age. He is survived by his widow and two girls. Mrs. J. D. Fowler of Fredericton, is a sister. His mother, Mrs. Hugh Matheson, is in Boston.

Mr. Tattersall came to Woodstock about twenty years ago and during most of the time was in the employ of the Grant Carriage Co. About two years ago he started in business for himself on King street, and was working up a good trade when he was taken ill with consumption.

He was connected with the fire department for a number of years and for several years was its efficient chief.

The firemen of the town sent down a wreath of flowers, and some of the members of the company will probably go down to the funeral which takes place in Calais today. The burial will be in St. Stephen.

William Smith.

William Smith, a well known citizen, died Thursday night after a lingering illness of cancer of the stomach, aged fifty-five years. He was born in England, but came to Nova Scotia when a child, and nine years ago removed to Woodstock to oversee a department in the woolen mills here. He is survived by his wife and two sons—Marvin and Thomas, and two daughters—Misses Rose and Mary, all of Woodstock. There is one sister in England, one brother, Richard, in New Glasgow, (N. S.), and a brother, Joseph, in Edmonton, Alberta. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon. The Rev. H. G. Alder officiating.

That Liquor Shipment.

Three casks of liquor shipped to Woodstock, Carleton County, from St. John as vinegar in the name of a wholesale grocery firm of this city and now under seizure by Scott Act officials at Woodstock, may form the basis of a very interesting legal case.

The shipment was made last week and the first intimation that the company had of the affair was when the manager was notified by the railway authorities that they had a shipment of vinegar from his firm for which the customary guarantee for perishable goods had not been arranged.

The manager did not recall having shipped any vinegar and it is understood he instituted inquiries with the result that he learned that the casks in question contained not vinegar but spirituous liquor, which had been shipped on the waybills of his firm. It is understood he is tracing the matter and intends to find out how it happens that these waybills containing the name of his firm were secured and why such liberties were taken in the firm's name.

Rumor is that the grocery firm is the St. John Mercantile Company, of which Mr. McCavour, who is known as a temperance advocate, is manager. Mr. McCavour was asked about the matter but declined to discuss it in any way.

The head of the liquor firm that had been mentioned was also spoken to but he declined to make any statement and expressed surprise that his name had been connected with the case.—Telegraph.

The firm of Beal & Co. are said to be the shippers of the seized liquor.

While the rank and file seemingly took little interest in the contest, the heavy men of both parties had been into the fight the past three weeks stamping the county.

The vote polled is considerably less than that brought out at the recent Dominion election.

In the evening Mr. Upham was driven up Main street in a coach with his friends, surrounded by a large number of torch bearers, after which a reception was held at his residence.

Now that the elections are over, let both political parties get together and in unison with the Moral Reform Society come to a satisfactory understanding in regard to running clean elections in future.

The mixup in Northumberland County has resulted in the election of Mr. Burchill by a majority of 200 votes. It is said that he will be an independent supporter of the Hazen Government. Mr. Swim put up a good fight considering the difficulties he had to contend with.

For Pure Elections.

A fairly large sized gathering assembled at the Council Chamber on Friday evening to discuss the crying evil of bribery and corruption at elections.

On motion of N. F. Thorne the chair was taken by C. L. S. Raymond, who, in an able address, told of the work of the Moral and Reform League during the general local election. He felt that the work then done was not in vain. In other counties also, particularly in Westmorland, almost clean elections were conducted at that time. He had gone to the extent of having posters printed containing sections of the law and the penalty for violating the same and he had secured the signatures of Messrs Owens and Upham, agreeing to run a clean election.

Revs. G. D. Ireland and R. G. Fulton made addresses. They had made up their minds, as a result of the election in which they had taken a prominent part in March last, that moral suasion could not accomplish the desired end, neither did they think that the clergy should take upon themselves the duties of detectives and see that the law is enforced, although they were willing as citizens to bear their share of the burdens.

Other addresses were made by Colonel Vince, C. L. Smith, James Carr, H. G. Noble and T. C. L. Ketchum. The latter dwelt upon the fact that bribery was a great evil and was growing in Canada year by year. He wished also to tell the editors of the local papers face to face that in the recent campaigns they had showed a vindictive spirit east to the other that was deplorable.

A resolution was passed for the appointment of a committee with C. L. S. Raymond as chairman, to organize a Canadian Club in this town having for its object good citizenship which means clean elections.

The chair appointed Rev. G. D. Ireland, Rev. R. G. Fulton, H. G. Noble, T. C. L. Ketchum, G. A. White, with power to add to its number.

This committee was ratified by the meeting, which adjourned after moving a vote of thanks to Mr. Raymond.

Funeral of W. J. Davis.

The funeral of William J. Davis, C. P. R. engineer, took place on Friday afternoon last and was very largely attended. It was conducted under the auspices of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, a delegation from which body came down from Woodstock. Mr. Harry Currie acted as master of ceremony, reading the impressive burial service of the order at the grave. The religious services at the house and at the grave were conducted by Rev. A. W. Mason. He was assisted by the choir of Greenock Presbyterian Church. The members of Seaside Lodge, Knights of Pythias, of which deceased had been a member, also attended the funeral.—St. Andrews Beacon.
