

HARTLAND and VICINITY.

Hartland office in charge of Fred. H. Stevens. Telephone 13-11. Mrs. J. W. Montgomery will also receive items for publication, copy for ads., etc.

WOODSTOCK, N. B. DEC. 23, 1908.

On Friday Mr. and Mrs. L. E. McFarland left for a month's visit to Boston Portland New York.

Mrs. Carey Dickinson of Victoria Corner was in the village on Friday.

George Belyea, son of A. A. Belyea, Rockland, is home from the U. N. B. for the Christmas holidays.

Emery Manuel of Knowlesville was in town on Friday.

Fenton Kierstead of St. John, was a visitor in town on Saturday.

On Sunday, Dec. 27th, Mr. Ernest Baines will preach morning and evening at the Methodist church. Mr. Baines is a college friend of Rev. Fred T. Bertram and is a student at Mount Allison. He will arrive here in the middle of the week and spend Christmas with his friend.

Miss Janet McMullin has moved her stock of confectionery, fruit and fancy goods into the new brick block.

Mrs. S. S. Miller and son Aleck were in Woodstock a few days this week.

Miss Sarah McMullin has been very ill of tonsillitis.

John Shaw recently spent a few days at his home at Carleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Hayward spent the first part of the week with Mrs. Smith at Coldstream.

John McRoy, travelling salesman for Manchester, Robertson & Allison was doing business in Hartland this week.

The village and most of the county schools closed for the Christmas holidays on Wednesday. Miss Bessie Phillips who has taught the primary department for three terms has resigned from the staff of teachers.

Among the teachers who went from here to attend the Institute at Woodstock were: The Misses Darkis, Miss Sadie Barnett, Miss Esry Craig, and Miss Bessie Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, of Robinson, Me. were in the village this week.

Mrs. John Day who died on Monday and whose funeral was held on Wednesday, was eighty-five years of age and had been ailing only a few days. She was a sister of the late Charles Chase and her first husband was George Ginson. By him she bore four sons and three daughters. The sons are Frederick, Henry, and Amos. They all live in the vicinity of Upper Brighton, Rev. E. C. Jenkins, conducting the services.

Harvey Reed has returned from Wolfville to spend the Christmas vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ray, and daughter Kathleen, of Richmond, are guests of Mrs. James W. Montgomery.

The roads and weather were never better for the Christmas trade, which is booming. There is a tremendous quantity of pressed hay coming into the market.

H. M. D. Witt and S. R. Hayden have leased the lath mill owned by Solomon McFarlane on the Little Presque Isle stream. They have a crew of about two and a half million of lath. Mr. McFarlane is employed as engineer.

A large part of the potatoes now being shipped from this county are going to the West Indies, principally to Demarara. There is little stock going to Quebec and Ontario.

A short time ago Frank Albright had a valuable horse killed as the result of a kick from another horse. Within the same week his brother William lost a horse in almost exactly the same way. Another resident of Victoria, Harry Cockrane, lost a valuable horse the same week. This makes three horses and a colt that Mr. Cockrane has lost in a year.

All this week Nixon & Nixon have been having a demonstration of their special tea at their store. The demonstration still goes on. Call and have a free cup of as good tea as you ever drank; a good cup free.

Miss Dora Hayward who has been attending the Fredericton Business College, is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hayward.

There is a vacancy for a female teacher on the Hartland Superior School staff and a teacher for the Coldstream (Rockland) school is being advertised for.

Mrs. Fred Boyd, and son Harry, of Woodstock, were visiting friends here on Thursday.

Mrs. J. K. Flemming has been spending a few days in Woodstock.

A free cup of most delicious tea can be had by calling at the store Nixon & Nixon any day this week. Don't fail to try "Nixon's special."

W. R. Gillin shipped a carload of beef cattle to Montreal on Saturday. The stock was loaded at Hartland and Woodstock and were of very good weight. Mr. Gillin accompanied the shipment to Montreal.

A photograph studio has been opened in H. N. Boyer's building, south of the bridge. R. M. Grant is the proprietor.

The Hartland friends of Henry Saunders sympathize with him in the shocking accident by which, on Friday, he lost his right hand by a premature explosion of dynamite, while at work on the C. P. R. near his home at Lower Brighton.

The rearrangement of the Hartland circuit of the Methodist church, which was mentioned in this paper last week is to take place with the beginning of the church year, July 1st. The newly created circuit will embrace East Girsaville, Argyle, Knowlesville, Beaufort and Biggar Ridge. At the present time it is understood that Rev. F. T. Bertram, present pastor at Hartland will go to the new circuit after June, and Rev. E. C. Turner of Jacksonville will hold services here every Sunday evening.

By the number of rabbits coming into the village it seems as though the DISPATCH was a good advertising medium.

A few days ago the death of H. K. Hiccock occurred at North View, Victoria county. The deceased was 77 years of age and a native of Bairdsville. He was very well known in the upper part of Carleton county. He was a school teacher for forty years.

J. F. Thompsons, whose general store at Peel was burned only a few weeks ago, has again restocked in a new store and will be ready to receive customers after January 1st.

The Reformed Baptist Sunday school will give a concert at New Years time, a custom the young people have followed for many years. The program is always good and it cost nothing to hear it.

There probably was never a greater Christmas rush than this season. All the buyers seem to have the ready money and make free use of it. The splendor of roads and beautiful weather brought many to town.

Wesley Clowater, of Fredericton, was in Hartland Monday.

Alfred Bowser, of Victoria, is spending his vacation at his home.

Miss Lillian Estey, of Fredericton, is visiting her cousin, Miss Hilda Boyer.

The DISPATCH correspondent wishes all his friends and enemies a very merry Christmas and a prosperous, bountiful New Year.

Mr. Drake, of Avondale, spent Sunday with Mr. and Anthony Baker.

Fred. Thornton is spending his vacation at his home here.

Miss Sherwood, of Woodstock, is visiting Miss Lena Hayward.

Frank Nixon has returned from the woods to spend Christmas.

Ed. McCollom, accompanied by his father, came down from Siegas Friday.

Mrs. David Shaw and Mrs. Burrill Hatfield, of Simonds, left on Monday for a visit in Boston.

E. J. Smith went to Benton Monday to spend his holidays.

The great Hallelujah wedding comes off to night at the Salvation Army, secure your seat in time.
