THE Rev. E. A. Bolt took the services in St. Peter's Church, Milltown, on Sunday.

PROF. D. J. Fraser, of the Montreal Presbyterian College, has had conferred on him the degree of D. D.

REV. J. H. Coy has received a call to the Grand Manan churches and expects to begin his pastoral duties there soon.

It has been sometime since the people of this vicinity have had an opportunity of buying shoebacks at the price which Gibson & Ross are selling theirs at this season.

A JOINT meeting of the Carleton and Victoria Counties Teachers' Institutes will be held in Woodstock on December 17th and 18th. An excellent programme is being arranged.

If it is a question of price—then, all things considered, "Salada" is the greatest tea value for the money paid, for experience has proven that "Salada" (packed in airtight lead packets) is tea excellence.

IN THE Supreme Court which met in Fredericton last week, in Chute vs. Adney, a Carleton county case, the defendant was refused a new trial. Judgment in this case was delivered by Justice White. The land in dispute is situated at Woodstock. The court was unanimous.

THE congregation of Glassville have extended a call to Rev. F. W. Murray, of North Sydney. Rev. Mr. Murray, it is probable, will accept subject to which Rev. G. D. Ireland and Rev. Mr. McDonald were appointed to address the minister and the people. Rev. J. H. A. Anderson, moderator pro tem of the congregation, will preside and induct.

A QUIET but pretty wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock, at the residence of Rev. M. F. Trafton, St. John, when that gentleman united in marriage Charles Israel Churchill, of Woodstock, to Miss E. L. McIntosh, of Boston and formerly of Glassville. The happy couple arrived in Woodstock on Thursday where they will reside.

THE Press has been served with notice of action for libel at the instance of John S. Leighton, jr., claims agent of the Intercolonial railway. In its editorial of last week on the result of the election in Carleton, the Press charged Leighton with actively participating in the election, and with committing gross irregularities at Peel. It is said that the Press will fight the action to a conclusion.

At the residence of Mrs. Albert J. Brown, 123 Crescent street, Montreal, Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock, the wedding took place of R. B. Kessen, of St. John, and Mrs. J. T. Whitlock, nee Miss Sisson, of Fredericton. Rev. James Fleck, of Knox Presbyterian church performed the ceremony. Mrs. Whitlock recently obtained a decree of divorce from her husband, who is cashier of the St. Stephen Bank.

THE BIJOU continues playing to houses of fullest capacity, and everyone attending has nothing but the one expression, "the best I ever saw" for the merit of the show, and with a firm determination of going again at every change of pictures. If you have not yet visited the Bijou you don't know what a good entertainment you are missing, and if you go once you are sure of getting the Bijou habit that most everyone else has developed, and that means going to every change in the future.

LAST Wednesday a ceremony which was at once interesting and unique was performed by the Rev. Mahaffy, when he conducted a double wedding, the principles being Arthur G. Neeman and Miss Annie Margaret Saunders, and W. J. Bennett and Miss Jean E. Saunders. The brides are sisters and all the young people are held in highest esteem by a large circle of friends. After a trip taking in Victoria, Seattle and San Francisco, the young couples will reside in Calgary. (The above appeared in the Calgary Daily Herald of Nov. 3rd. The brides are former Woodstock young ladies, daughters of W. S. Saunders.)

THE annual meeting of the Carleton County Agricultural Society Tuesday afternoon, was well attended. The report of the secretary showed a small balance in the treasury. C. M. Augherton, secretary of the exhibition, reported a surplus of about two hundred dollars. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, James Good; vice-presidents, J. R. Brown and Alex. Strong; secretary, C. L. Smith. The only contest was for secretary, the last secretary C. M. Augherton, being nominated by J. R. Brown. C. L. Smith, who has acted in that capacity in previous years, was also nominated, and was elected by four votes over Mr. Augherton. It was unanimously voted to appoint a committee to wait on F. B. Carvell, M. P., and have him put in an application for the $50,000 Dominion exhibition grant next year, the idea being, if the grant is secured, to erect fine exhibition buildings on Rogers' Island.

PERSONAL

The Misses Sherrard, who have been quite ill, are recovering.

Miss Rourke, of St. Martins, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McLean.

Mrs. Samuel Watts returned last week from an extended visit to Toronto.

Mrs. Godfree Newnham entertained at a thimble party on Thursday last.

John Watt has been in poor health for the last two weeks and unable to attend to his duties.

Douglas Hooper, son of the Rev. E. B. Hooper, of St. John, has been transferred to the Montreal Bank here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kennedy left on Wednesday for Keswick, York Co., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Merrithew.

Mrs. Duncan Alcorn, of Victoria, B. C., who has been visiting her father, William Olmstead, of Grafton, left for home last week. Mrs. Alcorn has been living in Victoria for the past four years and says the climate there is delightful. Her husband is a contractor and builder and is doing well in the western city.

MRS. B. N. GOODSPEED was taken suddenly ill with an attack of pneumonia this week. Her daughters, Mrs. J. E. Jewett and Mrs. W. B. Wiggins were summoned to her bedside. A telegram was received here on Tuesday bringing the news of Mrs. Goodspeed's death which took place on Monday.

A MEETING of the citizens was held in the town hall on Monday evening last, to see if some steps could not be taken to get a grant of $50,000 from the Dominion Government for the holding of a Dominion exhibition here. A committee was appointed to write to Halifax and get information regarding cost of buildings and size of prize list. On account of the small attendance an adjournment was made until Wednesday, the 25th inst, when a large attendance is expected.

ON THANKSGIVING evening the home of the Rev. A. H. Trafton, Port Maitland, was the scene of a very interesting event, when their youngest daughter, Calla Viola, was united in marriage to Alvin B. Perry of this place. The father of the bride officiated. After the ceremony a sumptuous lunch was served, followed by instrumental and vocal music. After prayer was offered by the bride's father the guests quietly dispersed, leaving behind a large number of beautiful presents and a host of well wishes to the happy couple.—King's Highway.

CHRISTMAS Photographs at C. H. Merritt & Co. Studio. An urgent call for early appointments in the interests of sitters who admire who admire good work. Many people find it quite a problem once a year to decide "what to give for Xmas." Why not let C. H. Merritt & Co. help you in the solution of the problem? Can you think of anything at the price that would be more appreciated than a dozen photographs? But to be of any value as a gift they must be good ones. The Xmas season is almost upon us, so please call as early as possible. Good work guaranteed.

ON SATURDAY Scott Act Inspector Colpitts and Constable Woolverton, of Woodstock, drove to Hartland and met the incoming express from the south. When the express packages were being delivered to the agent the inspector seized a package evidently containing a long heck addressed to a young man of Hartland. The parcel was shipped from Woodstock, and evidently Mr. Colpitts expected its arrival. A parcel he did not expect was next put out of the car was a case of brandy addressed to one of the most prominent men in the vicinity. The brandy was promptly seized. So far this is the first sign of a waking for the by-election fray.

Hang Week's Wash in a Few Minutes on a

Hill Clothes Dryer

Clean Compact

Why continue to fuss with unsightly, ungainly clothes lines and poles when you can get this neat, compact, convenient Hill Dryer.

Instead of being spread all over the yard and supported by numerous poles, every inch of every line on the Hill Dryer is within easy reach—so you can hang the whole wash without moving a step, without having to drag the heavy basket up and down the yard through snow or damp grass.

Let us put one up in your yard ready for next wash-day. Or call and see it.

Capacious Convenient

Set up a Hill Dryer in a convenient spot near the house and see how many steps, how much time, work and bother it saves. Once use it and no one could ever coax you back to the old-fashioned clothesline method.

Hill Dryers are made in several sizes and styles for lawn, balcony and roof. Hold 100 to 150 feet of line—revolve so line comes to you—taken apart, folded up and put away, keeping your lawn entirely clear of obstructions.
