It is the people who make an Exhibition, and there is no doubt they have made up their minds to make the St. John show, this fall, the best ever held there. The prizes are larger and more complete, the preparations for, and the confidence in the success of the big event greater than ever before. The determination to please the people, to give them their money's worth, to ensure that the Exhibition shall be worthy of St. John, and but the forerunner of what can be done when the Dominion Exposition is held there is shown on every hand. Everyone should mark the dates, September 12th to 19th, well, and leave that much time to visit St. John and its attractions during show week.
