Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments, must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local. Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments. The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

Punishing His Donkey.

Not very long ago there lived near Halifax an old man who always rode on a donkey to his daily work and tethered him while he laboured on the roads or wherever else he might be. It had been pretty plainly hinted to him by one of the local landowners that he was suspected of putting it in the field to graze at other people's expense. "Eh, squoire, Aw oudno do such a thing, fer my donkey wean't sit (eat) owt bud nettles add thistles." One day the gentleman was riding along the road, when he saw the old fellow at work and the donkey up to its knees in one of his clover fields, feeding luxuriously. "Halloa John!" said he, "I understood you to say your donkey would eat nothing but nettles and thistles." "Aye," said John, but he's bin misbehavin' hissen, sir. He nearly kicked me i' th' chest just now, so Ah put him there to punish him."

A clergyman writes: "Preventics, those little Candy Cold Cure Tablets are working wonders in my parish." Preventics surely will check a cold, or the Grippe, in a very few hours. And Preventics are so safe and harmless. No Quinine, nothing harsh nor sickening. Fine for feverish restless children. Box of 48 at 25c. Sold by all druggists.

A lecturer was touring through the country recently and delivered an address before an audience in a country schoolhouse.

In the course of his remarks he reviewed the agricultural prospects of the country, and as an illustration told a story of a poor farmer who had died, leaving to his wife the farm heavily mortgaged. He said that the widow set to work with a will and succeeded upon one year's wheat crop in paying off the entire mortgage.

When he had completed his lecture, the gentleman shook hands and greeted the members of his audience. One middle-aged man finally approached him thoughtfully and began:

"I say, mister, you told a story 'bout the widow raising a mortgage on one year's crop?"

"Yes, my friend, that was a true story. It happened only two years ago."

"Well, sir, could you tell me who that widow is? She's just the kind of woman I've been looking for all the time."—Home

Shake in a Bottle.

Now is the time when the doctor gets busy and the patent medicine manufacturers reap the harvest, unless great care is taken to dress warmly and keep the feet dry. This is the advice of an old eminent authority, who says that Rheumatism and Kidney trouble weather is here, and also tells what to do in case of an attack.

Get from any good prescription pharmacy one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon, three ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Mix by shaking in a bottle and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime.

Just try this simple home-made mixture at the first sign of Rheumatism, or if your back aches or you feel that the kidneys are not acting just right. This is said to be a splendid kidney regulator, and almost certain remedy for all forms of Rheumatism, which is caused by uric acid in the blood which the kidneys fail to filter out. Any one can easily prepare this at home and at small cost.

Druggists in this town and vicinity, when shown the prescription, stated that they can either supply these ingredients, or, if our readers prefer, they will compound the mixture for them.

Worth the Money.

In the journey from Vienna to St. Petersburg, Cumberland, the thought-reader entertained his fellow-passengers by guessing their thoughts. One of the travelers, a Polish Jew, who took the whole thing for a hoax, offered to pay Cumberland the sum of fifty roubles if he could divine his thoughts. Visibly amused, Cumberland acceded to his request and said: "You are going to the fair at Nishai-Novgorod, where you intend to purchase goods to the extent of twenty thousand roubles, after which you will declare yourself a bankrupt and compound with your creditors for three per cent." On hearing these words, the Jew gazed at the speaker with reverential awe. He then, without uttering a syllable drew out of the leg of his boot a shabby purse, and handed him the fifty roubles. Whereupon the great magician triumphantly inquired: "Then I have guessed your thoughts, eh?" "No," replied the Jew, "but you have given me a brilliant idea."

Called To St. John.

At a meeting of the congregation of St. John's Presbyterian church held Wednesday night it was decided to extend a call to the Rev. John H. A. Anderson, of Florenceville, Carleton county, in succession to the pastorate of Dr. Fotheringham, who recently resigned.

Mr. Anderson is a native of Prince Edward Island and is thirty-five years of age. He is a graduate of Dalhousie and of the Presbyterian College, Halifax, from which latter institution he obtained the degree of B. D., in 1903. Shortly after his ordination to the ministry Mr. Anderson took up the work of the church at Glassville, where he has since labored with much success.

He married, in 1904, Elizabeth, daughter of Captain Carson, of St. Martins, a young lady prominent in the work of the church, and by whom he has had two children.

Although active in all branches of church work, Mr. Anderson has particularly identified himself with the department of Sunday schools. He is convenor of the Sunday school committee of the Synod of the Maritime Provinces, and is editor of the Sunday School Advocate, the official organ of the Presbyterian church for Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick.

Since entering into the pastorate of Glassville, Mr. Anderson has received a number of calls, among them being one from St. Matthew's church, St. John, but he has found himself unable to entertain any of them. The invitation to assume the charge of St. John's church, however, it is thought and hoped, he will consider.

The meeting which had to do with the election of Mr. Anderson was presided over by the Rev. Angus A. Graham, as moderator of the Presbytery. Mr. Graham, addressing the members of the church at the conclusion of the election, stated that St. John's was most happy in their choice of a new pastor. "Mr. Anderson is a young man of much promise," said he, "and although it will be difficult to fill the place he now occupies in the affairs of the church in Carleton county, his coming to St. John will be a distinct gain to the city and will, no doubt, be bearing of much that will be of permanent value to the community."

There was but one other name brought up at the meeting, that of the Rev. David Wright, of Wolfville. The election of Mr. Anderson was made unanimous, however, by a standing vote upon the result of the first ballot being made known.

It is understood that a meeting of the Presbytery will be held shortly, when subject to the acquiescence of Mr. Anderson, his call will be considered. The congregation hope to have their pastor then inducted if possible before the Christmas festival.

The amount of salary to be tendered Mr. Anderson is twelve hundred dollars per year. He will also, if elected, be granted an annual vacation of four weeks.

The call, which followed in text the prescribed form of the church, was signed by forty-two communicants of St. John's congregation.

During the money stringency lately a certain real estate man, having nothing else for his clerk to do, sent him out to collect some rent that was overdue.

The clerk, being of Swedish nationality, had their peculiar twang in his speech. Returning from his trip, the Swede seemed very jubilant.

The proprietor, noticing his smile, said: "Well, what luck did you have?" and the clerk answered, "Party good."

"Well, did anybody pay you?"

"Yass, Smith he pay, and Yones he say he pay in January."

"Are you sure Jones said he would pay in January? He never before has made any such promises."

"Vell, tank so. He say it bane a col' day when you get dot money, and I tank dat bane in January."

"Life in Every Dose"

"I cannot speak too highly of Fry's chine, for it is the greatest medicine I ever used. I was just about 'all in' when I began the treatment, and in 3 months I was as well as ever. It is a great tonic for weak and run down people. There is new life in every dose."
