THE young ladies of the United Baptist Church will hold a Concert and Fancy sale in the vestry of the Church on the evening of Dec. 7 h. Admission 10 cents. All are cordially invited.

FRANCIS KELLY, for many years in the employ of J. A. Van Wart severed his connection with that firm Monday and enters the firm of the A. Henderson Co., as head undertaker in succession to Abe Brewer. Mr. Kelly is a practical workman, with many friends, who wish him success in his future duties.

MRS. THOMAS W. BERRYMAN died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Seaves, in Grafton, aged 61 years, on Friday of last week, of pneumonia of the lungs. She leaves a husband, five daughters and two sons. The funeral service was held on Sunday conducted by the Rev. A. H. Kearney. (Moncton papers please copy)

CHURCH of England.—The Right Rev. J. A. Richardson, D. D. Lord Bishop of Fredericton, will visit Woodstock today, and will hold a Confirmation in St. Luke's church at 7 30 o'clock this evening. There are about thirty candidates to receive the Holy and Apostolic Rite. This makes the second class (numbering sixty-three) presented by the R. C. in sixteen months. The offertory this evening will be given to the Medley Canon Missionary Fund.

CHRISTMAS Photographs at C. H. Merritt & Co. Studio. An urgent call for early appointments in the interests of sitters who admire who admire good work. Many people find it quite a problem once a year to decide "what to give for Xmas." Why not let C. H. Merritt & Co. help you in the solution of the problem? Can you think of anything at the price that would be more appreciated than a dozen photographs? But to be of any value as a gift they must be good ones. The Xmas season is almost upon us, so please call as early as possible. Good work guaranteed.

THERE is no foundation in fact for a statement appearing recently that Prof. John Britton, D. S. C., formerly of this city and now at St. Anne De Bellevue, L. Q., is about to retire from active work on a Carnegie Fund pension. While Dr. Britton has been teaching forty years and on that account is eligible for the Carnegie Fund pension, he has therefore not made any application for the pension. He is now engaged at the MacDonald College at St. Anne De Bellevue and is there meeting with the same good measure of success which attended his work while in this province. When he reaches the age limit Dr. Britton will probably apply for the retiring pension under the Carnegie Fund.—Fredericton Gleaner.

INVITATIONS are out for the wedding of Miss Margaret Archibald Thompson, youngest daughter of Senator Thompson, and Mr. Francis Edward Winslow, secretary of the McFarlane-Neill Manufacturing Company of St. Marys. The wedding will take place at the Senator's home on the 2nd of December at 3.45 o'clock and Rev. J. W. McConnell, pastor of the Methodist church, will tie the nuptial knot. That evening Mr. Winslow and his bride will leave for their honeymoon, which will be spent in New York and other American cities.—Fredericton Gleaner. Mr. Winslow is a brother of Mrs. Geo. D. Ireland of this town, and one of the most popular young men in Fredericton.

The Bath Ferry.

To the Editor of The Dispatch:

In looking over Bath items in the last issue of your paper I noticed one sentence which reads thus: "The ferry boat is still running and carrying passengers and teams free as it had all the past season notwithstanding statements to the contrary recently published in the papers." We think your correspondent must belong to a certain class of people who were not in evidence for a week or so after the 26th of Oct. so did not know that for a week beginning the 27th of Oct. the ferry was not free. There certainly was enough printed cotton posted up telling the fees charged for crossing. We trust in the future your correspondent will be more careful.
