Know-How Workmen Insure Economy.

No loss of time in experimenting if the workmen know their business. No waste of material if they know how to figure. No loss from unreasonable repairs. The way to do the best plumbing is to have men who know how to do the work.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak Kidney Nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach those controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.
If your back aches or is weak, if the urine scalds, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a mouth—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggist recommend and sell.

Feminism in Fashions is in the Ascendency.

Even tailor-mades, the most severe of all women's garments, intended for the daily promenade or morning attendance at the garden, make certain concessions to the new cult of feminine fashions. One's eyes are blinded to the straight, half-fitted backs and equally straight fronts of the coats, the severely gored skirts and simple-plaited blouses by the deluding softness of the ruche and ruffles at throat and wrist. The uninitiated will scarcely perceive that the difference between last year's suit and this lies in a straighter coat, a plainer skirt, a simpler blouse. Not in the least; it is that small bit of kilted cambric at the top of the collar and at the front of the blouse which will bring home to her the fascinations of the new fashions and make her feel at odds with her wardrobe.

A heavy ribbed serge in one of the new shades of blue—powder, cobalt or marine—is the smart material for the tailor-made suit. Skirts of broken plaids and checks of inconspicuous character, worn with a coat of plain color, threaten to become as popular here as they have been in Paris. The coats have the cutaway fronts, Consulat collars, small sleeves and a rather deep neck opening, which allows a generous display of the kilted ruffles of the blouse beneath.—Mrs. Osborn, in the November Delineator.

Go to the blood, if you are to drive out Rheumatism. A Wisconsin physician, Dr. Shoop, does this with his Rheumatic Remedy—and with seeming success. Rub on, says the doctor, never did cure Rheumatism. It is more than skin deep—it is constitutional, always. Because of this principle, Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy is perhaps the most popular in existence. It goes by word of mouth from one to another, everywhere. Grateful patients gladly spread results. It is an act of humanity to tell the sick of a way to health. Tell some sick one. Sold by all dealers.

Doing Fine.

Lionel and Virginia had enjoyed together the first week of school life. A friend, meeting the little fellow, said to him, "Well, little man, I hear you are going to school now; how are you getting along?"
The boy looked up smiling and answered with an air of proud achievement, "Well, I kissed Bergings," (Virginia).—Delineator.

To quickly check a cold, druggists are dispensing everywhere, a clever Candy Cold Cure Tablet called Preventics. Preventics are also fine for feverish children. Take Preventics at the sneeze stage, to head off all colds. Box of 48—25c. Sold by all dealers.

Rod and Gun for November.

Fine diversified reading is the leading feature of the November number of "Rod and Gun and Motor Sports in Canada," published by W. J. Taylor, at Woodstock, Ont. The delights of camping, canoeing, fishing, hunting and mountaineering are dwelt upon in stories which give the added touches of personal experiences to the pleasant pictures of enjoyment each one presents. Particularly notable are papers on "The Deer of New Brunswick" by that veteran guide, Adam Moore; "Deer Farming for Profit," a summary of inquiries on this subject made by the United States Government; and "Wild Rice Growing in Nova Scotia." Everyone will enjoy reading the stories "Running the Rapid with an Amateur" by L. W. Bingay; "My experiences as a Bear Hunter" by Dr. Henzel; "How I missed a Moose and Deer and shot a Wolf," by Jack Miner; and the friendly challenge by Mr. J. A. Shade, who believes, when all points are taken into consideration, that he has the finest moose head yet taken out of New Brunswick. This summary by no means includes the whole of the wide field covered. Diversions being made into many paths each of which must appeal to many readers. With the various departments, the wealth of material included in this number of the magazine is surprising and includes contributions that must appeal to all lovers of out door life.

THE OLD FOLK.

Nay, don't forget the old folks, boys—they've not forgotten you. Though years have passed since you were home, the old hearts still are true; And not an evening passes by they haven't the desire
To see your face once again, and hear your footsteps nigher.

You're young and buoyant, and for you Hope beckons with her hands. And life spreads out a waveless sea that laps but tropic strands; The world is all before your face, but let your memories turn
To where fond hearts still cherish you and loving bosoms yearn.

No matter what your duties are, nor what your place in life, There's never been a time they'd not assume your load of strife; And shrunken shoulders, trembling hands and forms racked by disease, Would bravely dare the grave to bring to you the pearl of peace.

So don't forget the old folks, boys—they've not forgotten you. Though years have passed since you were home, the old hearts still are true; And write them now and then to bring the light into their eyes, And make the world glow once again and bluer gleam the skies.

A pain prescription is printed upon each 25c box of Dr. Shoop's Pink Pain Tablets. Ask your Doctor or Druggist if this formula is not complete. Head pains, womanly pains, pains anywhere get instant relief from a Pink Pain Tablet. Sold by all dealers.

Briggs-Dyer.

A quiet wedding took place at the home of Wm. Simpson, Bristol, on Thursday evening, October 15th, the contracting parties being Mabel Agnes, eldest daughter of John Briggs, Gordonsville, and James Edward, son of Charles Dyer, Bristol. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Addison Giberson in the presence of a few immediate friends of the young couple. The bride wore a becoming gown of white cashmere with silk trimmings and carried a bouquet of snow-drops. Miss Bessie Simpson acted as bridesmaid and wore mauve silk with chiffon trimmings. Norman I. Merritt supported the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Dyer will reside in the village, and are receiving showers of good wishes from their hosts of friends.

An Oratorical "Sisser."

A diffident man who had been asked to respond to a toast at a banquet grew more and more nervous as the time approached when he should be called on. When at last the critical moment arrived, he gripped the edge of the table and rose uncertainly. "Gentlemen," he said, "when I heard I was to be called upon this evening I made the effort of my life, and really the result was a fine speech. I made one telling point after another—but I kept my scintillations strictly to myself for a surprise. Only myself and God knew that speech; and now—God only knows it."
And he sat down.—Sybil Stewart Sterling.

"Life in Every Dose"

"I cannot speak too highly of Psychine, for it is the greatest medicine I ever used. I was just about 'all in' when I began the treatment, and in 3 months I was as well as ever. It is a great tonic for weak and run down people. There is new life in every dose."
JAS. STOLKER.
Ridgetown, Ont., Dec. 19, 1906.
It is a sin not to tell your sick friends about this wonderful prescription. Throat, lung and stomach troubles, and all run down conditions quickly cured by its use. At all druggists, 50c and $1.00, or Dr. T. A. Bloem, Ltd., Toronto
