Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments, must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local. Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments. The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

Not Lifelike.

The late N. C. W., known throughout New England as a very shrewd money getter, sometimes hired a witty Irishman to work around his place, and he loved to talk to the man on account of his ready wit.

One morning as John was working about the lawn Mr. W. called to him to come and see the portrait he had had made of himself. The picture showed him standing with one hand in his pocket.

"What do you think of it, John?" he asked "Isn't it a good likeness?"

"I can't see anything natural about it, Mr. W., replied John. "You should have had your hand in some other man's pocket."—Lippincott's.

Comic Effects of Type Errors.

Typographical errors that produced weird or comical effects are described by the St. Louis Republic in an article recalling the days when all of that newspaper's type was set by hand, before the introduction of typesetting machines, when the "copy," instead of being typewritten, was turned over to the printer in an infinite variety of good, bad, and indifferent chirography.

Comparatively few of the errors were allowed to contribute to the gayety of the subscribers, as the majority were squelched in the "House of Correction," as the proofroom was facetiously termed. From a collection made by a proofreader the following instances of ridiculous misreading of copy are taken.

"His blushing bride" was transformed into "his blustering bride."

A captain was said to have "served with destruction in the Confederate army," but the writer thought he wrote "distinction."

Two pictures entitled "The Galley Slave," and "Each in Their Turn," were referred to as "The Galley I Love" and "Enoch in Shin Town."

Having in mind the influence of former citizens of the land of the shamrock upon the political destinies of the town, what more natural than that the printerman should set up an "Irish District Court" where it had been the "First District Court?"

Prof. Frank Gecks was mentioned as having rendered "violent selections" rather than "violin selections."

Somebody was quoted as saying that "all the singing folks on the vaudeville stage have hundreds of wives," but the copy, when carefully examined, was found to read "husbands or wives," and a sensation in the theatrical world was averted.

"They sailed for three days around the cape and finally slaughtered a small Italian," was corrected to read "sighted a small island."

On one occasion the reporter wrote of certain "dwarfed and hungered children," who were made to appear perhaps more pathetic when the compositor substituted the words "doorfed and haggard."

"He takes delight in talking on his family shame" was a shameful thing to say about him, for "favorite theme" was meant.

"Red Cross Society Will Fight Corbett" was the way the typesetter transformed the copy concerning a crusade against cholera.

Whales in Portland, Me., Harbor.
(From the Lewiston Journal.)

Two whales, one about 100 feet, and the other about seventy-five feet in length, were seen Monday swimming about the harbor by several cottagers at Evergreen Landing, Peak's Island.

The monsters were peacefully romping about in the water and when steamer Pilgrim came down the harbor they swam some distance away, but remained in view of the people all the time, flapping their huge tails of the water and spouting water. It was a sight not often seen in Portland harbor.

Lewis, the year and a half old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Pesbody, who live about two miles below town, was drowned Tuesday afternoon July 21st by falling into a tub of water kept for watering stock. It seems the unfortunate little fellow, with some other small children, was playing near the tub, one of the sort placed in running brooks, and by some manner or means fell in head first. The other children gave the alarm, but before help arrived life was extinct.

Didn't Agree with Me

Mr. Arthur Tenneson, 88 London Street, Toronto, writes enthusiastically of the merits of Psychine for all stomach troubles.

"For seven years I have had indigestion and dyspepsia. I tried scores of remedies. My room resembled a drug store with nostrums which I had bought. Eventually I used Psychine, and every dose brought permanent relief."

All throat, lung and stomach troubles quickly cured by Psychine. It is the prescription of a great specialist. At all druggists, 50c and $1.00, or Dr. E. M. Casson, Limited, Toronto.

Heading off a Risk

Gas is liable to puff out of the front door of any furnace unprovided for gas escape.

"Sunshine" Furnace has Automatic Gas Damper directly connected with smoke-pipe. Gas pressure sways damper sufficiently for it to escape up chimney (see illustration), but heat doesn't escape.

What does "Sunshine" Gas Damper mean to "Sunshine" Furnace? Means protection to the furnace parts against evil effects of gas.

What does "Sunshine" Gas Damper mean to "Sunshine" householder? Means furnace can be operated without fear as to "puffing" gas; furnace can be left without doubt as to whereabouts of gas.

What does "Sunshine" Gas Damper mean to "Sunshine" coal account? It means, instead of owner with "ordinary furnace" fear having to keep check-draft indefinitely closed to "let off" gas—when there's two-thirds parts of heat-energy to one part of gas passing up chimney—draft can with all safety be opened, and coal saved for another day's duty.
