NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

Kirkland.

Very showery weather today, and warm also.

Miss Higgins, from Lawrence, is visiting Myrtle Carter.

David Gidney and Evelyn Nicholson, of this place, were united in marriage July 22nd by Rev. A. W. Teed. They were serenaded in the evening and also had a great dance to celebrate the event.

Matilda Graham is in Woodstock for a few days.

Clara May, the second daughter of George McIntyre, died July 18th, aged 17 years. She was only ill about one hour and suffered much. She is survived by her parents, three sisters, Ida, Laura and Maggie; two brothers Howard and Theodore. All her grandparents are still living. She has numerous other relatives to mourn their loss. She was a fine looking, well built girl, very pleasant and would do what she could to help her little friends. She loved to go to meeting. We miss her very much in our midst. J. S.

McMillan attended the funeral services. About 24 teams followed in procession. The white casket was covered with wreaths of flowers. The church was almost filled with people. Laura Dickinson was organist.

Middle Simonds.

The farmers here are all busy haying and are encouraged by the fine hay weather after having a dark, wet hay season last summer.

Miss Bella Hatfield of Limestone, Me., has been visiting the Misses Gertrude and Lucy Raymond.

The Rev. Murphy Mallory has charge of the Primitive Baptist church here for another year. Mr. Mallory will also continue to be pastor of the Pembroke, Wakefield, and Lansdowne churches.

Mr. and Mrs. Bird Shaw have taken their departure for Boston, Mass., where they will reside. The young couple have the best wishes of their friends here.

Mrs. Murray Cliff, who went to the Frederickton Hospital a short time ago to undergo a surgical operation, is rapidly improving in health.

Mrs. Margaret Mills, wife of the late William Mills, died quite suddenly on Sunday, July 19th. She was one of the oldest inhabitants of this place. Mrs. Mills was suddenly taken ill while attending prayer-meeting Sunday morning. She was taken to her home and expired a few hours after. Mrs. Mills took an active part in the prayer service and, after giving an earnest testimony in church, she uttered but a few words. Mrs. Mills leaves a daughter, Mrs. Sanford Ingraham of this place, to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother. Mrs. Mills was one who possessed a quite and retiring temperament. She was a faithful Christian and had been an adherent of the Advent Church for a number of years. She was kind to every one alike and has many friends to mourn her death. G. W. Hatfield of this place and Albert Hatfield of Limestone, Me., are half-brothers of deceased lady. The funeral service was conducted at her home by the Rev. Hastings Kearney, assisted by the Rev. Hiram Raymond and the Rev. Murphy Mallory. The remains of Mrs. Mills were laid to rest in the Foster burying-ground besides those of her husband, who died nearly two years ago.

Miss Ota Bell of East Florenceville has been visiting the Misses Pearl Raymond and Tilley Shaw.

The young people had a surprise party at the home of Wesley Atwaters Thursday evening to celebrate the birthday of his son, John. A number of the young people of Connell attended and helped to make the time pass merrily by leading the amusements. Games and music were indulged in until a late hour and after refreshments were served, the party broke up.

If the young people of this place would rouse themselves and come to life, after living in a dead, dreamy state for a long, long time, there would be no lack of amusement at their parties.

Mr. and Mrs. Heber Hatfield of Hartland have been staying at Heber's home here for the last two weeks.

Mrs. Lavinia Harmon is quite ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Norval Guerier.

Miss Ruby Raymond has returned home after visiting her cousins at Bridgewater, Me.

Mrs. Wm. Hatfield and Miss Kelly of Limestone, Me., are visiting at G. W. Hatfield's.

Mrs. Peppers and family of Centerville were here to attend the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Mills.

News has reached here of the illness of Mrs. Wm. Raymond of Holtville, Calif., who is afflicted with lung trouble. Mrs. Raymond is a former resident of this place, and went to California a few months ago for a sojourn of two years. The friends of Mrs. Raymond entertain hopes of her recovery.

The Rev. Mr. Wetmore will take charge of the United Baptist church here, as well as the other churches on the Florenceville circuit, in September. The Rev. Mr. Daggett having resigned to follow some out-door pursuit on account of ill health.

Miss Grace Porter has returned from a fortnight's visit at Grand Falls. Miss Mabel Estey, Woodstock, is spending a few days with her.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kupkey returned on Saturday from a pleasant trip to Quebec.

Mrs. Armstrong and Misses Ethel and Mildred Armstrong came over from Fort Fairfield and spent Sunday at their home here.

Several young people enjoyed a driving party and picnic to Grand Falls on Saturday. Miss Marion Lawson left on Thursday to spend several weeks with relatives at Frederickton and Chatham.

Miss Margaret Curry has returned from a pleasant visit at St. John and The Barony. Miss Hatie Hagerman, of The Barony, accompanied her and will visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mr. George Lawson who has been at St. Perpetria, Que., for some months is home again.

Miss Gertrude Henderson, Woodstock, and Mr. H. C. Henderson, Milwaukee, are spending a short time here.

Plover de Chute.

Gordon Graham, of Walter Atherton's establishment, Perth, is spending a couple of weeks at home.

Miss Rose Renwick of Lowell, is spending her vacation at Mr. Charles Bull's. Mr. Bull's little grandson, Master Winston Rouse came with Miss Renwick. Mrs. Rouse is expected later.

D. B. Baird, and Henry Miller returned Saturday from Quebec. Miss Lena Scott, of Baldrville had charge of Mr. Baird's store during his absence.

Mrs. Walter Tweedie has been visiting her mother, Mrs. R. Currie, at Bath.

Miss Jeane Semple of Florenceville East, is visiting her sister Mrs. Baird.

C. Herbert Phillips is having his beautiful residence at Clear View repaired and painted.

Miss Maude Stanlake, of Bath will teach the River de Chute school the coming term.

Mrs. S. Bishop, Miss Beatrice, and Archie Bishop spent Sunday with Mrs. Bishop's parents at Bristol.

Archie Bishop will attend the Florenceville Consolidated next term.

Mrs. William Browning has been very ill. Dr. Peat of Andover has been attending her for some weeks. We are glad to know that she is slowly convalescing.

Mrs. Browning's sister, Mrs. Stephenson of Woodstock, is visiting her.

Edward Cox, while working in the River de Chute mill, had one of his hands badly cut and mangled by a saw. One finger had to be amputated, and the hand is healing nicely now.

Bath.

Large quantities of hay was housed last week in excellent condition.

Rev. L. A. Fenwick, B. A., who for the last eight years has occupied the position of pastor of the United Baptist church here, preached his farewell sermon last evening, he resigned a few weeks ago. The community regret his departure very much.

Miss Clare Jones has been engaged by the trustees of the Kilburn school for next term.

Fred C. Squires, B. A., who recently resigned the principalship of the Florenceville Consolidated School, is spending his vacation here with his parents.

Mr. McIntyre, of St. John, who is representing the Maritime Baptist publication, spent a couple of days here last week in the interest of that paper.

Listerville.

Mrs. Colwell of Boston is spending the summer with her brother Judson Straight.

Mrs. W. H. Dickson of Salt Lake City is spending a few weeks with her sisters, Mrs. A. W. Lister and T. H. Barker.

The farmers here are very busy now haying. We hope the fine weather will continue.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Barker of Bath made a short visit this week with their sons here.

Much credit is due to the people who have had the schoolhouse renovated in preparation for the coming school term, which it is expected will begin in August.

Mr. Amos Giberson of Bath, was a caller in Listerville on Friday last.

The road has been improved by the recent work, done with the road machine.

Mrs. William Henderson.

A SERIOUS ILLNESS RELIEVED BY PE-RU-NA.

MRS. WILLIAM HENDERSON, Craik, N. W. T., Can., writes:

"I was troubled with very serious internal weakness, which exhausted me so that I feared I would lose my mind."

"I suffered agony with my back, the pain extending down my left leg. The pain was so severe that I would have welcomed death as a relief."

"Peruna cured me of this trouble, no wonder I recommend it so highly."

"It will soon be two years since I found relief from the pain and not a sign of it has returned."

"I am glad that there is a way in which I can speak of this, as many a sufferer may read my testimonial, and not only read, but believe."

Had Given Up All Hope.

Ms. Albin Chauvin, No. 5 Rue Agnes, St. Henri, Montreal, Canada, writes:

"I consider Peruna better than any other remedy, as it cured me when nothing else could."

"I suffered for years and years with heart trouble, headaches and weakness. I never expected to find anything to cure me."

"I tried Peruna and am entirely cured."
