WOODSTOCK, N. B. DEC. 16, 1908.

At the recent district meeting of the Methodist church held in Woodstock the question came up of making a change in the Hartland and other circuits. Although nothing definite has been decided, it is quite likely that in the near future there will be a new circuit entirely, embracing Knowlesville, Argyle, Lansdowne and Beaufort, with a resident pastor. If this comes into effect Hartland will be added to the Jacksonville circuit.

There will be Church of England service in Hagerman & Baird's hall on Sunday morning at 10.30. Rev. H. G. Alder, the rector will preach, and Holy Communion will be celebrated.

The Victoria Co., News says: "Sam Fong of Hartland was in the village for a couple of days this week, arranging for a shop for his cousin, John Fong, who intends again starting a laundry here. John has just returned from a trip to China where he took to himself a wife, but could not prevail upon her to come to Canada."

The C. P. R. have made some slight changes in the Track Management on this division by which Perth is made the headquarters for Track-masters Aiton and Richardson with one clerk for both. Mr. Aiton will not, however, move his family here.—Victoria Co. News.

On Wednesday, December 9th, the marriage of Frank Richard Kelley and Miss Emma Mae Trueworthy of Island Falls took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Trueworthy. The happy young couple went on a trip through the Aroostook towns and on Saturday evening arrived here to spend a few days with the groom's sister, Mrs. Charles B. Caldwell. Mr. Kelley is the youngest son of the late John Kelly of Simonds and his many friends in this vicinity wish him and bride many years of happiness.

In Aroostook county oats are 60 cents a bushel and hay $10. per ton. Twelve years ago, says the Fort Fairfield paper, oats were bought for 18 cents a bushel and hay for $3.50 a ton. Within the week potatoes have been bringing $1.65 to $1.70 per barrel in Aroostook.

Frank E. Carvell, M. P. was here on Thursday.

W. J. Nagle, of St. John, was doing business for Brock & Paterson here last week. He was a guest at the Commercial.

Rev. F. T. Bertram drove to Centreville on Thursday, returning Friday.

Jacob B. Smith, formerly of Bath, a brother to B. S. Smith of Fort Fairfield, Harry Smith of Bath, and Hewlet Smith, whose family reside in Hartland, was seriously injured last week by an explosion of dynamite at his farm at Waterville, Me., and was taken to the Maine General Hospital at Portland a few hours later. Mr. Smith was engaged in taking out the stump of an apple tree; had put in a stick of dynamite and fired the fuse. The thing did not go off as it should and Mr. Smith went to the stump to investigate. The explosion then took place and he received the charge of roots, earth, rocks and powder in his face. He was very seriously hurt but has a fair chance for recovery. At first it was feared he would lose his sight and that his face would be badly disfigured. But, fortunately, such is not to be.

Dudley Day, proprietor of the Exchange hotel at East Florenceville, was in the village the other day.

Lyon Bros. have removed from the Thornton building into the Taylor building formerly occupied by Keith & Plummer.

Sam Fong was in Perth a couple of days last week.

Mrs. Susie Sheppard, of Centreville, is visiting friends in town.

James Frazer, Toronto, was at the Exchange on Thursday.

Miss Bernice Rideout of Somerville, returned from a three months' stay at Caribou last week.

Miss Bessie Shaw of Middle Simonds and Glen Caldwell spent a few days in Island Falls, Me., last week.

Saunders W. DeWitt was in Houlton on business one day last week.

On Tuesday evening H. R. Nixon entertained his Sunday School class of young men and women at his residence. A very enjoyable evening was spent. Mr. Nixon makes a practice of thus entertaining his class once a year and the annual event is always very pleasant.

W. T. McArthur, of St. John was here on Friday.

Miss Jennie Darkis spent the week-end at her home at Florenceville.

R. L. Phillips, Fredericton, visited Hartland Friday and Saturday.

On Sunday morning and evening Rev. E. C. Turner of Jacksonville preached from the pulpit of the Methodist church, while Mr. Bertram, the pastor, took Mr. Turner's appointments at Jacksonville.

Harry Gillin was in Bath one day last week.

D. H. Nixon, who had been home from the woods for a short time returned to Sigas a few days.

Mrs. Frank DeWitt was the guest of Mrs. Emily DeWitt last week.

Last week Miss Rita Murdock entertained a number of her young friends in celebration of her birthday. A pleasant evening was spent from seven to ten.

On Friday and Saturday a crew of men were at work taking up the rails on the discarded section of the C. P. R. between Hartland and Deep Creek. No more will we see the tardy express poking her nose around the sharp curve; nor will the freights make vain attempts to reach the summit of the grade. The last train has crept up the hill.

Mrs. Alfred Thornton and her daughter, Miss Tedford, left a few days ago for a visit at their home in Nova Scotia.

Mr. Berry, of the Eureka Acetylene Gas Machine Co., Sussex, was here the other day. Keith & Plummer, who now are settled in their new premises have unquestionably the finest general store on the St. John river. Their goods are displayed to splendid advantage and there is plenty of light. Particularly at this season, Christmas time, the store looks beautiful.

On Friday the death of Frank Donnelly occurred at his home at Lansdowne after a long illness from lung trouble. Deceased was about 70 years of age. The funeral was held on Sunday and burial took place at East Florenceville.

George Cook, son of S. Cook, died Sunday after two years' illness. He was 19 years of age and died of cerebro-spinal meningitis. Two years ago he had a run of measles and other diseases followed. The funeral was held on Tuesday of this week.

Miss Maud Raymond of Woodstock was visiting Mrs. H. N. Boyer last week.

Mrs. A. B. Harmon of Fort Fairfield has been visiting her sister, Mrs. O. A. Miller.

After spending Sunday at his home at Middle Simonds, Chief of G. T. P. Police Foster returned to Chipman and Stanley where he has been for a week or ten days on business connected with the unruly Italians.

Mrs. Percy Graham spent a part of last week in Woodstock.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Hatfield & Scott, who are open to buy any quantity of any kind of farm produce. The attention of trappers is called to the ad of W. R. Gillin which calls for rabbits.

Mr. Enoch Estabrooks and Mrs. Colin C. Carter of Coldstream are ill of pneumonia.

The DISPATCH and the Family Herald and Weekly Star can be had both one year for $1.50. Old subscribers can take advantage of this by paying all arrears and a year ahead.

Walter Sprague and Brad. Buchanan spent Sunday in Woodstock.

Arthur Kyle spent Sunday at Greenfield.

William Balmis of Woodstock was a Hartland visitor on Monday.

Frank T. Bixby of St. John, was here on Saturday.

E. M. Gilland, hardware and machinery merchant of East Florenceville, spent Sunday in Hartland.

Miss Jennie Padgett of Lower Windsor was in the village on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boyd and son Harry, of Woodstock were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Baird on Sunday.

Frank Gardiner and Miss Ella Foster drove to Florenceville on Sunday.

Mrs. W. D. Keith is suffering from a severe attack of dyspepsia.

On Thursday evening the members of the Reformed Baptist church made a donation party for Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Saunders. On account of the bad condition of the roads there was not a full attendance of the members, but notwithstanding a very pleasant evening was spent and the pastor was left richer by about $20 worth of goods and cash. Those who were not able to get out on that evening, especially those from a distance, intend making their donation later.

Albert Orser returned from the woods a few days ago, quite ill with an attack of la-grippe.
