The U. N. B. Graduates.

We clip from the Fredericton Gleaner the following sketch of P. R. Hayward and G. Fred Baird, who graduated last week from the U. N. B.:

Percy R. Hayward, the valedictorian of the graduating class, was born at Ashland, Carleton County, twenty-three years ago, being a son of Mr. and Mrs. Oran P. Hayward, of that place. He was educated at the public schools of the village and later took a course at the Provincial Normal School in this city. From there he entered the University as a Senior matriculant and a member of the class of 1908 in his Sophomore year. During the three years that he has been a student at the University Mr. Hayward has been a popular college man and has enjoyed a successful course of study, taking honor work until compelled to give it up owing to his studies as pastor of the United Baptist Church at Marysville, a position which he has held satisfactorily in addition to carrying on his work at the University. He was president of the Y. M. C. A. but resigned in his senior year; president of the Debating Society and senior editor of the University Monthly as well. For two years he was a member of the University Debating team, but was unable to take part in the debates this year, owing to the pressure of duties. Another position which he held successfully was that of leader of the "Liberal" party and premier in the University Mock Parliament. He will continue his work in the ministry, and should be highly successful.

G. Fred Baird is a son of Senator Baird of Andover, and one of the best known and generally liked men in college. He entered the University as a senior matriculant, having taken his freshman year at McGill University, Montreal. In his studies he has been successful, having been one of those students who could give up much time to athletics and yet attend to his duties properly.

During his college course he has been captain of the University hockey and basketball teams, also occupying the position of president of the University Glee Club. He will return next year and pursue his studies in engineering.

The Farewell Meeting.

The Farewell Meeting at the Army last Sunday night was a very impressive one. The building was packed to its utmost capacity, many having to stand in the aisles. Song service was conducted from half past seven until 8 p. m. when the Adjutant stepped to the front and gave out the opening song, "Shall we Gather at the River." Prayers and Solo by Capt. Porter, next followed the second hymn "Ere the Sun Goes Down," both hymns with band accompaniment. Vocal solos, Duets, Quartettes, Collection, Speeches by Ex Capt. Georgie Moore on behalf of the sisters, Miss Calder on behalf of the friends, Wm. Montgomery on behalf of the Sabbath School, Serg. Major Sutton on behalf of the Corps. Next followed a farewell address read by Band Secretary Nielsen. Solo by Capt. Porter by request "The Homeland" was as usual beautifully rendered.

Captain Porter and Adjutant Martin bid farewell to the good people of Woodstock thanking them abundantly for all their kindness shown towards them, never in their history as Salvation Army officers had they found a kinder hearted people and they would miss them very much. Envoy Gerow of Halifax closed the meeting with a powerful plea to the sinner, urging them to seek refuge in the Christ of Calvary while mercy's doors were yet open. The band then played "God be with you till we meet again" and the meeting came soon afterwards to a close.—Com.

Death of Felix Hebert.

Felix Hebert, one of the best known hotel men in New Brunswick, died at his home in Edmunston last week. A correspondent of the St. John Globe, referring to the death of Mr. Hebert, says:—

"Mr. Hebert was one of the best known hotel men in the country, his wit and genial good nature making his house a popular stopping place for travelling men. The late Laurent Hebert, his father, who died only two years ago, was a son of the first white man born north of Grand Falls in this province. He will be greatly missed not only here but by many warm friends all over the country."

He leaves a wife and six children, the latter being Mrs. Pius Michaud, wife of the M. P. for Victoria-Madawaska; Mrs. G. Fred Dayton, Annie at home, Mrs. F. W. Hecker in St. John, George, employed in the Royal Bank at Edmunston, and Fred at home.

THE DISPATCH is indebted to Mrs. L. L. Mooers for late Vancouver papers, also samples of this season's fruit.

Death of Mrs. A. H. Prescott.

Ella, wife of Dr. A. H. Prescott, passed to her eternal rest on Thursday afternoon last, after a painful illness of three months, which she bore with patience and fortitude. Although of a quiet disposition, Mrs. Prescott, since coming to Woodstock to live, several years ago, made many friends who will mourn her death.

Mrs. Prescott was the only daughter of Albert Simonson, formerly of Jacksonville, but now of Centreville, and sister of the Rev. Ernest W. Simonson, of Arizona. Beside her husband she is survived by two young daughters, Pauline and Louise.

The funeral took place from her late residence on Chapel street, Saturday afternoon. A short service was held in St. Luke's church by the Rev. H. Goring Alder, and the remains were taken to Jacksonville for interment.

The sympathy of the community will go out to Dr. Prescott in his great loss.

"The Flower Queen"

A large and fashionable audience assembled in the new Hayden-Gibson Theatre, on Monday evening, for the opening of this modern place of amusement. It is a good many years since a cantata of any description has been sung to a Woodstock audience, and all who attended the production of "The Flower Queen," were simply captivated by the pretty faces, the different colored costumes, the harmonious music and the many colored lights thrown on the stage at intervals.

"The Flower Queen" is a musical cantata or a form of light opera and is illustrated in the following descriptions:—

"The Flowers meet in a secluded dell in the forest, to choose their Queen. A person discontented with the world, seeks in the same place, retirement from its cares and disappointments. The Flowers tell of Love and Duty; and the Recluse learning that, to fill well the station allotted by Providence, is to be happy, resolves to return again to usefulness and contentment among his fellow creatures."

Those who took the leading parts in the cantata are as follows:

Rose.—Mrs. Geo. W. Gibson.
Recluse.—Mrs. R. E. Holyoke.
Sunflower.—Mrs. Horace Lockwood.
Violet.—Miss Sarah Nicholson.
Crocus.—Miss Jessie Davis.
Dahlia.—Mrs. Watters.
Mignonette.—Miss Alice Denison.
Japonica.—Miss Helen Watson.
Dandelion.—Miss Gertrude Brewer.
Tulip.—Miss Helen Woolverton.
Hollyhock.—Mrs. H. N. Payson.
Touch-Me-Not.—Miss Nellie Montgomery.
Lily.—Mary Street.

One of the prettiest numbers in the Cantata was the drill and chorus of the Heather Bells, for which they received great applause. The solo and duet singing was above the average, and it would be hardly fair to single out any one for especial praise.

It is pretty hard to one not interested to realized the amount of hard work there is in connection with the production of a cantata of this kind, and very much credit is due to Mrs. Geo. W. Gibson and the ladies who so ably assisted her in the practices and in preparations of the costumes.

Mrs. Geo. Mitchell was the pianist for the occasion and gave general satisfaction, as did Harace Lockwood the musical director. Mrs. Tilly Brewer and Mrs. A. D. Holyoke had charge of the stage settings and arranging of the costumes.

The Yellow Curse.

"The Yellow Curse", is well appreciated and understood by the people of the far western country of the United States, particularly by the citizens of California, who have had experience with the Highbinders and kindred organizations with them associated "Queen of the White Slaves", a new and pretentious melodrama by Arthur J. Lamb, which comes to the New Theatre on June 10th, is based on an actual incident that the police annals show in connection with their dealings with "The Highbinders". The play is in six acts and nineteen scenes, and is said by competent authorities to be the most elaborate melodramatic production ever made.

The Hay Crop.

Throughout the county the prospect is the best ever known for an abundant hay crop. It is said similar conditions prevail all over the province. There are a number of farmers who did not sell their last year's hay even when offered $12. per ton for it. Until recently they declared their intention of holding it over until next year as the prospect was for a total failure of the crop this season. The weather of the past few weeks changed conditions so that those who are holding hay are now glad to get what price they can for it.

The Markets.

There is little to report in the line of country produce. The demand seems to exceed the supply and consequently prices are high. As much as 65 cents per bushel has been paid for seed oats. Prices on Monday were:

Hay, pressed	$7.00 to $8.50
Potatoes	1.50 to 1.60
Oats50 to .60
Eggs15 to .18
Butter22 to .24

A Clubbing Offer.
