

HARTLAND and VICINITY.

Hartland office in charge of Fred. H. Stevens, at Commercial Hotel Bld'g, where orders for Advertising, Printing and Items for publication may be left.

WOODSTOCK, N. B. JULY 15, 1908.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Allingham of Port of Spain, Trinidad, were registered at the Exchange on Saturday, having driven up from Woodstock.

John E. Sayre, of F. E. Sayre & Co., was here last week in the interest of the companies milling interest here.

Last week Prof. and Mrs. W. F. Watson, accompanied by their daughters, Misses Ethel and Lucia, arrived from Greenville, S. C., to spend the remainder of the summer with the Professor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Watson.

Miss Susie Ray is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. James Montgomery.

On Saturday afternoon, W. Barton Morgan returned from Sussex, where, after attending camp, he remained for a week. He was accompanied by his niece, Miss Caroline Morgan, who had been visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. Sterling King, at Brownsville, King's county.

Mrs. T. A. Lindsay and son Donald, and Miss Florence Edwards of St. John, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Alexander, on Friday and Saturday.

On Monday Prof. W. F. Watson went to Sackville to answer a call to deliver a lecture before the students of the Summer School of Science now in session there. He was accompanied by Mrs. Watson and they will afterward go to Richibucto and visit Mrs. J. L. R. Hetherington.

There will be Church of England service in Hagerman & Baird's hall next Sunday morning at 10.30 o'clock. The minister will be Rev. H. Goring Alder.

Keith & Plummer will purchase any quantity of good washed wool and pay the highest market price for the same delivered at their warehouse.

Last Thursday Mrs. W. D. Keith went to Lancaster Heights, St. John, to remain for two weeks.

Calvin Jones and daughter, Miss Hazel Jones, of Caverhill, have been guests of Mr. Jones' brother-in-law, D. E. Morgan.

There is to be a new industry in Hartland, or rather an old industry greatly enlarged. The Excelsior Poultry Company of East Florenceville, of which Rev. J. B. Daggett has been manager, has been amalgamated with the Hartland Poultry Yards, owned by Dr. MacIntosh and Charles W. Hurst. The new company will do business under the latter firm name, and the proprietors intend to apply for incorporation some time in the near future. They have bought the farm of Handy F. Nevers, about a mile north of the village and it is their intention of going into the business on a large scale. Fruits of all kinds that thrive in this part of the country will be raised and form a principal part of the business; and, besides, they will handle all kinds of poultry supplies.

Miss Agnes Shaw, of Boston, came the other day to spend the summer vacation with her parents, B. N. and Mrs. Shaw, Lower Windsor.

Rev. J. B. Daggett, who for two years has had charge of the United Baptist churches at Florenceville has decided to retire from active ministry for a year or two on account of ill-health. Within a short time he will move his family to Hartland, where he will be manager of the new "Hartland Poultry Yards" mentioned above. Mr. Daggett hopes that the open-air work will restore his health again.

Mrs. Margaret Kent, of Bath, was visiting her niece, Mrs. Allen Shaw, at Middle Simonds, last week.

Miss Helen Alexander will leave today for a visit with her uncle, Dr. C. C. Alexander, at St. George, N. B.

Miss Edna Bennison, who has been in Lowell, Mass., for several years, is spending four weeks vacation with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. S. W. Bennison.

Fred H. Stevens was in Houlton, Me., Thursday and Friday.

Henry Seely, of Waterville, wants the public to know that he is still in business, and is prepared to attend to all orders for the enlargement of pictures or framing. In the latter art he is past master and has a new and beautiful line of mouldings.

H. L. Dickinson, of Windsor, called on the DISPATCH on Saturday and says that the picnic to have been held on Wednesday was postponed until the following day, on account of rain, but nevertheless it was a success from every point of view.

One evening last week the Misses Curtis entertained at tea the following party of young ladies: Misses Susan Peacock, Sadie Currie, Sadie Barnett, Pearl Gibbons, Nellie McAdam, Lulu Van Wart, Mattie McCollum, Louise Reid, Helen Alexander, Myrtle McFarland and Aleida Black (of St. John).

Mrs. T. S. Vanwart has been visiting friends at Waterville.

Through illness Miss Inez has been compelled to give up her position with Keith & Plummer.

Mrs. Bessie Branscombe, who has been in Boston for some time, has come to Somerville to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. Allen Day.

The excursion to Grand Falls was very largely patronized by Hartland people. On Thursday there were hardly enough people around the town to cook dinner for.

Mr. Vickery, who years ago was very well known as a travelling salesman of furs and garments, was in the village on Saturday evening after a lapse of ten years. During the interval he has been south and in Nova Scotia; and he has acquired a wife meantime.

Notwithstanding the fact that contemporaries of the DISPATCH permit their Hartland correspondents to smuggle in to their locals matter that should go in only as advertising, this paper adheres to its principle by the way, an agreement signed by all the local publishers—that nothing of the nature of advertising is printed in its columns that is not charged for at the regular rates for such "readers." The only exception is where the matter pertains to church services, or entertainments where no admission-fee is charged. We have spoken of this in these columns before, but some apparently forget that this office is for business—not for nonsense, free advertising, or for airing peoples' grievances, unless they be matters affecting the public weal. Some seem to be of the opinion that where the business of certain parties are being constantly boomed in the Hartland columns that it is for personal favour, or to injure others in the same line of business. But it is not so. We charge a regular fee for business locals; and we collect it.

Mr. and Mrs. Herber Britton of Windsor, accompanied by their little daughter, Miss Flora, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George O. Britton on Monday.

Every one a bargain! That's the truth about the four single road waggons advertised by Keith & Plummer. If you want a wagon good as new call and talk with Keith & Plummer.

Miss Aleida Black, who has been the guest of the Misses Curtis, returns to St. John this week.

Today the wedding of Mr. Roderic Lindsay of Victoria, B. C., and Miss Damie Kennedy, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Asa D. Kennedy, of Hartland, will take place at the residence of the bride's parents. A large number of guests are invited and the newly married pair will go to the Pacific Coast to reside.

Miss Leah Steeves of Somerville has gone to Bangor to remain an indefinite period.

The scandalous attempt to boycott the Exchange Hotel has not resulted as the perpetrators openly wished. The Exchange hotel has a large number of regular boarders representing as good a class of people as are in town; it has a country patronage such as it always has had; while its share of what is called "the commercial trade" is growing—and in spite of the fact that through the vindictive action of one or two individuals a certain number, less than a dozen, of its former patrons have been obliged to leave. The hotel still flourishes.

Mrs. Hayward, widow of Rev. A. H. Hayward, and Miss Estabrooks, of East Florenceville, are guests of friends in Rockland.

John McMullin, factory and mill inspector for the province, spent Sunday at the Exchange. Mr. McMullin is making a trip along the river in an official capacity. He informs the DISPATCH that he finds many improvements the result of his last visit; while many were ignorant regarding the law framed for the purpose of protecting working men and preventing explosions, etc. "All mill-owners," says the inspector, "seem quite willing to comply with the law, a copy of which I have left with each, and I expect to see the good effect within the next year."

Miss Lella White of Lowell is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. White.

On Monday Lynden F. Shaw and family who have been in the west for a number of years arrived here to spend a few weeks. For the past few years Mr. Shaw has been in Holtville, California, and has made a good thing in purchasing and improving land in the newly irrigated section.

Rev. George Ayres, pastor of the Methodist church in Centerville, was a visitor in Hartland on Monday.

Miss Edna Hagerman returned on Monday from a visit with friends at Mar's Hill, Me. Horace R. Nixon, the popular Main St. merchant, has associated himself with his cousin, Frank Nixon, and the two will carry on a general business under the firm name of Nixon & Nixon.

John Alexander of the C. P. R. surveying staff called on his cousin, C. E. Alexander, between trains on Monday.

On Sunday evening Rev. F. Bertram preached his introductory sermon to the Methodist congregation. This is the first field of labor Mr. Bertram has been called to, and while beginning his work with some apparent diffidence, the first impression created is a good one. The attendance was somewhat larger than usual, and there was a full choir. A duet by Miss Matheson and D. W. Matheson was beautifully rendered.

Robert Potts is building a cement foundation for a house on the next lot east of D. H. Keewick's house. Next summer he will build on it. This season Mr. Potts will repair the house on the old site and next summer will build a large addition. Mr. and Mrs. Scott will occupy the house this winter.

Recent Commercial Hotel arrivals were: F. W. Duckett, Allen J. Wheeler, Montreal; J. C. Earle, E. H. Wright and wife, St. John; George S. Oxley, St. John.

Charles H. Gayton of Knowlesville was a visitor to the village on Friday.

Robert L. Simms, of South Keewlesville, was in town last week.

The Reformed Baptist congregation have not as yet secured a pastor.

T. G. Simme has added to his business a bakery. Hot rolls and biscuit, fresh bread, and all kinds of cake can be had with less expense and labour than is required to cook the same in one's home. This fills a long felt want and is already meeting with an encouraging trade.

Medley Brudage of Millstream who a year or two ago was here in attendance at the Superior School, has been in the vicinity for several weeks.

On Monday evening Hartland L. O. L., No. 21 conferred the Royal Arch degree upon Page Boyer and Frank Gardiner. After the session the Orangemen partook of refreshments at Miss McMullin's ice cream parlors. On Tuesday evening six members were given the Scarlet Degree. S. W. Smith, Master Scarlet Chapter; B. R. Clark, secretary.

Henry Tompkins, of Rock Island, Que., has been at the Exchange for a few days.

It is reported that E. T. Shaw, who recently returned from North Cambridge, Mass., has bought the old Dickinson tannery and intends to turn it into a blacksmith shop. Mr. Shaw was in the same business here before he went to the States and is likely to meet with a good trade, especially as he has learned many new tricks in horse-shoeing.

Midsummer Sale!

We are going to clear out the balance of our Summer Goods, and we are offering EXCEPTIONAL BARGAINS in Clothing and Furnishings for Men and Boys.
