Mrs Sarah Flemming

The death occurred Saturday evening at her home, Speerville, of Mrs Sarah Flemming widow of the late Thomas Flemming, of that place, and mother of the Hon J. K. Flemming, provincial secretary.

The deceased was a very old lady, being 86 years of age, and when she was stricken some days ago with pneumonia failed rapidly until death came. The provincial secretary, who had been hastily summoned from St. John, was able to reach the bedside in time for the end. The deceased was born at Lower Woodstock where she resided until her marriage, when with her husband she settled at what is now known as Speerville.

The departed leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother, five sons, viz. William, George, John, Thompson and James K., all of this county, and two daughters, Mrs. Hemphil and Mrs. McLaughlin, also of this county. The deceased's death is deeply regretted by hosts of friends, who extend their sympathies to the bereaved family.

A Scottish laird overheard some Lowland cattle-dealers discussing the use of "England instead of "Britain" in Nelson's famous signal, "England expects that every man will do his duty." According to one patriot Scot, there is no question of the Admiral's forgetfulness, and when a companion expressed surprise at the "injustice" the patriot reassured him. "Nelson," he explained, "only 'expects' of the English; he said naething of Scotland, for he kent the Scotch would do theirs."—London Globe.
