A Warning That Should be Heeded.

At a meeting of the town council on Monday evening last, the Beer License act was the principal theme discussed, and enough was said by the Mayor and councillors to make the beer sellers sit up and think. The town solicitor was of the opinion that the beer licenses could not be cancelled until their term had expired. Coun Dugan was of the opinion that the beer law was all right if properly enforced, and a good deal will depend upon the future conduct of those holding licenses as to whether these licenses will be renewed.

The beer sellers are in bad odour with the councillors and the citizens generally and they have nobody to blame but themselves. They have not tried to run their places half decently. Crowds of lazy loafers can be seen at any hour of the day or night lounging around these places, and it has become a bye word that it is not safe for a lady to go down Queen street even in day time.

Whether this condition of affairs was due to the indifference of Scott Act Inspector Ludeay, we are not prepared to say, but at all events the town council thought he was not attending to his duties and summarily dismissed him from office.

At the council meeting on Friday evening, the W. C. T. U. sent in a petition asking the council to appoint James W. Woolverton, Scott Act Inspector and Beer Inspector. The communication was laid on the table.

John Troy:—"As a citizen of the town, this matter should be attended to now."

Coun. Fisher seconded by Coun. McManus, moved that Banford Colpitts be appointed Scott Act and Beer Inspector for the town of Woodstock, at the same salary as the previous inspector. Carried.

Mr. Troy thanked the council and gracefully retired.

On motion of Coun. McManus seconded by Coun Dugan, the grant of $500.00 to the Carleton County Hospital was ordered paid. Coun. Ketchum seconded by Coun McManus, moved that the School Board be paid the sum of $6000.00. Carried.

Henderson & Hunt, who paid a license of $100.00 when they opened business in Woodstock, with the understanding that they would get a rebate when they were put upon the assessment list, asked for a refund. Referred to the finance committee.

Coun. Ketchum seconded by Coun. Fisher, moved that Geo. E. Balmain be reappointed a member of the School Board. Carried.

Flanagan--Perkins.

On Wednesday, August 4th, 1909, at the home of the bride, Sixteenth Avenue, West Vancouver, B. C., the marriage took place of Mrs. Harriet Flanagan and Elisha Hurson Perkins, of Centreville, Carleton County.

The Rev. P. Clifton Parker, M. A., of the Central Baptist Church, performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of friends of the bride and bridegroom, including many former residents of New Brunswick. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins will reside in Vancouver.

Settled Out of Court.

The case of W. B. Everett vs. Rev. F. A. Currier, charged with fraud and misrepresentation, has been settled out of court, and the defendant discharged. The gentlemen who purchased western lands from Mr. Currier have been paid back their first and only instalment of money, and received satisfactory assurance that all contracts binding them to further payments will be cancelled.

The Rev. Mr. Currier left town on Saturday evening. He intimated to THE DISPATCH before leaving that he would shortly publish a letter stating fully his position in the above case.

The Victoria County Carnival.

The Victoria County Carnival, inaugurated last year by Mr. M. H. Craig, has come to stay. It is backed up this year by 50 enthusiastic business men of Perth and Andover, giving it such a thrilling impetus, that great crowds will be in attendance daily. The grounds are to be illuminated with electric arc lights in the evening. Such enterprise on the part of our business men of these Twin towns is highly commendable. Such events as the Victoria County Carnival will be the best advertising that can be given the County, and we are sure that such a committee will bring unusual success.

THE Woman's Auxiliary Carleton Co. Hospital will on Saturday, Sept. 25th have a Tag day for the benefit of the Hospital. There may be some who do not exactly know just what this means. Early on Saturday morning an organized band of young ladies with red badges on their arms will start out to supply the town with tags, in return for its contributions. These contributions rest entirely with yourselves, just as much or just as little as you wish to give, and when your nickels or dimes or quarters, (and we hope there will be lots of bills and several large-sized checks) jingle into the box, you get a red tag to wear. The young ladies will be instructed not to ask anybody who is already tagged. In order that there will be no bogus representation, each girl will wear an arm badge. Everywhere, let the counter-sign be, "Where's your tag?" and if you don't have one, be persuaded that you ought to wear one to be in style. Buy one for your horse, your auto, your dog. Let everyone get the fever, and when you are politely tapped on the arm by a young lady, meet her pleasantly and make the day not only one of duty, but one of pleasure also, and thus by a novel and pleasing method help a worthy cause.—Mrs W B Belyea, Sec'y.

Hugh Hay is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. L. P. Farris, at White's Cove, Queens Co.

Mrs. L. A. Hotherington, matron of the Provincial Hospital, is spending a few days at Hartland, where she is the guest on Hon. J. K. and Mrs. Flemming.

Wilmot Watson, of Woodlawn, is in Fred-erickton attending the exhibition.
