NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

Centreville.

Quite a number of changes are taking place in the village. White & Tweedie, in order to close out their business quickly, have assigned to E. R. Teed, of Woodstock. James White, senior partner, has been appointed Indian agent. Thomas White, his son, is advertising his millinery business, which was independent, for sale and intends going west. F. D. Tweedie, it is said, has made an offer for the stock and good will, which has been accepted and he is in Woodstock now completing arrangements for its transfer.

George Beckwith has sold his valuable farm on the Gregg road to Fred Stewart, of the Creek road, who has already taken possession. Mr. Beckwith has an option on a farm opposite Hartland, which he expects to close at once.

Mrs. J. Harold is moving into the Sherwood house recently vacated by E. S. Branscomb.

The home of Hubert London, of Upper Bloomfield, was gladdened by the advent of twins on Monday.

A very pleasant supper and entertainment was given on Tuesday evening by the Blue Ribbon Society of the Tracey Mills church at E. L. West's. A goodly sum was realized.

Mrs. Joseph Hawker is home from visiting St. John.

A very exciting game of baseball was played last evening here between the home team and a team from Long Settlement, for the first time this season victory perched on the Centreville boys banner.

Dr. Brown has written that it is not his intention to return to his beautiful home here again, and that the place is for sale.

Rev. J. D. Wetmore, of Florenceville, was visiting at C. E. Vail's. He reports a very successful church picnic there last week, at which about $422 was cleared.

Rev. R. W. Ferguson gave a very interesting report of the Association last Sunday morning instead of the usual sermon. The number in membership, the number of churches, the yearly increase, the number of Sunday schools and scholars, the amount of money raised for each were all reported in such a way as to impress the mind and furnish food for thought.

Rev. Mr. Johnston, of Tracey Mills has accepted a call from the churches at Jacksonville and Jacksonville and volunteers were plenty who were ready to assist with teams and men in moving the household effects of Mr. Johnston to his new home at Jacksonville Corner. Mr. Johnston takes with him the best wishes of his host of new made friends, who in their short acquaintance with him and his estimable wife learned to love and respect them.

The home of Amos White at Boundary Line was the scene of an interesting event last Wednesday, the occasion being the marriage of his daughter Glenna F. to Dr. Bur-R. Field of Centreville.

Rev. Mr. Johnston performed the Ceremony. Only the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties were present. The presents were numerous and costly and were tangible evidence of the high esteem in which the parties are held. The happy couple started at once by train on a wedding tour to the eastern part of New Brunswick the former home of the groom.

There are a number of persons from other localities visiting in the village.

Mrs. Fannie Lunn who was recently so very ill is much improved and her many friends are rejoiced at the prospect of her speedy recovery to her accustomed health.

The services in the Episcopal church last Sunday evening were very interesting and an unusually large number were present who paid the very best attention to the popular young teacher.

AN IDEAL A STANDARD.—To prepare us for complete living is the function which education has to discharge, and the only rational mode of judgment of any educational course is to judge in what degree it discharges such a function. Herbert Spencer.

AN OPINION.—"What impressed the writer (in the Educational Review) was the admirable system that prevails in the management and in every department of work; that kindly personality and tact, the influence of which is so grateful to young people; the genial sympathy in the relations between teacher and pupil, and the interest which each one seemed to feel in the work of the day. AN EDUCATION UNDER SUCH CONDITIONS IS INDEED A GREAT ASSET."

INFORMATION.—The new catalogue of ACADIA SEMINARY has just been issued. It contains full information concerning everything you need to know. There is just the Course for you that you need or desire. The Fall Term opens September 8, 1909.
