3 ENTRANCES,

Main, King and Wellington Streets.

OAK HALL, B. B. MANZER.

Mills to Miss Nichols will take place on Wednesday the 22nd. The wedding will take place at the home of Mr. Nichols at Upper Bloomfield to which upwards of one hundred guests have been invited. A wide circle of acquaintances are included in the invitations. Mr. Wendal P. Jones of Woodstock was in the village last Saturday.

Santa Claus has been writing in a great many of the papers expressing a fear that he might not be able to get to all the places intended on account of the roads being bare of snow. Now the roads are in fine condition and Santa's advance agents are making many inquiries as to the wants of the little ones. Some people tell the children that there is no Santa Claus but it is hard to shake their faith and even older ones look forward to the time when he is to arrive with some of the childhood expectancy.

The prices of produce of the farms has at present an upward tendency and the farmers can give you many substantial reasons why they have nothing at present they can reach in case you want to buy.

Jacksonville.

Misses Helen and Ruth Harper are spending their vacation with their parents Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Harper.

We are pleased to learn that Miss Helen Harper will occupy the primary department here as teacher for the coming term.

Miss Alma Havens has resigned from the primary department here in order to resume her studies at Fredericton. Miss Havens has been a great favorite here among her pupils and very successful in her work.

It will be very gratifying to all her friends to know that Miss Winnifred Turner B. A., has been promoted to the principalship of a large school in Blairmore in Southern Alberta. Miss Turner reports that already the thermometer has fallen to 40° below zero but Miss Turner is well able to meet the cold as well as to overcome the difficulties of managing a school made up of many nationalities. Several of the pupils are being prepared for Normal school by this gifted young lady, who is the second daughter of the Rev. E. C. Turner, and an honor graduate of Mount Allison University.

A most successful concert was given in the Methodist church on Tuesday evening. The Christmas message was presented in many beautiful exercises and recitations, while the choruses were full of good cheer and well rendered. Mrs. Good sang "O Holy Night" by Jules Jordan.

Miss Ethel Turner is at home from Mount Allison where she is making rapid progress in music and English.

Several weddings will take place during the festive season.

The snow has made travelling better and many happy sleighing parties have taken advantage of the snow to purchase pretty gifts from the tempting display found in Woodstock. The goods shown there are exceptionally well chosen and reasonable in price in all lines.

George Tilley B. A. returns this week from Mount Allison, where he is taking a post graduate course in Theology.

Centreville Personals.

Miss Helen Scholey left the 17th for Boston to spend Xmas with her sister Mrs. Jube.

Miss Gladys Lunn is home from Wolfville, to spend her holidays.

Miss Olive Ferguson is home from Wolfville.

George Lunn is home from Normal School. Miss Faye Burt is home from St. John.

Agnes Giberson.

At the home of her daughter, Mrs. Amos Giberson, at Bath, Dec. 17th, Agnes, widow of the late John Giberson, died at the age of 70 years.

Mrs. Giberson has suffered some time from an inward cancer and death was a sweet relief. One son and four daughters and a large circle of relatives and friends regret her departure. Born near Glasgow in Scotland and coming to this country at an early date in life, she formed many and valued acquaintances many of whom preceded her into the great beyond. A large gathering of people to attend the funeral rites at her late home showed the esteem in which she was held. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. D. Wetmore, of East Florenceville, and remains were interred in cemetery at Bath.

We Suit Well

The young man who is in the habit of walking out with his best girl is, or ought to be, particular about his dress. If he is, he will come to us so that we may array him in the most stylish of well-fitting garments and turn him forth "perfectly groomed" from every standpoint. Here he has his choice of styles and fabrics, and may be sure of a neat and correct fit at a most satisfactory price. We always make customers.

You Want to Sell Your Property !!

I WANT TO HELP YOU!

I have made a careful study of the problem of bringing the man who desires to buy into communication with the man who desires to sell, and I accomplish results through an extensive advertising system. If you want to sell I can find the man who wants to buy. I make this my business. If you have the confidence in your property, and if it is worth the value you place upon it, I can get the price for you, and I can do it much quicker and cheaper than you can.

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

To our correspondents who have been faithful in sending us the news from the different sections of Carleton County, we tender our most hearty thanks, and wish them all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Kirkland.

We have just had quite a snow storm with wind which blew it off the road, not making the travelling much better.

I wish the readers of the Dispatch a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McDougall was burned so badly Sunday morning that it died at night, it was where the other children were kindling the fire when its clothes caught. It was four years old.

Barbara Saunders has come home from New York. A young lady came with her to enjoy the cool weather of N. B.

Perley Dykeman and Wallace Crawford have been visiting their parents for a few days.

Mrs. Eusebio Davis and sons, have gone to Lawrence Mass. to spend the winter.

Mrs. J. W. Nicholson is very ill of cancer. Messrs Carter and Dickinson have been pressing hay in Monument Settlement.

Rumor says that the large storage house of Mathias Meagher at Debec Jet, was burned Dec. 13th. Mc. Cornelius McGillicuddy of Maxwell, had about three hundred barrels of potatoes stored until they could be sold.

The regular meeting of the Orange lodge was held the first Tuesday in December, the officers were elected as follows:—Leslie Kennedy, W. M.; D. G'dney, D. M.; Thomas Graham, Chaplain; J. W. Nicholson, R. S.; W. Bailey, F. S.; George Davis Treas.; Robert Greer, D. of C.; Andrew Ivey, Lect.; Jabez Snow, First Com.; Howard Davis, Sec. and Com.; C. Jackson, Third Com.; S. Graham, Forth Com.; Sam Davison, Fifth Com.

GIBSON & ROSS are selling ladies low over-shoes for $1.00 per pair.

Bath

The funeral of the late Mrs. Giberson was held on the eighteenth at the residence of her son-in-law, Amos Giberson, Rev. J. W. Wetmore conducted the service at the house. Interment was made in the village cemetery.

The public examinations of the village schools was on the fourteenth at which a splendid programme was carried out and speeches were made by Thomas Bohan and the secretary J. R. H. Simms. Mr. Bohan contrasted the schools of to-day with the schools when he was a boy. The conditions were very different now. All regretted the departure of Miss B. Jones the teacher in the Advanced Department as she was held in the highest esteem as a teacher and friend by all. Bath teachers attended the C. C. Teachers Institute.

C. E. Gallagher's new store is resplendent with new Christmas goods which show to great advantage under the bright ray of the acetylene plant they have recently had put in. All of the stores have a true holiday appearance and are doing brisk trade.

Miss Edna Giberson returned on Saturday from the P. N. School, Fredericton. She is loud in her praise of that institution.

The Misses Annie and Clara Jones, Maud Stanlake and Ada Giberson have returned from their schools to spend the holiday season at home.

Centreville.

Mr. Lewis P. Baldwin who has been Principal of the school here for the past two years, was married to Miss Oto Marithew at the home of the bride on Saturday at twelve o'clock. Rev. Mr. Ferguson performed the ceremony in the presence of a number of near relatives of the bride. The happy young took the afternoon train for St. George N. B. where the parents of the groom reside. After the holidays Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin will go to the North West where he already has an interest in land property and where two of Mr. Baldwin's brothers now reside.

Douglas McKenzie arrived here last week from Alaska. He spent some six week in Vancouver on his way here. He went to Vancouver with the intention of making some investments in land but prevailing prices were so high that he concluded that the advance for some time to come would not be sufficient to make an investment profitable.

Teachers and students are arriving from their schools and colleges to spend the holidays at their homes.

The marriage of Basil Trafford of Tracey
