Amos Margison.

On Saturday afternoon, October 9th, while helping his son, Wilnot lead clover seed, Mr. Amos Margison of Knoxford, Carleton Co., fell over the side of the waggon and broke his neck, dying about fifteen minutes afterward.

A hired man was pitching on, when, as he turned to the waggon, he heard a groan, at the same time the son observed his father lying with his head doubled under his breast and they hastened to his aid but the man was speechless. His fork was upright in the load, which had just been started. The team had not moved, so that it is thought he might have become suddenly dizzy. His health for months previous had been good and he was able to work hard. Dr. Fiald was called and noticed a bruise on his forehead which might have caused concussion of the brain but on further examination found the neck broken.

Thus suddenly was a happy home plunged into grief and gloom over the tragic passing away of one of its most dearly loved members. To the grief stricken widow and children much sympathy is extended for the loss of an unusually tender and loving husband and kind father.

Three sons and one daughter mourn, Allen J., of Upper Knoxford; Norman W., of Mars Hill, Maine; Wilnot A. who remained with his parents, and Ida, wife of Rainsford Lawrence of Knoxford. There were also eight grandchildren. Five brothers and three sisters are left; Charles, of Knoxford; Leonard and Joshua of Centreville, N. B.; George, of Lowell, Mass; Wm. Henry, of California, Mrs. Edward Miller, of Upper Woodstock; Mrs. John Long, Tracy Mills and Mrs. Chas. Weade, also in California.

Mr. Margison was about 71 years of age. His remains were interred in the Upper Knoxford United Baptist cemetery, and the services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. Samuel Greenlaw, assisted by Rev. Mr. Ferguson, of Centreville, and Rev. W. H. Johnson, of Jacksontown. Four nephews were pall-bearers, Anson Margison, Harley Margison, Wesley Burke and Guy Bartley.

Mr. Margison was one of the first settlers in the place and for more than forty years lived a highly exemplary life before his family, neighbors and friends and is mourned by old and young alike.

For many years he was a deacon of the Reformed Baptist church in Royalton and the church deeply mourns the loss of an humble faithful servant of the Master.

Mrs. Leonard Kingston.

Mrs. Leonard Kingston died at the home of her niece, Mrs. Samuel Smith, on Sunday, of paralysis. She had been an invalid for the past sixteen years. Her maiden name was Gertrude Hull, a daughter of the late Richard Hull, of this town. She is survived by a husband, five sisters, Mrs. Louis Abbott, Mrs. Bart Nelson, Mrs. Mary Brown, Mrs. Frank Rogers, of Lynn, Mass, and Mrs. Alexander Dickinson, of this town, and two brothers; Robert, of Lynn, Mass., and William, of Presque Isle, Me. The funeral was held on Tuesday, the Rev. H. G. Alder officiating. The interment was made in the lower church burying ground.

SAFETY FOR CHILDREN.
 Mothers should never give their little ones a medicine that they do not know to be absolutely safe and harmless. The so-called soothing medicines contain opiates that stupify the child without curing its ailments. An over dose of these medicines may kill the child. Baby's Own Tablets is the only child's medicine that gives the mother a guarantee of a government analyst that it contains no poisonous opiate or harmful drug. The Tablets cure constipation, indigestion, wind colic, diarrhoea, destroy worms, break up colds, and make teething easy. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The members of the A O H wish to thank the management of the armoury and friends who contributed towards the tea.

Jacksonville

Miss Clara Turner, Domestic Science Instructor in the Sussex and Hampton Consolidated schools, is spending Thanksgiving with her parents at the Methodist parsonage.

Thanksgiving was specially observed in the United Baptist church by a musical service, with several interesting exercises interspersed. The decorations in the church were tastefully arranged and added greatly to the spirit of the occasion. Rev. Mr. Johnson, the new pastor was the originator of most of the exercises, one being an acrostic on Thanksgiving.

Miss Velma Tilley, trained nurse, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chipman Tilley for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Barrie, of Woodstock, spent the Thanksgiving holiday with Major and Mrs. W. C. Good.

The choir in the Methodist church rendered special music on Sunday evening and a splendid sermon was preached by the pastor, Rev. E. C. Turner.

Mrs. Archibald Plummer acted as delegate at the W. M. S. Convention in Lakeville. Others who attended were Mesdames Turner, Good and Gibson. Miss Alice Tilley was delegate for the Mission Band here and was accompanied by her sister, Miss Hazel.

Mrs. Byron Coulthard, of Fredericton, Mrs. Flemming of Debec and Mrs. Gibson, of Northampton were guests of Mrs. E. C. Turner on Wednesday last.

Ham Nelson passed through here last week on business for the Massey Harris Co. This popular agent is doing a flourishing business through the country.

Charles Mallory and bride of St. Andrews are visiting friends here.

Temple

Thanksgiving passed off in usual manner in this place.

The rain extending over Sunday and Monday made the roads very muddy for travelling.

Merrill Hatfield who has been in Maine for the past few weeks, came home Friday. Ailan Ritchie returned from the West Monday.

The farmers here are about through with their potato digging and in spite of a number of rotten ones the crop is about the average.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy M. Moir have taken up a residence in this place.

Mrs. Herbert Marsten who has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Shaw has returned to her home at Lower Woodstock.

Miss Dore, teacher at Lake Road, spent her Thanksgiving vacation with her parents at Middle Southampton.

C Sydney Ingraham, who has charge of the advanced department of the Upper Woodstock school, spent the holiday with his parents here.

Fred Fox of Lower Southampton, spent Thanksgiving with relatives here.

Smith Grant spent Wednesday 20th inat in Woodstock.

"The Soul's Awakening."

The new premium picture given to all subscribers to the Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal, is certainly a beauty.

Never in the history of newspapers has there been such enthusiasm over a premium as "The Soul's Awakening" has created during the past two weeks. Almost every newspaper in Canada has published most flattering tributes to the Family Herald's enterprise. Clergymen of all denominations have written thanking the publishers for giving the people of Canada an opportunity to possess such a picture. Every mail brings scores of letters from parents, fathers and mothers, expressing their sincere gratitude for furnishing the home with such an elevating influence. School Inspectors have written suggesting that every school room in Canada should have a copy of "The Soul's Awakening," believing that it will have a powerful, though silent, influence on the minds of the children. The Family Herald and Weekly Star alone is big value at one dollar, but with this picture as a premium it looks like giving away money. It is said the supply is limited and there is a big rush of subscriptions. No one should miss it.

Carleton County Election Case.

Mr. Justice McLeod in Chambers St. John on Friday morning an order in the Carleton County election case of Owens, petitioner, and Upham, respondent, dismissing the petition for want of prosecution, with costs, and that the petitioner shall pay the respondent costs of preparing for trial on the first occasion, February 16th last.

This will likely be the last of this celebrated case. Twice it was before the Supreme Court at Fredericton and on each occasion the respondent won.

Some time ago Mr. A. B. Connell, K. C., acting for the petitioner, Owens, who was defeated by the respondent, Upham, in a by-election in Car. Co. last year, obtained an order from Mr. Justice McLeod in Chambers fixing August 17th last at Woodstock as the time and place for the trial of the petition. Mr. W. P. Jones, K. C., for Upham, opposed the granting of the order. On the opening day of Trinity Term last Mr. Jones obtained a rule nisi calling upon the petitioner to show cause why any such order should not be set aside. On a subsequent day Mr. Connell showed cause and Mr. Jones was heard in reply. Before the court adjourned Mr. Justice White delivered the judgement of the court setting aside the order.

Kirkland

We are having very rainy weather lately. Our teacher, Miss Clark, with her friend, Lillian Slater, is spending her Thanksgiving with relatives in Lansdowne.

Mrs. James H. McNerlin is visiting relatives in Boston.

Patrick Friel, of Monument Sett., is visiting friends in Boston.

Mrs. S. T. Milbury, has returned home from Monticello, Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. London and baby have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McNerlin.

Mr. and Mrs. John Graham, of Maxwell, have been to town on a business trip.

John W. Crawford, of Maxwell, received a dispatch that his son, Leslie, who was in Antioch, California, was in a very low state of health.

Mrs. Thomas McNerlin, of Maxwell, is visiting relatives in Boston.

Little Elsie Anderson still continues very ill; two doctors have been in attendance. Minnie McClaverty has returned to her home in St. John.

AMERNO The Hypnotist —AND HIS— VAUDEVILLE CO.

Now holding the boards at the
HAYDEN-GIBSON THEATRE.

Is an attraction of the quality such as the people of Woodstock seldom has the opportunity to witness.

Amerno as a Hypnotist is a Wonder. Working with a speed and positiveness that seems little short of the supernatural. He is a man that immediately upon his appearance on the stage, gives the impression as one that is master of his particular line, and keeps his audience in a perpetual laugh from start to finish.

Amerno Vaudeville Co. is all that could be asked for. Headed by Prince Wentworth in a series of comical situations, Trick Violin Playing, an instrument of which he is a most remarkable master.

Then comes the Moxley's in their Eccentric Comedy Sketches, Singing and Dancing, an exhibition that is right up to the minute, and well worth your while to spend an evening there.
