Field Day on the Golf Links.

The first annual field day was held on the golf links on Saturday. The weather was perfect and the golfers turned out in force. The first event was the putting and approaching match in which four of the ladies and gentlemen tied for first place, and in the play off Misses Hazel Welch, and J. S. Creighton were the winners. The mixed foursomes came next and some very low scores were turned in. This match was won by Miss Corbett and W. R. Jones. The swatfest was the last match played in which all the members of the club participated. This was probably the most interesting of the day. The players taking the highest number of strokes dropped out as each hole was played. When the last hole was reached there were only four players left, Mrs. W. B. Belyea, J. S. Creighton, W. R. Jones and Geo. Mitchell. By accurate playing Mrs. Belyea succeeded in winning the hole and the match.

At the conclusion of the days' play the ladies served luncheon, after which the prizes were presentive as follows:—

Dalling cup, won by Clarence Sprague; presented by A. D. Holyoke.

Ladies' Championship Cup, won by Miss Rankin, presented by the president A. B. Connell.

Ladies Handicap Cup, won by Mrs. A. D. Holyoke, presented by G. H. Harrison. Mair Handicap Cup, won by A. D. Holyoke, presented by T. C. L. Ketchum.

Swatfest match, won by Mrs. W. B. Belyea; Approaching and Putting contest, won by Miss Hazel Welch and J. S. Creighton; Mixed Foursomes, won by Miss Corbett and W. R. Jones; presented by Wm. Dickinson, chairman of the Greens Committee.

Clock Golf Match, won by Miss B. K. Dibblee, presented by the president A. B. Connell.

Ladies' Special Handicap Cup won by Miss Lamb, presented by J. S. Creighton.

The club decided to have a dance at the club house on Halloween.

There were two other prizes won and presented earlier in the season to Miss Helen Dibblee and Miss Jean Sprague.

Mrs. Hattie L. Pringle.

The sudden passing away through heart failure of Hattie L., beloved wife of the Rev. Gordon Pringle of Kincardine on Saturday morning October 2nd was a severe shock not only to the husband and five young children and the congregation of Kincardine but to many friends throughout the Maritime Provinces and in the Old Land.

The Rev. Simon Fraser, medical missionary was a guest at the Manse at the time but his medical knowledge was of no avail. Mr. Fraser's sympathy and support in the trying hour were however a very special Providence of God to his brother minister and to the community.

Funeral services on the following Monday were conducted by Rev. F. W. Murray and Rev. R. A. Watson when a very large gathering from the congregation and the surrounding country came to express their sympathy with the sorrowing home and to pay their tribute of respect to the memory of the departed.

The casket with beautiful and touching floral tributes was borne to Millville Churchyard by the elders of the Kirk who committed the remains to mother earth in the sure and certain hope of a glorious resurrection to the general assembly and church of the firstborn.

Mrs. Pringle who was but 35 years of age, and who had had the advantage of a training in the parsonage, being the daughter of Rev. A. E. and Mrs. LePage of Woodstock, had by her sweet and gentle Christian character won a deep and abiding place in the affection of the whole congregation.

The sorrowing husband who is greatly beloved and respected by his congregation and his brethren in the ministry, the many children, the parents of the departed, and the congregation of Kincardine have the sympathy of all in this their hour of sorrow.—Com.

Flagg-Glynn.

At the Church of the Advent, Boston, Mass., on October 4th, Miss Estella May Flagg, of Woodstock, N. B., and Charles J. Glynn, of Cambridge, Mass., were united in marriage by the Rev. Henry A. Morse. The wedding was a quiet one, only the immediate friends of the young couple being present.

Death of Amos Margison.

Amos Margison, of Upper Knoxford, Carleton county, who had been working on his farm, was found dead on Saturday in the hay field, his neck being broken. Mr. Margison had left the house about 12 o'clock Saturday noon, to bring in a load of hay. His daughter-in-law, who lives with him, became anxious when he did not return home in a reasonable time. About 4.30 in the afternoon she went out in the field and found him lying on the ground all huddled up. Turning him over she found that he was dead.

It is supposed that while Mr. Margison was on the load of hay the horse bolted, throwing him off and breaking his neck. The family at once tried to get into communication with a doctor but both of the doctors in the vicinity were away. The body was taken to the house and later, after the particulars were told to the doctor, he decided that death was accidental.

Mr. Margison was one of the most respected residents of Upper Knoxford, where he had been living for a long time. He was 70 years of age and leaves three sons and one daughter, Allen and Wilmon at home, Norman, who is residing at Mars Hill (Me.), and Mrs. R. Lawrence, of Upper Noxford. The deceased is also survived by four brothers, George and Leonard, of Centreville; Charles, of Upper Knoxford, and R.E. of Boston. The funeral took place Monday afternoon from his late residence.

The Mercer Fortune.

James A. Mercer, 2 Beechwood Place, Cork, Ireland, writes to The Telegraph in connection with the Mercer fortune, asking for information regarding relatives in Woodstock. Mr. Mercer, in his letter, says:

"I was born in Woodstock in July, 1855. My parents resided there for some years and then returned to Ireland with two sons. I am the oldest." He gives the names of a McAfee family in Woodstock as his cousins and desires that they, if located, should write him particulars of the Mercer fortune to assist him in establishing a claim to it. He says that one of his cousins, a Miss Maggie McAtee was married in 1892 to a J. B. Wolverston, but the writer of the letter is at present unable to locate any of them.

Daniel Gillen.

Daniel Gillen, one of the oldest residents of Debec, died last week, aged 92 years.

Mr. Gillen came originally from Ireland, and was among the first settlers of Richmond. He leaves six sons and one daughter, Mrs. M. McGaner of Limestone. He died at the home of his son James, although in a weak condition he did not take to his bed for a very long time and retained his faculties to the very last. Interment in the Roman Catholic cemetery, Rev. Father Murphy officiating.

Advice From a Mother

To All Other Mothers

The young mother—the inexperienced mother—is always glad to get the advice of the more experienced in the care of her little ones. Thousands of mothers have emphatically said that there is no medicine equal to Baby's Own Tablets for keeping little ones well, or restoring health if illness comes suddenly. The young mother can safely follow the lead of these others. Mrs. John Shortill, Georgetown, Ont., says:—"I would not be a day without Baby's Own Tablets in the house. I believe they saved my youngest child's life. At the age of three months she cried all the time with indigestion. Our doctor did all he could for her, but did not seem to help her. Then I got Baby's Own Tablets and they worked a wonderful change. They seemed to tone the stomach, moved the bowels regularly, and she has ever since been a healthy child." Sold at 25 cents a box by all dealers or by mail from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Boyer-Murphy.

A very pretty wedding took place Tuesday, Sept. 28th, at the home of Mr. Alfred Murphy, South Newbridge, when Rev. H. G. Kennedy united in marriage his only daughter, Miss Aldora R. Murphy and Mr. Howard W. Boyer, of East Florenceville. The bride looked very pretty in a princess suit of white nuns veiling with trimmings to match. Miss Gertrude F. Boyer, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid, attired in a dress of pale blue voile. Mr. J. Douglas Tompkins, Woodstock, supported the groom. The bridal party entered the room to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. H. G. Kennedy. After the ceremony, which took place at 1.30, tea was served to about 35 guests. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch and chain, to the bridesmaid a sapphire ring and a stick pin to the groomsmen. Mr. and Mrs. Boyer received many beautiful presents. They will reside in East Florenceville.

Mrs. Adney's Reception.

Mrs. Tappan Adney gave a reception Wednesday from four until seven o'clock, in honor of Mr. Adney's mother, Mrs. Edward Kenny, of New York. The function was most delightful and was thoroughly enjoyed by the very large number of guests, a musical programme being rendered. Among those present were: Mrs. Edgar W. Muir, Mrs. Willard L. Carr, Mrs. J. N. W. Winslow, Mrs. William M. McCann, Mrs. George Taylor (Halifax) Mrs. George Balmain, Mrs. G. Hugh Harrison, Mrs. C. E. Grant, Mrs. John McLauchlan, Mrs. Roy McLauchlan, Mrs. J. E.
