ANNOUNCEMENTS have been received by relatives of the contracting parties of the marriage of Frank N. Patterson, M. A. Ph. D., formerly of Temple, York Co., to Miss Myrtle Hoyt, of Prince William, York Co., which took place in Boston, Mass., Monday evening 28th inst.

Rev. R. A. and Mrs. McDonald, Richmond, returned from their wedding trip on Saturday.

Rev. Geo. D. Ireland took the service for Rev. R. A. McDonald, Richmond, on Sunday last.

Owens vs. Upton.
In the Supreme Court which met in Fredericton last week, the election case of William J. Owens vs. Geo. W. Upham was disposed of. The Chief Justice read the judgment setting aside the order fixing the 17th of August next for the trial on both grounds that the petition had not been published as the act required, and that it had not been posted in the registry office as required by the act. The unanimous opinion of the court was that the rule be absolute to set aside the order with costs, and with costs of opposing the summons to set the case down for trial. A like judgment was given in the case of the order extending the time for trial. The decision is in favor of the sitting member Mr. Upham on all the issues of the case and practically confirms him in his seat.

HYMNEAL.

Tracey--Knapps.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Knapps, of Amity, Me., when their daughter, Miss Ella, was united in marriage with Reid Tracey, of the same place. Rev. Mr. Cahill of the Baptist church performed the ceremony at four o'clock in the afternoon. About fifty invited guests witnessed the ceremony and partook of a sumptuous tea. The parlor was decorated with flowers, the bay window with blossoms and potted plants. The bride's dress was white silk muslin trimmed with lace. She wore white silk hose and white kid slippers. She wore white bows and fancy comb in her hair, and her travelling suit a blue skirt and coat, with hat to match and white silk waist. There was a reception at 8 o'clock at the home of the groom and about two hundred assembled and had a first class time. The presents were numerous and costly, including lots of silver articles and over forty dollars in cash presented by friends of the bride. The company were treated to peanuts, cigars, candy and ice cream. All join in wishing them a long and happy married life.—Com.

Rice-McElroy.

St. John, the Evangelist church, Johnville, was the scene of a quiet wedding on Wednesday morning, June 30th, when Rev. Father Coughlin united in marriage, Daniel T. Rice and Emma Katherine, daughter of Mrs. Katherine McElroy. The bride was attended by Annie I. Rice a sister of the groom, while the latter was supported by Thos. McElroy.

The bride, who was dressed in cream crepe de chine, was given away by her brother Terence McElroy.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, nuptial mass was celebrated, after which a dainty wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother.

Many useful and pretty gifts were received by the bride, the groom's gift being a bracelet, and to the bridesmaid a garnet ring.

The happy couple left for home in the afternoon carrying with them the best wishes of their many friends for a long and happy life.

Lovely-Briggs.

The home of Mr. John Briggs, Gordonsville (N. B.), was the scene of a very pretty wedding on June 30, at 4 p. m., when his daughter, Minnie, was joined in matrimony with Mr. J. Frank Lovely, one of Gordonsville's brightest and most popular young farmers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. W. Murray. Miss Myrtle Briggs acted as maid, while the groom was supported by Mr. C. E. Merritt of Bristol. After the ceremony a dainty supper was served to a large number of guests consisting of the near relatives and immediate friends of the bride and groom.

The happy young couple will make their home in Gordonsville, where they will be followed by the best wishes of their many friends. The wedding gifts were tasteful and pretty.

The happy couple left on the 5.30 train (amid showers of rice and good wishes) for St. John, Beulah and Nova Scotia.

The coach which conveyed them to the train was decorated with tin cans, a sack of straw and a placard bearing the words "just married."

McCall-Wilkinson.

On Wednesday, June 30th at 12 o'clock, noon, a very pretty marriage took place at the home of Charles Wilkinson, Centreville, Car. Co. N. B., when his daughter, Alice Esther was married to Roy Cowan McCall, of Foxcroft, Penn.

Miss Bessie Harold played the wedding march, to the strains of which, the bride, on the arm of her father, entered the drawing room, which was tastefully decorated with ferns and potted plants.

The bride wore a travelling suit of brown broadcloth with hat to match, and carried a neat white prayerbook.

After the ceremony which was performed by the Rev. W. P. Dunham, of McAdam, a very excellent lunch was served. The wedding was a quiet one, only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties being present.

The esteem in which the bride is held, was shown by the many gifts consisting of solid silver, cut glass and cheques, amongst which were two one hundred dollar bills from a friend of the groom. The groom's present was a ring with sapphires and diamonds.

The happy couple, who have the best wishes of their hosts of friends, left the house amidst showers of rice. They were accompanied by a party on their drive to Florenceville station, where they were given a final send off with good wishes, rice and confetti. The wedding will be through Fredericton, Montreal, Toronto, New York, Philadelphia to Winnipeg their future home.

Tweedie-Caldwell.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the Presbyterian church, Bristol, at "High Noon" on Wednesday, June 30, when Eva Maye Caldwell, daughter of the late Matthew and Mrs. Caldwell, was united in marriage to Barrie Hayward Tweedie of Lakeview, Maine. Rev. F. W. Murray of Glassville performed the ceremony in the presence of one hundred and fifty invited guests. The church was beautifully decorated with daisies, potted plants and white satin ribbon. The bride wore an elegant costume of white liberty satin en train with trimmings of silk embroidered chiffon and heavy silk applique with veil of tulle and carried a shower bouquet of cream roses and maiden hair ferns.

To the strains of the bridal march from Lonegrin which was played by S. Gordon Emery of Lakeview, Maine. The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother, George L. Caldwell, by whom she was given in marriage. She was preceded by Miss Inez Bradley as maid of honor who wore an empire dress of pale pink silk mull with trimmings of maltese lace and insertion and large black picture hat trimmed with black ostrich plumes and streamers and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Miss Maude Hartley and Miss Alice Merritt acted as bridesmaids and wore empire costumes of white silk mull trimmed with filet lace and insertion and large white hats trimmed with maline and ostrich plumes and carried bouquets of white roses. Little Helen Somerville and Gladys Lewis acted as flower girls and were dressed in white French organdie with valenciennes trimmings and carried baskets of white roses. The bride and her attendants were met at the altar by the bridegroom and Gordon Caldwell, brother of the bride, who acted as best man; Andrew McCall and Arthur Jewett acted as ushers.

The groom's present to the bride was a cheque for $100.00, to the maid of honor a signet brooch; to the bridesmaids brooches with amethyst and jade settings; to the flower girls pearl set rings; to the best man monogram cuff links; to the ushers and organist, scarf pins.

Immediately after the ceremony the guests repaired to the home of the bride's mother where a reception was held.

Three girl friends of the bride, Misses Beulah Phillips, Ethyl Bell and Lena Boyer served a dainty luncheon in the dining room.

The presents received by the bride were elegant, including cut glass, silver, dainty china and cheques.

The bridal couple left on the 4.29 train for a short trip to Fredericton and St. John.

The bride's travelling suit was a directoire costume of dark green chiffon broadcloth with hat to match.

Long-Gartley.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Gartley, Farmerston, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, on Wednesday, June 30th, when their youngest daughter, Emma Jane Wilson, was united in marriage to Guy Milford Long, eldest son of Mr. John Long of Long Settlement. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. W. Teed, rector of Richmond, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom and a number of friends. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of cream silk lansdowne with allover lace trimmings and carried a bouquet of white roses, carnations and maidenhair fern. The gown was a present from the bride's sister, Miss Jennie Gartley. The bridal couple unattended, entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Della Long, sister of the groom.

After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served. A pleasant evening was spent by the guests after which the happy couple left for their future home in Farmerston, amid a shower of rice.

The bride received many handsome presents. Both young people are highly esteemed in the community and best wishes are extended to them for a long and happy married life.

Notes of the Military Camp.

The usual divine service was held on the Camp grounds on Sunday morning, the Rev. H. G. Ailder, chaplain of the 67th, officiating. The different corps turned out in full strength and the Band assisted in the musical part of the service. An admirable address was delivered by the chaplain on the duties of a soldier both in facing physical and spiritual enemies.

The Roman Catholic contingent attended service in St. Gertrude's church in the morning.

The Brighton Engineers were inspected last week by Col. Wetherbee and the 10th Field Battery by Col. English.

Brigadier General Drury arrived on the noon express on Monday and in the afternoon inspected the combined forces in camp.

A large number of people from town visited the camp ground on Sunday afternoon to listen to the band concert and inspect the grounds, but were driven home by the heavy showers.

A program of sports will be held on the Military Camp grounds on Wednesday evening beginning at 7.30 o'clock. The regimental band will render music.

The 19th Field Battery had a march out on Tuesday morning, and presented a fine appearance.

Golf.

The annual 1st of July match took place in St. John between the St. John and Woodstock clubs, with the usual result, the defeat of the Woodstock team by a score of 12 to 18. The weather was perfect for golfing and the Woodstock boys spent a very pleasant day. At luncheon speeches were made by George McAvity and Dr. Magee, of the St. John club, and Geo. E. Balmain and A. D. Holyoke, of the Woodstock team. Following is the score:
