McCaskill-Cunliffe.

The marriage of Miss Frances Dickey Cunliffe to Rev. John James McCaskill took place at Christ Church, Fort Kent, Maine, on Tuesday, June 28th. As the Lohengrin wedding march was played by Bernard Archibald, of Houlton, the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, and preceded by Miss Laura Mallett, flower girl, was met at the altar by the groom, Mr. W. H. Cunliffe, jr.

The bride was attended by the Misses Emma Putnam and Virginia Donnell, of Houlton, as bridesmaids. She wore a gown of diaphanous satin en traine with veil fastened with lilies of the valley and carried a shower bouquet of the same flowers, while the bridesmaids looked charming in pink chiffon over messaline. Rev. Kenneth McKay, of Houlton, officiated and the church was filled with relatives and friends of the bride and groom and following the service an informal reception was held. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful pendant of aqua marine seed pearls while the bridesmaids, groomsmen, flower girl and ushers were appropriately remembered. Miss Cunliffe, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cunliffe, is one of the most charming ladies of Fort Kent and her departure is keenly regretted.

Tracey Mills.

On Sunday, June 13th, I read a statement at each of the churches of this circuit, stating that, in consequence of a number of very urgent requests for me to remain, I would be willing to have Conference upon the matter on the following Tuesday evening, and that if the Conference were attended by a reasonable representation of the three churches, who would agree upon some plan of systematic contribution, and pledge themselves to attend the regular services as often as possible. I would reconsider my resignation handed in three months ago.

The meeting was held. Two churches were well represented, but three members only of Lower Knoxford were present.

The Conference was good, and perfectly unanimous, only the Lower Knoxford representatives refused to commit their church to any decision and spoke and voted personally only.

The meeting therefore passed an unanimous invitation subject to ratification or veto by the Lower Knoxford church.

A meeting of that church was called eight days later. Very few took the trouble to attend, and those who did refused to agree to the resolution of the circuit meeting of June 15th.

Hence the invitation has been throttled

Clark-Richardson.

A very pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lee at 143 Branch street, Wednesday evening, June 23, when their sister, Amanda Richardson, was united in marriage to Mr. William Clark. They were attended by Mr. Fred Richardson and Miss Mattie Broadbent. The bride was daintily gowned in white satin and carried white roses, while the bridesmaid wore white muslin and carried red roses.

Helen Lee, niece of the bride, and Helen Broadbent were flower girls.

The house was very prettily decorated with potted plants and cut flowers.

Among the out-of-town guests was Mrs. J. F. Richardson, the bride's mother, from Carleton county, N. B. Rev. Mr. Cummings of the First Baptist church officiated.

The couple received many beautiful and useful wedding gifts.

The Church and War.

W. A. Douglas, in White Ribbon Tidings: We stand in this country today in face of a real danger. A vast voice has called for increased military expenditure. At the present time a tremendous amount of influence is being exercised for the maintenance of the spirit and methods of war. How much is being done for the enthronement of peace? Not a little! Military parades, military glorifications, the drum and trumpet history, all these are having their effect in developing the spirit of militarism.

It is a terrible thing to think how little Christianity has really accomplished for the world. Instead of an immense voice going up at the present time, proclaiming emphatically for the adoption of the methods of peace, there has been a great and emphatic shout for the weapons of war. The time will come, I doubt not, when the swords will be beaten into plough-shares and the spears into pruning hooks, but the people—even the professed Christian people—are doing very little to bring this about.

In the reading books of the children there should be far less of the glorification of the deeds of war and far more of the triumphs of peace. Instead of so much adoration to the men of battle, there should be the honor that is due to the men who have fought and suffered for the freedom and elevation of humanity.

One of the most unique tasks electricity is, says London Tit Bits, to be compelled to accomplish is the picking of chickens. An electric fan for this purpose has been advised for wholesale poultry-picking. The fan is placed in a receptacle, through which it drives a blast of air claimed to be sufficient to remove all the feathers and down from a fowl in a few seconds.

A country minister in the course of his visiting stayed at a house where a roast chicken was served for dinner. The chicken looked good to him.

'Well,' he facetiously remarked, 'here's where that chicken enters the ministry.' 'Hope it does better there than in lay work,' rejoined the small boy of the family, who recognised an old backyard retainer.

Closing Exercises of the Grammar School.

The closing exercises of the Carleton Co., Grammar School, took place in the Hayden-Gibson Theatre on Wednesday evening. Mr. W. B. Belyea, the chairman of the Board of School Trustees, was in the chair. In his opening remarks, Mr. Belyea spoke of the misfortune the Board had met with in the loss of the Broadway School, but they thought they now had a building that would fully meet their requirements. The Board appreciated the work done by all the town teachers. The following program was rendered in a very efficient manner:—Piano Solo, Miss Fannie Raymond; Reading of prize essay, Edward Berry; Reading from Drummond by Mr. Richard Allingham; Class History, Miss Fannie Raymond; Solo, Mrs. Geo. Gibson; Class prophecy, Edward Berry; Solo Mrs. Tappan Adney; Valedictory, Ralph Allingham.

The presentation of prizes was now made:—English Essay in Grade XI., Silver medal given by W. M. Connell, presented by J. D. Carey and won by Fannie Raymond; English Literature and History in Grade XI., Silver medal given and presented by W. B. Belyea, and won by Fannie Raymond; Mathematics in Grade XI., medal given by F. B. Carvell, M. P., presented by Mr. Estabrooks and won by Fannie Raymond. Mr. Richards presented the following graduates with their diplomas:—Genevieve Brophy, Persis Sherwood, Faye Plummer, Fannie Raymond, Donald Manzer, Edward Berry, Ralph Allingham, Douglas Winslow, Gordon Bailey and Ned Raymond.

Address to graduating class was made by Mr. T. C. L. Ketchum. A prize for general standing in Grade X., given by J. D. Carey, presented by J. D. Carey, presented by C. D. Richards and won by Jack Hipwell.

A medal for History in Grade IX. given by H. V. Dalling and won by Florence Dickinson. Mr. Dibblee said the Trustees of the town felt that the new Broadway school had been unfairly criticized, and he on behalf of the Board would ask the people of the town to visit it and inspect it for themselves. Prize for Latin in Grade IX., presented by W. B. Belyea, won by Nora Raymond.

A few remarks were made by Principal Richards along the line of work they had taken up for the last year and the exercises closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Beyond the Pale.

A friend of James Whitcomb Riley tells, says the London Tit-Bits, of an occasion when the humorist, who was, as a rule, extremely averse to social functions, was induced to attend a "literary" dinner given in honor of a novelist.

Riley had been told off to take in to dinner the sister of his host—an excellent woman, though anything but literary.

The conversation touching upon the beauties of Chaucer, about whom a certain set of the city was then cultivating a fad, a spirited discussion ensued, during which the bewildered sister caught only the name, "Chaucer."

At last she whispered to Riley: "Who is this Mr. Chaucer they're talking about so much? Is he very popular in society?"

"Madam," solemnly responded Riley, "that man did something that for ever shuts him out of society!"

"Heavens!" exclaimed the worthy dame, "and what was that?"

"He died several hundred years ago," said Riley.

Butcher—Well, sir, did that piece o' beef do for all your family?

Customer—Very nearly, but the doctor has hopes for three of them.

All used up

Miss Ella Wood, of Brownsville, near Woodstock, says:—"I have to thank PSYCHINE for my present health. I could hardly drag myself across the floor. I could not sweep the carpet. If I went for a mile or two on my wheel I was too weak to lift it through the gateway, and last time I came in from having a spasm I dropped utterly helpless from fatigue. My father gave me no peace until I procured PSYCHINE, knowing it was excellent for decline or weakness, I must say the results are wonderful and people remarked my improvement."
"Instead of a little, pale, hollow checked, listless, melancholy girl, I am to-day full of life, ready for a sleigh-ride, a skating match, or an evening party with anyone, and a few months ago I could not struggle to church, 80 rods from my home. I have never had the slightest cause to fear any return of the disease." If you are "All used up" and run down you can be built up in a short time by PSYCHINE. It creates rich, red blood, revives the appetite and transforms the weak into strong healthy beings.
