Constipation

Baked sweet apples, with some people, bring prompt relief for Constipation. With others, coarse all-wheat bread will have the same effect.
Nature undoubtedly has a vegetable remedy to relieve every ailment known to man, if physicians can but find Nature's way to health. And this is strikingly true with regard to Constipation.
The bark of a certain tree in California—Cascara Sagrada—offers a most excellent aid to this end. But, combined with Egyptian Senna, Slippery Elm Bark, Solid Extract of Prunes, etc., this same Cascara bark is given its greatest possible power to correct constipation. A toothsome Candy Tablet, called Lax-ets, is now made at the Dr. Shoop Laboratories, from this ingenious and most effective prescription. Its effect on Constipation, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Bad Breath, Sallow Complexion, etc., is indeed prompt and satisfying.

No griping, no unpleasant after effects are experienced, and Lax-ets are put up in beautiful lithographed metal boxes at 5 cents and 25 cents per box.

For something new, nice, economical and effective, try a box of

But For a Day.

(Westminster Gazette)

Sleep, sleep in peace, fallen leaves of fallen roses,

Fallen crimson roses, on the grass rain-drenched.

Forget the sun, the south wind, and the dew,

Forget the song the gray doves sang to you.

Day closes, day closes,

The sunset fades, the painted torch is quenched.

Sleep, sleep, O roses; loosed the wreath and broken;

The feast is done, empty the golden bowl.

Forget the lips that touched, the hands that met,

Joys, sorrows, kisses, tears—forget,
The dusk has spoken.

Death breathes his sleep-spell to the flower's soul.

La plus belle ne dure qu'un jour, to-morrow

New crimson petals the green boughs will bear,

Sunshine and dew-fall the new dawn will bring,

And their old song anew the doves will sing,

And joy and sorrow

Will tread the grass nor heed that you sleep there.

Stomach troubles would more quickly disappear if the idea of treating the cause, rather than the effect, would come into practice. A tiny, inside, hidden nerve, says Dr. Shoop, governs and gives strength to the stomach. A branch also goes to the Heart, and one to the Kidneys. When these "inside nerves" fail then the organs must falter. Dr. Shoop's Restoratives is directed specifically to these-failing nerves. Within 48 hours after starting the Restorative treatment patients say they realize a gain. Sold by all dealers.

Frock For a Slender Figure.

A pretty robe for a thin figure is in one of the new wisteria shades in chiffon cloth. The bodice, with a square-cut opening at the top, shows the body gathered quite around the neck, except across the centre back, where a palstion of embroidery is set, and it is also gathered quite as full into arm's eye seam, the edges being finished with half-inch cord covered with satin.

The skirt is also gathered full and hangs in straight folds with the over drapery carried from the left side across the back to the right, where the folds are tucked under and the wide end falls in a sack effect over the foundation.

The girdle is a sash knotted loosely at one side with fringed ends, and the gimp is of cream lace over wisteria shaded chiffon, the lace ruffled full to better supply any lack in the arms.

To quickly check a cold, druggists are dispensing everywhere, a clever Candy Cold Cure Tablet called Preventics. Preventics are also fine for feverish children. Take Preventics at the sneeze stage, to head off all colds. Box of 48—25c.

The Loafer.

Punch has this sketch on. "The Loafer": small for his age, slim, and with an appearance that one would call "nervy." He does very little for me, but I keep him partly because I have a genuine affection for him partly because most business men enjoy the services (such as they are) of one of his class but mostly because he possesses in a marked degree those two characteristics which go to make the ideal servant—ubiquity and un-obtrusiveness. He is always there in case he is wanted, but never in the way. He is perhaps too modest; but it must also be said that he leads the idlest of lives. His handwriting is so abominable that I cannot entrust my correspondence to him, and if I ask him to do any odd jobs they are usually badly done.

He has the annoying habit of drumming his fingers on tables and desks, a sure sign of the idler. However, although he could hardly be called my right hand in business, I should be genuinely sorry to lose him.

Perhaps I ought to have mentioned at the outset that I am referring to my left hand.

Taught Him a Lesson.

Crosby had always been inclined to conservation in household expenses, especially in the matter of his wife's dress bills. His wife went so far that he was penurious.

She had been in need of a new boa for a long time, and after she hinted that her happiness would never be quite complete till she had one, he at last consented to make the purchase. He went in a store and picked out two, one of which was a cheap imitation affair, and the other a fine expensive one.

Taking them to his office before going home, he changed the price marks, the expensive tag on the cheap boa and vice versa.

His wife examined them for a long time very seriously indeed, and then said now dear, the expensive boa is a beauty, and it is really very good of you to allow me my choice. Some women would take it without a word; but really I don't think we can afford the more costly one, and besides, dear, I think the cheap one the more stylish, too.
Why, Cros, dear, what's the matter? Are you ill?"

But dear old Cros had made his getaway into the night where he could kick himself as bad as he felt he deserved. But what he would like to know, is this: Did his wife happen on the more expensive boa by pure accident, or—

A Doughty Foe.

M. de Willemessant, the founder of the Paris Figaro, being insulted daily in a Belgian paper by a writer whose nom-de plume was "Marco Spada," took the train to Brussels, with two friends and a pair of swords.
On his arrival, he wrote to "Marco Spada" that at two p. m. sharp he should call on him to arrange an encounter. On the stroke of two M. de Willemessant appeared at the editorial office, and asked for "Marco Spada." What was his amazement on seeing an old lady, all wrinkled and with curls above her ears, appear from behind a small window, and on hearing the reply: "I am 'Marco Spada, sir, and am at your orders!"

Play Your Part

It is said that once, when a well known musical director was having a rehearsal, with a vast array of performers and hundreds of voices, as the mighty chorus rang out with thunder of the organ, and the roll of drums, and ringing horns, and cymbals clashing, some man who played the piccolo far away in some corner said within himself, "In all this din it matters not what I do," and so he ceased to play.
Suddenly the great conductor stopped, flung his hands and all was still—and then he cried aloud, "Where is the piccolo!" The quick ear missed it, and all was spoiled because it failed to take its part. O my soul, do thy part with all thy might! Little thou mayest be, insignificant and hidden, and yet God seeks thy praise. He listens for it, and all the great music of His universe is made richer and sweeter because thou givest Him thanks. "Bless the Lord, O my soul!"— Mark Guy Pearse.

Coughs, Colds BRONCHITIS

If there is an ailment in the throat or chest, it is surely essential that the remedy be conveyed direct to the affected part. It's because the healing vapor of Catarrhozone is breathed into the sore, irritated throat and bronchial tubes, because its balsamic fumes kill the germs and destroy the cause of the trouble. These are the reasons why Catarrhozone never yet failed to cure a genuine case of Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis, or Throat Trouble.

The wonderfully soothing vapor of Catarrhozone instantly reaches the furthest recesses of the lungs, produces a healing, curative effect that is impossible with a tablet or liquid, which goes merely to the stomach, and falls entirely to help the throat or lungs.

To permanently cure your winter ills, your coughs, sneezing, and Catarrh, by all means use a tried and proven remedy like Catarrhozone. But beware of the substitutor and imitator. Look for Catarrhozone only. 50c and $1. at all dealers.
